Today

Waiting For News
Alas, Poor Press Agent
Some Quit. Some Do Not
Mrs. Snow, In Paris

By Arthur Brisbane

Copyright, 1935, by King Features Syndicate, Inc., International copyright and all other rights reserved.

WHEN THIS was written at half-past four yesterday, New York time, reporters outside the Flemington jury room had learned by some mysterious "grape-vine," perhaps inaccurate, that the jury stood 11 to 1 for conviction. You may know before you read this what really happened. Editors of morning and evening newspapers were interested to know at what hour the jury would make up its mind.

Had the decision come in the morning, evening newspapers would have got the circulation." Coming in the late afternoon would give the circulation to morning newspapers.

The eager managing editors remind you of "Tristram Shandy" when the mistress of the house had died, and the serving maid could think or talk of nothing except the particular garment she hoped to inherit.

Who are the saddest men on earth this morning? They are the "press agents," gentlemen that work for politicians, theatrical stars, society persons and others that would like to be talked about on the front page.

The proverbial "snowflake in the nether region" would have as good a chance as a press agent trying for the front page with the "Macon Wreck," "The Richest Girl Married" and "THE HAUPTMANN VERDICT."

The imaginary agent might as well have tried to sell toy balloons in Pompeii while the eruption was on.

It was all the titanothere could do to secure half a "stick" of front page space. And he, just found, was a prehistoric rhinoceros as big as an elephant, dead thirty million years ago. Ordinarily, he would be good for a full column.

Two kinds of men, two kinds of nations; one kind quits in the face of misfortune, the other does NOT quit.

This nation has lost another dirigible, for reasons that will be developed more or less clearly. Will it now quit or build more dirigibles?

If it DOES as it SHOULD, build more, it might let civilians try to run them for awhile. Germans have been running the same old dirigible back and forth across the ocean on business errands regularly, for years with no disaster.

The French say, literally translated, "A misfortune is quickly arrived."

The suggestion of a serious explosion on the Macon reminds you that the war misfortune could quickly arrive.

Suppose it were suggested, then proved that the great dirigible had been wrecked by representatives of some hostile navy, objecting to our big dirigible over the Pacific. What then? That would take our minds off the Hauptmann case, and the Doris Duke wedding.

It is utterly unthinkable, but you remember what happened after the Maine sank. "Everything is possible."

Ladies, interested in Paris fashions of this very hour, new hats, bonnets, low-heeled shoes, corsets, pinched at the waist, "evening silhouettes," would you almost give your life to know what Patou, Vionett, Schiaparelli, Molyneux, and other famous dressmakers will make American women look like this year?

Listen on your radio at three o'clock today, Eastern standard time, for the NBC-WJZ network, to Mrs. Cromwell Snow, talking from Paris. She is the editor of Harper's Bazaar, and if you must wear a patch on your left cheek, or a yellow rosebud on your right hip this year, she will tell you. This able person, who knows more about fashions than all the male French dressmakers put together, talking fashions through the air, represents modern enterprise. Every intelligent "buyer" will listen.

A pretty young girl, Miss Doris Duke, well advertised by reporters as "the wealthiest girl in the world," is off for Europe as Mrs. James H. R. Cromwell, she and Mr. Cromwell having decided to get married suddenly.

The young man did not need any "richest girl in the world," having plenty of money of his

Continued on Page 6, Column 5

HIALEAH SELECTIONS (FOR FRIDAY)
By Dave Wilson

1—Golden Lyre, Glory Greenock, Distract.
2—No Saint, Postscript, Quickly.
3—Ding Bin, Broadsword, Feudal Lord.
4—Civil War, Day Signal, Ridge Mor.
5—Currants, Mock Turtle, Phildia.
6—Gold Basis, Golden Way, Wise Advocate.
7—Idle Flirt, Stand Out, Durga.

BEST BET—NO SAINT.

MILLENS AND FABER MUST DIE

THE WEATHER

Rain, or possibly snow turning to rain, and warmer tonight and Friday; lowest temperature tonight near 32 degrees; moderate to fresh northeasterly winds.

High tides at 5:17 a. m., 5:34 p. m. Sun rises at 6:42, and sets at 5:14. Light all vehicles tonight at 5:44.

5 A. M. TEMPERATURES

Boston	26	Los Angeles	58
Washington	34	San Francisco	48
New York	32	Atlanta	46
Chicago	36	Seattle	40

DETAILS ON PAGE 3

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

NRA WE DO OUR PART

7 P.M. SPORTS STOCKS CLOSING PRICES

VOL. 31—No. 275 Published Daily Except Sundays and Holidays by N. E. Newspaper Pub. Co. Entered as 2nd Class Matter at Boston P. O. BOSTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1935 2 CENTS ZONE PRICE 3 CENTS

WIFE BARRED FROM BRUNO

Aged Mother's Plea for Roosevelt's Aid Fails

THE LAST, DRAMATIC MOMENT in the Bruno Hauptmann trial! This picture, rushed to The Boston Evening American by special airplane shows: A—Bruno Hauptmann as he waited to hear the guilty verdict. B—Clerk Fell who polled the jurors. C—Justice Trenchard and D—the jury. (Picture from International News Photograph Service)

COURT DENIES MILLEN APPEAL

"Judgments on the verdicts." With those four words, the full bench of the State Supreme Court today sounded the doom of Murton and Irving Millen, and Abe Faber.

They must die in the electric chair.

In their trial and conviction, last Spring, for the murder of Patrolman Forbes A. McLeod during the Needham Trust Company holdup there was no error of law, no violation of constitutional right, the court decided.

Sentence of death will be pronounced in superior court at Dedham by Judge Nelson P. Brown, probably within two weeks.

Announcement that he would move for sentence as soon as Judge Brown is available was made at Plymouth by District Attorney Edmund R. Dewing.

Appeal to the United States Supreme Court in behalf of Faber will be taken after sentence is pronounced, said William R. Scharton, his lawyer, with a similar appeal likely in behalf of the Millen brothers by their counsel, George Stanley Harvey.

Trial "Fair"

The long-awaited opinion of the Supreme Court was a lengthy decision containing praise of Judge Brown for his administration of the trial, which began April 16 and lasted nine weeks. The full bench ruled:

"The trial covered a period of several weeks and was conducted by the presiding judge with fairness and in accordance with the rules of law.

"As no constitutional right of the defendants was violated, and as no error of law appears in the conduct of the trial, the entry must be judgments on the verdicts."

The doomed men will be transferred as soon as sentence is pronounced to the state prison from Dedham jail where the Millens made several desperate attempts to escape.

R. E. WOOD
U. S. Adviser
FOR RELIEF

By Associated Press

Washington, Feb. 14—President Roosevelt today asked Robert E. Wood, Chicago business man, to organize an advisory committee to consult with him in the spending of the proposed $4,000,000,000 work relief fund.

Wood, who is president of Sears, Roebuck & Company, will serve on a volunteer basis as will members of the committee.

Word of Wood's selection came shortly after Chairman Glass filed in the Senate the appropriation committee's report on the work relief bill.

Secretary Roper who accompanied Wood to the White House together with H. P. Kendall, chairman of the commerce department's advisory and planning council, explained the Wood committee would act simply in an advisory capacity.

Balances and Receipts

Washington, Feb. 14—Today's Treasury balance, $2,201,711,731. U. S. customs receipts, $9,913,490.

AT HIALEAH PARK

First—Transit Lady 112 (Gilbert) 15.50, 8.30, 5.00; f-Holdum Brown 115 (S. Renick) 6.00, 4.30; Browbeaten 112 (Porter) 17.10. Off 2:23. Also ran—Erla, Krona, Jolly Faye, John Tlo, Dark Thatch, Top Tax, Overmantle, Willow Wood, Miss Spark, f-Miss Glory, f-Runamuck. (f—Field).

Code Probe Urged by Senators

By Associated Press

Washington, Feb. 14—A Senate investigation of NRA and the operation of industry under codes was proposed today by Senators Nye (R.-N.D.) and McCarran (D.-Nev.).

They offered a resolution to have the inquiry made by the Senate commerce committee, but Senator Couzens (R.-Mich.), a member of the finance committee which handles NRA legislation objected.

The resolution would appropriate $25,000 for an inquiry into charges that administration of the codes had resulted in "injustice, oppression and favoritism."

HITLER REPLIES
To Britain, France

Berlin, Feb. 14 (AP)—The German government today gave its reply to the Anglo-French peace plan.

The note was delivered to Sir Eric Phipps, British ambassador, and French Ambassador Andre Francois-Poncet.

A reliable source said the communique demands absolute arms equality, says Germany will talk about an aviation pact only if her relations with Soviet Russia are taken into consideration and requests a plebiscite in Austria to determine whether that nation wishes to join Germany.

No Word on Gold

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—The Supreme Court meeting at noon today proceeded with routine business, giving no indication as to when its gold decision will be ready.

An Answer to Kidnapers

THE thanks of America go out to "Jersey Justice" for the verdict dooming Bruno Richard Hauptmann for the murder of the Lindbergh baby.

Eight men and four women, true to their duty reached the only decision possible.

They were guided by the intelligent summation of an intelligent jurist—Judge Thomas W. Trenchard.

Hauptmann, to expiate this crime of the century, has been sentenced to die in the electric chair the week of March 18.

Had there been any other result from this trial which has stirred a nation, it would have amounted to the declaration of an open season for kidnaping. THERE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN A SINGLE CHILD IN AMERICA SAFE FROM THE MENACE OF THIS MOST ATROCIOUS OF ALL CRIMES.

THE State of New Jersey and its twelve patriotic citizens who served so faithfully on this jury are to be congratulated. The State can be proud of Judge Trenchard, whose patience and fairness were outstanding throughout the long trial.

The verdict did more than merely condemn Bruno Hauptmann to death.

It warned—and the warning will be heard in the vilest depths of the underworld—that America's punishment for kidnapers is DEATH.

Mother's Plea to Roosevelt

Washington, Feb. 14—President Roosevelt was described today as lacking power to pardon Bruno Richard Hauptmann as requested by his mother. The explanation given by the Justice Department was that the President only has power to pardon persons convicted in the federal courts.

Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press

Kamenz, Germany, Feb. 14—Frau Pauline Hauptmann, heartbroken and sobbing, appealed today to President Roosevelt to save her son, Bruno, from the electric chair.

"He will help an old mother," she said as she sat down to write the President a letter.

In it she said the President's failure to pardon Hauptmann would

Continued on Page 6, Column 4

WIFE BARRED FROM BRUNO

Hauptmann Today

Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted of murder of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., is sentenced to die in the electric chair the week of March 18.

Hauptmann breaks in cell. Cries he is innocent.

Defense counsel to carry case to Supreme Court of the United States if necessary. Hauptmann may not be put to death until October.

Defendant's mother, Frau Pauline Hauptmann, in Kamenz, Saxony, Germany, writes President Roosevelt a letter begging him to be "merciful."

Sheriff bars wife from visiting Bruno while he remains in Flemington jail.

Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh make no comment on the verdict.

By Associated Press

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—Bruno Richard Hauptmann woke from a fitful sleep today, a man condemned to die in the electric chair for the murder of baby Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr.

Edward J. Reilly, chief of his defense counsel, characterized his conviction and sentence a "miscarriage of justice."

He and his three associates prepared to ask a stay of sentence and start the machinery of appeal. He said:

"The fight to save Bruno Richard Hauptmann has just begun.

"It is one of the greatest miscarriages of justice when mob psychology overcomes judicial calm.

"With all the handwriting experts, wood experts, and fancy pattern makers introduced by the state, millions of Americans are asking the question, 'was Hauptmann in the nursery?' and 'how did he get there.'"

The sheriff of Hunterdon County announced he would move his notorious prisoner to the death house in the state prison at

Continued on Page 2, Column 1

Reilly Moves to Prepare Appeal for Bruno Hauptmann

VERDICT All Wrong, HE SAYS

WIFE DENIED VISIT TO BRUNO

Continued from First Page

Trenton Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Hauptmann continued a mournful routine of life behind drawn shades in the yellow frame house in which she has been staying.

She emerged once to hang a freshly-washed sleeping suit of her small son's on a backyard line.

She was not allowed to comfort, or even visit, her condemned husband.

Hauptmann's mother in Kamenz, Germany, asked: "Is there no God in Heaven?" and sat down to write an appeal to President Roosevelt—who has no veto power over a sentence meted out by a sovereign state.

Asks Public Defense Fund

Reilly and his associates, confident the state will have to help finance an appeal, planned to plead to the public for a "Hauptmann defense fund" to carr the fight on.

United States Senator W. Warren Barbour of New Jersey considered the verdict fair warning to kidnapers to avoid the famed justice of his state.

The jury ended its 43 days of enforced companionship shortly before noon when its individual members left the Union Hotel for their homes under police escort.

The several persons who figured in Hauptmann's arrest awaited their rewards. Indications were they would have to wait until any appeal was finally lost. The state offered $25,000.

The $14,000 ransom cache found in Hauptmann's garage belongs to Colonel Lindbergh, who paid $50,000 ransom.

He is not likely to get it back until the state is positive it will not need it as evidence in a new trial.

Appeals to Save Bruno for 2 Years, Says Reilly

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—Bruno Richard Hauptmann "is a long way from execution." Edward J. Reilly, the condemned man's chief counsel, declared today.

Reilly said he believed the appeals the defense will take from the verdict and the sentence of Hauptmann "will take two years and run into the early part of 1937."

He expressed confidence that Hauptmann will not be electrocuted next month. Justice Thomas W. Trenchard sentenced him to be executed during the week beginning March 8 next.

Hauptmann, meanwhile, was in a state of near collapse in his cell in the Hunterdon County Jail here.

Reilly and his co-counsel, Lloyd Fisher and Egbert Rosecrans, paid a visit to Hauptmann in the jail this afternoon.

Lawyers Launch "Defense Fund"

Hauptmann had spent a bad night. He collapsed when he was brought back to his cell from the courtroom and sank face downward on his cot and wept. He slept only fitfully during the night, Reilly declared.

"He still is convinced of his innocence.

"He was asking for his wife and baby.

"How could anybody believe that I, a father, with a child like Manfried, could kill anybody else's baby?" was what he said when we first saw him.

"He believes that if substantial justice will ever be done in his case, the verdict will be reversed."

His lawyers today launched a movement for a "Hauptmann defense Fund" with which to stage a fight for an appeal.

Reilly said the defense appeals would be based largely on the contention that Justice Trenchard was unfair and biased in his instructions to the jury.

Cost of the Hauptmann appeal will run up to $50,000, the defense estimates.

They said it would be necessary to raise funds for this purpose from persons who believe in the innocence of Hauptmann and perhaps from German organizations sympathetic to the prisoner.

Reilly looked tired and worn just before he, Fisher and Rosecrans went to the jail to cheer Hauptmann up and assure him they were planning to fight for him to the last ditch, Reilly said.

"The appeal in Hauptmann's behalf will be taken within 30 days. The appeal will be taken mainly on the judge's charge which we contend was a summation for the state.

Judge Called "Highly Unfair"

"We also will cite the fervor with which Justice Trenchard commented upon defense testimony and his constant query to the jury, when referring to the testimony of defense witnesses, 'do you believe that?'

"We consider it high unfair that the judge would question the credibility of our witnesses in this manner.

"In the event the court of appeals affirms the conviction, we will move into the United States Supreme Court on a writ of error. We will contend that the constitutional rights of the defendant, who was a resident of this country, were violated."

"Then you don't believe Hauptmann will be executed next month," he was asked.

"No," replied Reilly. "Hauptmann is a long way from execution. The appeals ought to take two years and run into the early part of 1937."

Reilly characterized Justice Trenchard's charge as "a masterful summation for the prosecution." He added that it appears to be a practise in New Jersey for a judge to comment on the evidence.

Not only the judge's charge handicapped Hauptmann, according to Reilly, but he also listed as probable reasons for the verdict the following:

"Screaming headlines exhibited to the jurors as they walked to and from the courthouse.

"Radio broadcasts on the second floor of the hotel in which the jury was quartered, giving pro-state versions of the case.

"Excited women in the lobby of the hotel, who would call out to the jury as they passed."

$25,000 Offer to Anna Spurned

By appealing to the country for funds in behalf of the Hauptmann defense, Reilly said he hoped to make up for the defense lack of money. He said he was encouraged by letters promising support, he planned to arrange for a bank in Flemington and a bank in New York to act as depositories for the fund.

Reilly said Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, the prisoner's wife, has turned down an offer of $25,000 for personal appearance at a new Broadway dine and dance palace.

The promoter made the offer through Reilly and the defense lawyer spurned it, saying he knew how Mrs. Hauptmann felt about it. He asserted:

"She would push a scrubbing brush the rest of her life in order to earn money for her husband's defense but she would never do anything like that."

Again It's Heard, the Crowd's Age-Old Cry: 'A Life for a Life!'

Crowds like this have voiced the same demand all down through history: "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth—and a life for a life!" It was the same when white robed throngs gathered in the market places of Rome and Athens. It will probably be the same again in future centuries. Yet these men and women—and children—assembled outside the little courthouse in Flemington, N. J., are neither disorderly nor mad with blood lust. It is merely justice, stern justice, which they demand. That they do demand it cannot be doubted for a moment. They haven't yet heard the verdict as this picture is made. But the jury must feel the weight of the public's sentiment. (Picture from International News Photograph Service.)

"I AM INNOCENT," HAUPTMANN SOBS

By JOHN A. CLEMENTS
International News Service Special Correspondent

Jail, Flemington, Feb. 14—"Before my God, Mr. Reilly, before my mother and my wife and baby—I am innocent of this."

It is Bruno Richard Hauptmann, almost in collapse and half on his knees, clinging to the cold steel bars of his bull pen cage, talking, pouring out his ravaged soul to his burly chief of counsel.

Reilly, himself shaken as he has never been moved in his more than a quarter of a century of criminal practice, went to see his client, condemned last night to die in the electric chair for the kidnaping and killing of the Lindbergh baby.

A bare half-hour before, Hauptmann had stood stiffly erect between two vigilant guards and listened to Justice Thomas W. Trenchard pronounce his doom.

In measured speech, the veteran jurist specified the method and the time, almost the day, that the man before him must go to his Maker.

Hauptmann took it standing up.

He glanced once at his wife, hesitated a second and marched to his cell. He slumped on his cot, buried his face in his hands and for the first time since his arrival in Flemington, sobbed—to the wonderment of astonished guards.

"My God! My God!" he sobbed. "What have they done to me? How could they believe that I ever had anything to do with this? My God, Mr. Reilly, I told the truth. My Annie told them the truth. Are they trying Richard Hauptmann or are they making me the man they want to make me?"

Reilly, the veteran of nearly 2000 homicide cases, could give him no answer. For one of the few times in his long career he was speechless.

For a full minute he looked at Hauptmann.

Guards stood by transfixed by the sight of the slashing, fighting Brooklyn attorney, who had been reduced to muteness by the poignant appeal of the man charged with the most hideous crime of the century.

"Mr. Reilly, I cannot tell you any more tonight than I did when you came here first. I do not know more, I cannot tell you any more. He asked me everything he could think of and I told him all I knew. Why did they not believe me? I told you everything.

"What can I do? Will you tell Annie, please, Mr. Reilly, that I want to see her?"

"Yes, Richard, I will. We have only started to fight," Reilly replied and turned quickly and left the cell of the man for whom he had fought for six grueling weeks.

Reilly was visibly shaken and went directly to his quarters in a local house.

Then Cold Fury

A half hour later, C. Lloyd Fisher, youthful, forceful and scrappy local attorney for Hauptmann, called on him.

He was still buried in the covers of his barren cot. He no longer sobbed.

He no longer was eloquent—no longer passionate in his almost hysterical denials. He was calm and angry at the world.

"Mr. Fisher, I do not understand. When I first came here you told me to say the truth.

"I told you everything I knew. Annie did, too—and our friends. What can I do?"

Fisher listened in silence. He was nervous and for the moment almost speechless.

For 15 minutes Hauptmann talked. He poured out his soul to the vigorous youngster who has fought bitterly for his freedom.

He told of his meeting Isidor Fisch. He told of the deep grief of his mother in Germany when she was to hear that tragic story from a cable his wife sent to Kamenz, Germany.

He poured out a torrent of words about the whole case. He was not to stopped, he was on his way to death—to oblivion—and he wanted to talk.

When he finished Fisher gave him the meager comfort that he could and silently left his cell, Still Hauptmann talked.

"Will they let Annie see me tomorrow? Can't the sheriff let her in tomorrow morning? How does she feel? Is the baby all right? Do you know when they will take me away? Can I see her in the other jail?"

Guards, a greatly augmented guard, stood silently by. They were ordered not to talk.

Hauptmann, the iron man. The unbreakable—had broken.

Broke

By International News Service

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—"Heart-broken, broke and destitute."

That was the way Edward J. Reilly, chief counsel for Bruno Richard Hauptmann, today described the plight of Mrs. Anna Hauptmann.

"The verdict in the case was the worst blow she ever suffered," Reilly said. "My heart aches for her."

BRUNO To Be Convict NO. 17390

By International News Service

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 14—Attorney-General David T. Wilentz today requested Sheriff Curtiss to bring Bruno Richard Hauptmann, condemned to the electric chair for the murder of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby, from Flemington jail to the state prison here.

It is understood the sheriff will bring Hauptmann to Trenton on Saturday.

The condemned man will be known henceforth only as prisoner No. 17390. He will be placed in a cell in the lower tier of the death house.

GIVE TO THE EMERGENCY CAMPAIGN OF 1935

Filene's Automatic Bargain BASEMENT for MEN AIR-CONDITIONED

MEN'S famous SHIRTS would sell for $1.95 or $2.50 in fine men's shops if not slight "HURTS"

SHIRTS that fit perfectly from the collar down.

SHIRTS that are the "pace-setters" of style.

SHIRTS that are the "biggest-selling" in the country.

$1 FRIDAY AT 9 A. M.

BUTTON-DOWN collar $2.50 shirts at $1
neat figured or striped $2.50 shirts at $1
JACQUARD BROADCLOTH $2 shirts at $1 woven CHAMBRAY $2 shirts at $1
white CHEVIOT $2.50 shirts at $1
END-on-END MADRAS $2.50 shirts at $1
PLENTY OF WHITE $1.95 to $2.50 shirts at $1
plain color BROADCLOTH $1.95 shirts at $1
SIZES 14 to 18, sleeves 32 to 35 in lot, $1

Seconds are slight miswaves or tiny oil spots. Labels have been removed. Soft or laundered collar attached, neckband, or 2 separate collars to match style.

OUR PLAN—First prices must be low or we use through automatic reductions—25% after 12 selling days; 50% after 18 selling days; 75% after 24 selling days. Goods given away to charitable institutions after 30 selling days.

Also another FAMOUS MAKER'S seconds $1.95 or $2.50 SHIRTS at $1

HUNDREDS OF OTHER BARGAIN LOTS NOT ADVERTISED—NO MAIL ORDERS

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY GREAT BASEMENT STORE

New Fancy Prints as well as plain Broadcloth in our MEN'S

'Stanwick' Shirts

The best shirt-value we've seen at this LOW price! EACH 98c

More and more men are wearing STANWICK broadcloth shirts; we've sold thousands since we introduced them last year; NOW we've added a new line of fancy patterns and stripes in blues, tans, browns, greens or gray prints. Sizes 14 to 17.

Men's Broadcloth Pajamas

Notch collars; surplice necks; slipon and coat styles; plain colors, or fancy patterns; sizes B to D. $1.19

Men's Shirts or Shorts, Each, 29c

SHIRTS: Plain white, knit shirts in sizes 36 to 46. SHORTS: Standard-cut, fancy broadcloth, 3-button yoke-front, elastic-side style; sizes 30 to 44.

Men's Famous-Make Hose, pair

From the world's largest men's hose manufacturer! IRREGULARS of 75c and $1 grades. All-wool, silk-and-wool, cotton-and-wool and others. Sizes 10½ to 12. 35c

Hovey's For Dependable Home Furnishings

2 Day Sale! Friday and Saturday

Occasional Chairs

Usually $15

A Hovey February home furnishing value that proves the art of gracious living is NOT a matter of income but good taste in selection.

This CHAIR is made for comfort and appearance. Note the large, deep, spring seat, the inviting upholstered back, and the comfortable height of the arms. Brown walnut finished birch, brass nail trimming and covered with rich tapestries . . . many one-of-a-kind patterns.

$9.95

Rockers to Match $11.95

Limited Quantity. Fifth Floor

ANNA DRY-EYED BESIDE HUSBAND

DOESN'T SHOW EMOTION UNTIL BRUNO IS TAKEN AWAY

By DOROTHY ROE
Universal Service Staff Correspondent

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—Anna Hauptmann heard her husband sentenced to death and she did not cry until they had taken him away.

Dry-eyed, white-faced, the plain, haggard German hausfrau sat motionless, expressionless, while the jury of weary, red-eyed men and women intoned, one after the other:

"Guilty of murder in the first degree."

She leaned across the watchful guards handcuffed to her husband and murmured under her breath:

"Are you all right, Richard?"

The eyes of the man convicted of the crime that shocked the world were soft and he nodded slightly and answered:

"Yes, Anna."

Wins Her Laurels for Gallantry

Whatever the crimes committed by her husband, the staunch German woman won her laurels for gallantry.

There was a hush and a stir in the courtroom, packed with weary reporters and tense lawyers, as Mrs. Hauptmann entered, under guard of two state troopers.

Her face, without make-up, was drained of color, and she had not taken time to comb her straggling blonde hair.

As the prisoner was led in, handcuffed for the first time to a guard on either side, her pale, red-rimmed eyes followed him to his chair, and her lips twitched into the semblance of a smile.

Young, brisk defense counsel Lloyd Fisher bent over the suffering woman and threw an arm around her shoulder, saying softly:

"You must be very quiet. You must not cry out. We will take care of everything."

Mrs. Hauptmann nodded, and said:

"I'll try."

Then the jury came in, solemnly, silently, heads bowed.

Jurors' Faces Tell the Story

One look at their faces told the story to all the courtroom.

Big Verna Snyder was openly crying, and the faces of all the women showed traces of tears.

Anna Hauptmann scanned each face as the men and women filed by, and the last vestige of hope faded from her weary face.

When Bruno Richard Hauptmann stood to receive the verdict which sends him to death in the electric chair the week of March 18, she kept her eyes straight ahead.

As he sat down he turned towards her and shook his head. The prisoner, led back to his cell in the grasp of his guards, took one last, despairing glance at his agonized wife.

Her eyes were fixed on him as if in a final goodbye.

Then Relief of Tears Comes

But she did not cry until his figure disappeared through the back door.

Then the relief of tears came.

Fisher came toward her again, whispered:

"Keep hold of yourself. Go out of the courtroom just the way you came in."

Mrs. Hauptmann made a desperate effort to keep her tears back, and replied:

"I'm going to try it if I can."

They rushed her out a back door of the courthouse and sent her with her guards in the sheriff's car, back through the yelling mobs in the street, back through the flaring flashlights and grinding newsreel cameras, back to the rooming house where her year-old baby, Mannfried, was sleeping.

And her last words as they helped her up the steps were:

"My poor Richard—my poor baby. Don't worry about me, I'm all right."

But as she fumbled at the front door her choked voice cried:

"All I want now is my Bubi!"

"TRENCHARD OF TRENTON" — HIS SENTENCE DOOMED HAUPTMANN

Typical studies of Justice Thomas W. Trenchard who presided at the Bruno Hauptmann trial and sentenced him to die in the electric chair. The aged jurist is noted for his patience and thoughtfulness as well as respected for his ability. He is the dean of the New Jersey bench.

Picture from International News Photograph Service.

Final Drama of the Trial

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Feb. 14—The Hauptmann trial closed last night with the same dramatic force that has marked its entire course. The verbatim record of the court proceedings that ended the trial follows:

COURT CLERK FELL: The jury will rise.

(All jurors rose.)

CLERK FELL: Members of the jury—

THE COURT: Let the defendant stand.

(The defendant rose.)

CLERK FELL: Members of the jury, have you agreed upon your verdict?

THE JURORS: We have.

CLERK FELL: Who shall speak for you?

THE JURORS: The Foreman.

CLERK FELL: Mr. Foreman, what say you: Do you find the defendant guilty or not guilty?

THE FOREMAN: Guilty. We find the defendant, Richard Bruno Hauptmann, guilty of murder in the first degree.

THE COURT: One moment. No person will leave the courtroom until the court is finished. Stay right where you are.

CLERK FELL: Members of the jury, you have heard the verdict, that you find the defendant, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, guilty of murder in the first degree, and so say you all?

THE JURORS: We do.

MR. REILLY: May we have the jury polled?

THE COURT: Yes.

CLERK FELL: Do you want each one individually?

THE COURT: Yes.

(As the name was called, each juror replied: Guilty of murder in the first degree.)

THE COURT: You may be seated and the verdict may be recorded. There is no objection now to any person leaving the courtroom that desire to leave, if they will do so quietly. But they must depart from the courtroom quietly, and must do so at once.

COURT CRIER HANN: Pass out quietly, please.

THE COURT: The defendant may be seated. It seems to the court that there is nothing remaining except to impose the sentence provided by the statute, and I am asking now the attorney general if he moves sentence.

MR. WILENTZ: If your honor please, the state moves for sentence of the defendant at this time.

THE COURT: Let me have the indictment. (Indictment handed to the court.)

THE COURT: The statute requires apparently that the court shall fix a time within which the sentence is to be executed and within a certain week which must begin not less than four weeks and not more than eight weeks after the issue of the warrant.

The court will therefore now proceed to impose the sentence. The defendant may stand.

Bruno Richard Hauptmann: You have been convicted of murder in the first degree. The sentence of the court is that you, the said Bruno Richard Hauptmann, suffer death at the time and place, and in the manner provided by law. And the court will hand to the sheriff a warrant appointing the week beginning Monday the 18th day of March, 1935, as the week within which such sentence must be executed in the manner provided by law.

You are now remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

You may retire.

The defendant retired in the custody of the sheriff at 10:30 p. m.

THE COURT: The people will remain seated where they are.

Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, the court desires to thank you most sincerely for the service that you have rendered in the performance of this jury duty, and you may now be excused—until what time, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK FELL: No time is set, your honor; they may be excused until they are notified to return.

THE COURT: Until such time as you are notified to return by the sheriff. You may now be excused.

MR. WILENTZ: If your honor please, may I say that there are quite some people outside, and for the benefit of the jury may we suggest that if they want to use the entrance back here, or if they have no accomodation for getting home, that I take it the state police will provide it for them, if there is no objection.

MR. REILLY: No, there is none.

MR. WILENTZ: Or an escort, so that they may get to their homes without the necessity of going through the crowds.

THE COURT: Yes. If the jury desires to avail itself of the suggestion of the attorney general, I think one of the officers will show the jury how to get down.

MR. LARGE: They will probably want to go to the hotel.

MR. WILENTZ: They will probably want to go to the hotel for their clothes. May I suggest then, if your honor please, I know this may be somewhat out of order, but we have got enough troopers and constables here, and if there is no objection, if the jury will just go along with those men so that they can get through the crowd without any difficulty to their hotel, before anybody else goes out. Will your honor please ask the officers to keep the other people in the courtroom until the jury files out?

THE COURT: Yes. The troopers will see to it that the other people that now remain in the court rooms shall remain seated until the jury retires. (At 10:34 p. m. the jury retired.)

THE COURT: I would like to see the prosecutor of the pleas and the attorney-general in my chambers. The court has not adjourned. There are several things yet remaining to be done.

(At 11:00 p. m. court and counsel retired to chambers.)

ERROR

Due to Mistake IN SIGNALS

By Associated Press

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—A misunderstanding of code signals last night resulted in the Associated Press flashing an erroneous verdict in the Hauptmann case.

In transmitting the report, the decision was garbled and the first word to reach waiting newspapers was that the jury had found Hauptmann guilty, but with a recommendation for life sentence.

The correct verdict was guilty, with the death penalty.

Short-wave transmission, employing code, was set up to cover the verdict.

When word came from the courtroom that the jury was ready to report, the Associated Press man on the receiving end picked up the wrong code signal, resulting in the erroneous and premature flash.

The courtroom being closed, minutes passed before knowledge of the error was learned. The flash and bulletins were killed 11 minutes after transmission of the erroneous report, but too late to catch some editions of newspapers which had issued extras.

21 TO GIVE UP on Stock Charges

Twenty-one of the remaining 23 men indicted on stock fraud charges arranged today for early surrender in federal court, according to U. S. Attorney Francis J. W. Ford.

William L. Jarvis of Belmont and Samuel L. Gaines, alias Ginsburg, of New York are already under bonds of $10,000 pending a hearing.

Trenchard Sets New Record for Patience

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—"Trenchard of Trenton," who presided at the Hauptmann trial, is dean of the New Jersey bench at 71 and one of the most respected members. He sentenced Hauptmann to die in the electric chair.

"Trenchard" is the adjective most often applied to his decisions and opinions. He is old-fashioned, learned, alert and respected to a degree approaching veneration throughout the state.

In the Hauptmann case, he displayed a patience and reticence with opposing counsel and consideration for the jury unprecedented. He made sure the women were rubbers, he cautioned the men to don flannels. He visited the hotel frequently to make certain the jurors were comfortable.

Supreme Court Justice Thomas W. Trenchard was born in Centerton, Salem County, a son of the clerk of Cumberland county. Admitted to the bar in 1882, he was appointed law justice of Cumberland County in 1899. He served seven years as city solicitor of Bridgeton and in the assembly for a year.

Solicitor of the board of health, president of the Cumberland Bar Association, Republican Presidential elector, Justice Trenchard rose steadily in public service.

Governor Stokes made him Supreme Court justice in 1906, and he was reappointed three times. Governor Hoffman was last to name him on the eve of the Hauptmann trial to serve seven years longer.

N. Y. Gas Tax

Albany, N. Y. Feb. 14—Governor Lehman's four-cent gasoline tax bill passed the Senate of the New York Legislature, 28-19, and was sent to the Assembly for action today.

WILENTZ PLANS Cruise to Tropics

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14 (INS)—For 18 days Atty.-Gen. David T. Wilentz will forget—or try to forget—the protracted prosecution of the Hauptmann case.

He sails tomorrow on a West Indies cruise, accompanied by Mrs. Wilentz, to whom he promised the trip early in the year.

Berlanger Paroled

George Berlanger, sentenced 12 years ago to life imprisonment for his connection with the murder of a Springfield storekeeper is free today, the result of a parole by the governor and his council.

BOSTON PENNY SAVINGS BANK
1375 WASHINGTON ST.
(at Cathedral Square)
Incorporated 1861
PARK YOUR CAR AT THE DOOR

WILDEY SAVINGS BANK
22 Boylston St., Boston
INTEREST BEGINS FEB. 15

Heads Kennel Club

New York, Feb. 14—Russel H. Johnson, Jr., of Philadelphia, was re-elected president of the American Kennel Club at the annual meeting of the board of directors.

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

How to save a DRY SKIN

If you have a dry skin — and loads of us have—

DAGGETT & RAMSDELL'S DRY SKIN BEAUTY TREATMENT

will bring the most glowing results to your mirror after a week of use. Two simple, fragrant, efficient items are all you need

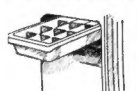

PERFECT BEAUTY CREAM $1.00 and $1.50
PERFECT TISSUE CREAM $1.00 and $1.50

Other beauty preparations by Daggett & Ramsdell 60c to $5.

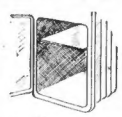

Mail or phone orders filled—call HUBbard 2700
TOILETRIES—STREET FLOOR—MAIN STORE

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

FEATURES OF MODEL IN PHOTO:

Ice in 80 minutes! The world's fastest freezing! A special upper unit near the tray concentrates the cold with the result that you have 27 ice cubes in 80 minutes!

The extra-large freezing compartment provides adequate space for storage of frosted foods, deserts, fish or other foods that must be kept extremely cold.

Five-purpose control provides automatic defrosting, fast freezing, start-and-stop switch with overload protection, temperature selector, vacation setting to save operating costs.

Kelvinator Food Film, space-saving compartments for dairy products, for keeping vegetables crisp, for storing left-overs.

The rearranging shelf pulls out to provide an extra shelf to put dishes on when rearranging food in the cabinet.

The hinged shelf lifts up out of the way to provide extra space for tall bottles near the cooling unit.

NOW SHOWING AT NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST REFRIGERATOR HEADQUARTERS

New KELVINATOR

The Supreme Achievement of 21 Years of Designing! Models for every budget!

Kelvinator, the pioneer of automatic refrigeration for the home, provides the world's fastest freezing . . . gives you ice cubes in 80 minutes. It's famous for its EXTRA CONVENIENCES, too . . . the rearranging shelf, the fruit basket, the food file that provides compact storage, the adequate space for bottles, the large storage spaces in the all-porcelain enameled freezing unit and many other important features that we'll be glad to show you. Come in and see the achievement of 21 years of constant improvement!

$83.50 to $789.50
Delivered and Installed

The 8.73 cu. ft. De Luxe Model Shown at Right

Has 17.7 square feet of shelf area. Makes 108 ice cubes (12 pounds) at one freezing. Has extra-powered 2-cylinder spring-suspended mechanism and automatic interior light as well as the features illustrated at the left. $323.50

A SMALL INITIAL PAYMENT ENABLES YOU TO HAVE THE ECONOMY OF ANY KELVINATOR IMMEDIATELY. INQUIRE ABOUT OUR CONVENIENT BUDGET PAYMENT PLAN.

HOME APPLIANCES—THIRD FLOOR—ANNEX

Kelvinators are known the world over for trouble-free, economical operation!

BRUNO'S MOTHER BEGS MERCY

Writes Roosevelt

Continued from First Page

mean her own death. She said:

"I beg you to be merciful to him."

"Is there no God in heaven?" she sobbed, covering her face with her hands, as she learned the verdict.

"I've hoped in vain all these months and now this terrible end."

For a moment the 69-year-old mother stood erect, her face chalk-like, her body quivering. Then with an air of one in a dream, tears streaming down her cheeks and her head leaning against a wall, she murmured:

"I am dying with him. Has the world forgotten a lonesome old mother?"

Then, Frau Hauptmann wiped her eyes and said:

"President Roosevelt—he will help an old mother.

"I shall write him immediately and beg him to pardon my son."

Cable From Anna

With an effort to shake off her first bewilderment, Frau Hauptmann sat at a table to write, when a cablegram was delivered from Flemington.

"Don't worry," it read, "decision only temporary. Annie."

The decision, written in English, was translated for Frau Hauptmann by the Associated Press correspondent.

"Thank God!" Frau Hauptmann exclaimed. "If I could only help Bruno in bearing his burden. This telegram gives me some peace again."

Quickly Frau Hauptmann decided:

"I'll write the President right now."

She picked up a pen and with a trembling hand wrote in Gothic script:

"Dear Mr. President:

"I am the mother of Bruno Richard Hauptmann and have today learned through newspapers of the terrible verdict against my son. Dear Mr. President, the World War has already taken from me my husband two of my sons. I am 70 years old. (Her 70th birthday is next June.)

"It would mean no death, if you, Mr. President, don't pardon my son, because then I shall be all alone.

"Mr. President, disregard his previous offense, for which the World War must be held responsible; Bruno isn't a bad man. Therefore I beg you to be merciful to him.

"Yours, a poor mother,

"FRAU PAULINE HAUPTMANN."

The letter finished, the aged mother took it to the postoffice directly "so that it will be in the hands of this generous man as soon as possible."

News of the verdict spread like wildfire through Kamens. The local newspaper office, which put a hand written bulletin in its show window was besieged by a crowd excitedly discussing the case.

"Just think of the terrible blow to his poor, old mother," was the recurring expression.

'13'

By International News Service.

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—The "13" jinx, like a numerical nightmare, has stalked Bruno Richard Hauptmann to a death chair sentence.

Date doom pronounced—February 13.

Attorney-General David T. Wilentz—13 letters.

Chief Defense Counsel Edward J. Reilly—13 letters.

Anna Hauptmann, his wife—13 letters.

Three of the jurors, Charles Walton, Ethel Stockton and Robert Cravatt—each name totals 13 letters.

The press seat behind the defendant's chair—No. 13.

Wilentz's prosecuting aides, Joseph Lanigan, Robert Peacock and Anthony M. Hauck—all 13.

And . . . electric chair—13!

BIG PROFIT

Admitted by SHIPBUILDER

By Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 14—Testimony that his company had made $5,601,851 or 25 per cent profit in 1927 on two cruisers when it expected only $1,800,000 was given the Senate munitions committee today by Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newport News Shipbuilding & Drydock Company.

He told the committee that, although the cost of cruisers had increased several million dollars in the past six years they actually cost the government less because there was a great deal more valuable material in them.

The contract price for the cruisers Houston and Augusta with the government was $20,960,000 and the net cost was $15,755,457, the witness said.

The committee immediately introduced evidence that the company recently had bid $10,500,000 and $11,000,000 on cruisers. Ferguson insisted the net cost was greater because of increased cost of design and equipment and therefore the profit less.

Gets 190 Valentines

As proof of affection for Patrolman Jeremiah Connelley, for 10 years traffic officer at the Coddington primary school, Quincy, 190 little girls gave him Valentines today.

Betty Gow Bares 'Hate' For That Reilly Person

By International News Service

Englewood, N. J., Feb. 14—Betty Gow broke silence today for the first time since she crossed the Atlantic to face accusation and relieve her greatest tragedy. And the result was a curious mixture of joy and bitterness.

At the Morrow home, Betty blazed as she spoke of Defense Counsel Edward J. Reilly . . . "That Reilly person!" She said:

"I hated Mr. Reilly and I feel vindicated because the jury believed me instead of that dreadful Reilly person."

"I'm glad the baby's death has been avenged," she added.

The pretty Scotch lass whom Reilly accused of complicity in the kidnaping and murder of Baby Lindbergh, revealed she had been offered her former job back in the Lindbergh household. She said:

"I have been asked by Mrs. Lindbergh to take my position with her again. I'm undecided whether to go home first to England to see my mother, and come back to work in he spring.

"I think I'll go home for awhile, though. If I do, I'll sail next week."

Suddenly her eyes lifted, and she became once more the bubbling, vivacious Betty of the gay "nights out" before her world went crazy.

Her face beaming, she said:

"I'm going out tonight for the first time since the trial began. My friends have been asking me constantly to go to parties, but I wouldn't while the trial was on.

"Now I'm going to have a real good time. I'm going over to Teaneck tonight to a party."

More than anything else, Betty was overjoyed that the Sourland jury, by its verdict last night cleared her.

THREE CLAIM Lindy Reward

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14 (AP)—Three men have claimed all or part of the state's $25,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the Lindbergh baby kidnaper.

The claimants, who spotted the $10 gold note that led to Hauptmann's arrest are: Walter Lyle, manager of a New York filling station; John Lyons, attendant at the station; and William R. Strong, teller of the Corn Exchange Bank and Trust Co., in New York.

Juror Mum

By International News Service

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—"As long as I live I'll never talk about it."

That was the reply today of George Voorhees, 45-year-old Lebanon farmer and juror number nine on the panel which convicted Bruno Richard Hauptmann to inquiries concerning deliberations in the jury room.

"I have other things to think of," he said.

FISCHS

Want to Stay IN U. S.

By International News Service

New York, Feb. 14—Relatives of Isidor Fisch, ghostly figure of the Hauptmann trial, today cancelled their sailing back to Germany, offering "illness" as an excuse.

It is known that they are endeavoring to obtain permission to remain in this country, however, as a reward for their services to the state of New Jersey.

Pincus Fisch, Isidor's brother, his wife, Czarna, and his sister, Hannah, have permits to stay in the United States for six months.

They have been having the time of their lives here—going everywhere on passes and at the expense of the state—and this country suits them right down to the ground.

BRUNO COUNSEL "Out $15,000

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14 (INS)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann's defense funds are "coming out of our own pockets," Edward J. Reilly, his chief counsel, declared today.

"The money for this defense didn't come from any dye trusts or German outfits," Reilly asserted. "The four counsel in this case are now out $15,000 cash besides the time and business they have lost while handling the case."

Jury Votes Death on 6th Ballot

By Associated Press

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—The Hauptmann jury today asked to be allowed "to retire to our homes as ordinary citizens."

A statement prepared by Foreman Charles S. Walton, Sr., and approved by the eight men and four women, said:

"The only statement the members of the jury have to make is they are glad to be released after their confinement.

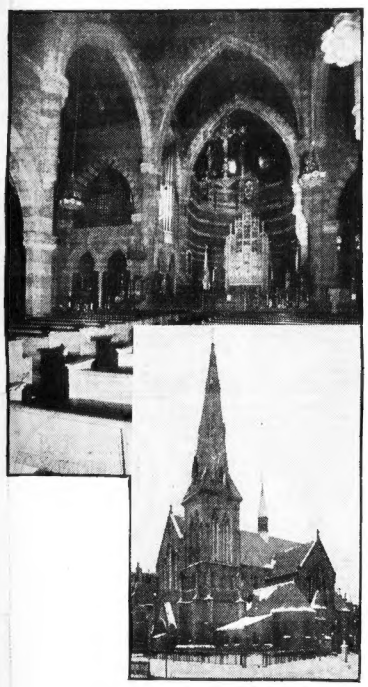

"Relations at all times have been amiable and it is well understood we cannot give out any news concerning what occurred in the jury room. We now want to retire to our homes and again become ordinary citizens."

A source close to the jurors said six ballots were cast and that Robert Cravatt held for five ballots to a verdict of guilty with recommendation of mercy or life imprisonment.

On the first ballot, it was said, Mrs. Rosie Pill and Mrs. Verna Snyder, voted with Cravatt for mercy, but swung over on the second, and until the sixth the jury stood 11 to 1 for the verdict finally delivered.

Hurt in Plunge

Miss Ida Winegrad, 22, of Ash street, Chelsea was seriously injured today when she fell 25 feet while washing windows on the second floor of her home.

Church of the Advent
Brimmer St., Boston, Mass.
This distinguished Boston church uses New England Coke and is thus assured of steady, even heat. Not only for the comfort of its large congregation—but because even heat is required for the protection of the fine organ which is a conspicuous feature of its services.

Protecting our treasures

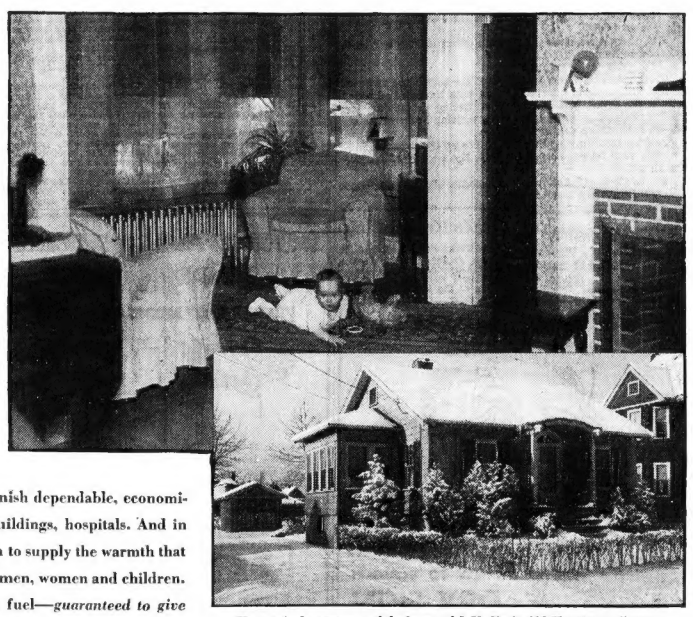

REQUIRES "EVEN HEAT"

USE

NEW ENGLAND COKE

for

BETTER HEAT and ECONOMY

The particular treasure of the home of J. H. Clark, 423 Huntington Avenue, Hyde Park, Boston, can safely play on the floor. New England Coke heats Mr. Clark's home and assures the whole family of cheerful warmth, of even heat, of economy—and a fire that requires very little attention.

MANY notable institutions use New England Coke to furnish dependable, economical, even heat; churches, schools, colleges, public buildings, hospitals. And in more than 160,000 homes New England Coke is relied upon to supply the warmth that protects the health and comfort of more than half a million men, women and children. They know that New England Coke is a modern, uniform fuel—guaranteed to give satisfaction; that it saves money because it costs less and lasts longer. Order New England Coke from your nearest neighborhood branch office or from an authorized dealer.

NEW ENGLAND COKE COMPANY

250 Stuart St. Cokephone HUBbard 4670 Boston, Mass.

YOUR NEIGHBORS KNOW NEW ENGLAND COKE

WIFE Barred From BRUNO

CAN'T SEE HIM WHILE IN JAIL

By Associated Press

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—Bruno Richard Hauptmann, under sentence of death, early today fell into fitful sleep, unaware that his wife will not be permitted to see him while he remains in jail quarters here.

The anguish to which the German carpenter gave way after the jury pronounced him the Lindbergh baby slayer passed as dawn approached and he stretched himself upon his cell cot in slumber.

At the customary breakfast hour he was awakened by his guards and ate oatmeal, bread and coffee. Then he lay back again, silent and depressed.

Sometime, within a few hours or a few days as Sheriff John A. Curtis decides, Hauptmann will be delivered to the keepers of the State Prison at Trenton and lodged in the death house, not far from the electric chair.

Sheriff Curtiss said that he would not permit Mrs. Hauptmann to visit her husband again while he remained in the county jail.

BROKEN HEARTS Strewn Over Malden

Malden was literally littered with broken hearts this St. Valentine's Day.

Since the New York mail was late reaching Boston, Malden's two sacks were sent out on the Lawrence express, instead of by truck.

As the train whistled past the Malden station, out flew the mail pouches and lander—under the wheels.

Frank C. Doucette, Malden postal superintendent, sent out two clerks. For a mile along the right of way they picked up broken hearts.

BOY RIDES EL With Movie Cash

"See Boston. It beats the movies."

That was the advice that Gordon Gaull, 11, of Camden street, Roxbury, gave the world at 4:30 a. m., today.

Police of the Mattapan Station picked him up after he had been riding on the Elevated since 3 p. m. yesterday. For fare he used the movie money his mother had given him.

Long and Lonely Road!

Small wonder if the feet of Mrs. Anna Hauptmann falter as, escorted by a sheriff, she steps from the courthouse at Flemington, N. J. It's a long road, a lonely road which stretches its aching emptiness before her. She has made a gallant—but vain—battle to save the man she loves. (Picture from International News Photograph Service.)

City Show Ban Speeds Stage Pair's Wedding

Because Boston barred "Within the Gates," Helen Chandler and Bramwell Fletcher got married sooner than intended.

In a hasty Valentine's Day decision, the couple were married today at the Riverside Church, New York, instead of next spring.

The honeymoon must wait for both Miss Chandler and Fletcher are in Broadway plays and must answer the New York curtain calls tonight.

Miss Chandler is a member of the cast of "It's You I Want." Fletcher plays the part of the dreamer in Sean O'Casey's "Within the Gates."

However, when these productions close, the couple will be united, for they will appear together in "The Dominant Sex," which Miss Chandler says "is suited to our personal matrimonial venture."

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Eugene Carder, after which the couple entertained 50 guests at a reception in the Hotel Gotham.

3RD WIFE Fights Taylor DIVORCE PLEA

Salem, Feb. 14—Mrs. Ida F. Taylor of Ipswich in probate court today denied she had refused to allow her husband to divorce her unless he agreed not to re-wed his second wife.

Mrs. Taylor is contesting her husband's suit for divorce charging her with cruel and abusive treatment. She is his third wife.

Taylor 245-pound foreman of a State ERA painting project, alleged that he had lost an average of five pounds a week because of his wife's cruel treatment.

Under cross-examination, Mrs. Taylor denied she wanted her husband to turn over property to her and pay her $15 weekly.

CUTTEN IS Barred from GRAIN MART

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—Arthur W. Cutten, Chicago trader, today was prohibited by the Grain Futures Commission from trading on any grain market for two years.

The Commission found Cutten guilty of violating the Grain Futures Act "by attempting to manipulate" prices by concealing his transactions on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Vote on Latin Need

The Harvard Student Council will poll the student body by a questionnaire to learn whether the undergraduates support President Conant in his plea for the abolition of the Latin requirement for admission to Harvard University.

Miriam Near Fiery Death

(Copyright, 1935, by International News Service)

Hollywood, Feb. 14—Tragedy just missed taking further toll in the company of "Becky Sharp," hard luck color picture into which young Jock Whitney is pouring some of the family fortune.

Miriam Hopkins already out of the film once with bronchial pneumonia, dropped too close to a burning candle.

Miriam Hopkins

Her old-fashioned dress of imported Italian lace, caught fire and it looked for a moment as if the blonde actress might be seriously burned. But property man Sid Vogel quickly snatched the blazing lace from the star's dress and stamped it out on the floor.

Due to his quick action, Miss Hopkins got out with a singed arm, which did not even require bandaging.

The dress was burned beyond repair.

"Becky Sharp" has been haunted by tragedy and illness since the start. Lowell Sherman's death was the first shadow. Then both Miriam Hopkins and Frances Dee had to go out of the picture on account of illness.

"Becky" is scheduled to be finished in two weeks—if nothing further occurs.

UTILITIES Key Post for COMERFORD

Frank D. Comerford, at the age of 41, today became the outstanding public utilities chieftain in New England.

In addition to being chosen president of the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, he is to retain his chairmanship of the board of the New England Power Association.

This places President Comerford in the key post controlling 10 gas and electric companies in five of the six New England states.

Succeeding him as president of the New England Power is Carl S. Hermann, treasurer of the association since 1926. Walter C. Baylies, whose Edison post Comerford takes, will be chairman of the board in the Boston company.

1852-1935

83rd BIRTHDAY SALE

The Morse Birthday men are making a big hit . . . our Birthday sale is a success beyond all expectations! Hundreds and hundreds of men are flocking in. Our record-breaking values are the talk of Boston. What a party! We've called on our wholesale department for hundreds of extra garments . . . we've included sensational specials on clothing that is rarely offered in sales . . . we've employed extra help. We're ready for crowds. Come!

Thousands of Dollars Worth of This Season's

1/3 off SUITS and OVERCOATS

$35 Clothing now $23.33
$40 Clothing now $26.66
$50 Clothing now $33.33
$65 Clothing now $43.33

Use The MorService Charge Plan and Pick Your Own Way to Pay

1. Monthly Charge Service. 2. Ten Equal Weekly Payments. 3. One-third a Month for 3 Months.

Yes! Even Blues!
Morse Styled Blue Serge Suits
$23.33
Hard and glove finished fabrics — men's and young men's models. An offering so rare it's big news.

At Our Boston Stores Only!

Sportsmen! Look!
$8.50
Double Breasted Mackinaws
$6.66
Red, blue and brown checks. All round belts. Roomy pockets.
$4 to $6.50 Worsted Trousers, $3.33

EARLY BIRD SPECIAL
$30, $35, $40
SUITS
Including Several Hundred Sport Suits for Young Men and College Men $20
Remember our Overcoat Sale last Birthday? This is the same kind of thrill . . . Immense!
Ask for the "Early Bird" Special
Special Sections—Both Stores

At Our Boston Stores Only!

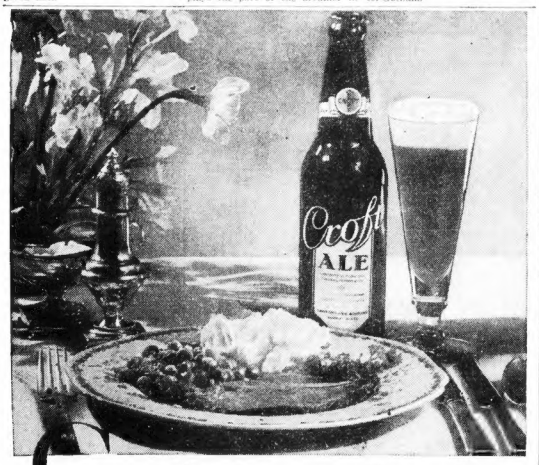

Don't Miss This!
Two Trouser Blue Suits
$33.33
All models—plain and patch pockets, single and double breasteds. Hard or soft finish fabrics!

Furnishings Values
Wool Mixed Hose . . 4 pr. $1
75c Clocked Silk Hose . . 39c
50c Broadcloth Shorts . . . 35c
50c Athletic Jerseys 35c
$2 Fine Pajamas $1.39
All Wool Sweaters $2.66
$1 Neckwear 69c
$2 & $2.50 Madras Shirts $1.33

Open Saturday Evening
UPTOWN STORE
45 Summer St.
Boston

Leopold Morse Co.

Open Saturday Evening
DOWNTOWN STORE
Adams Square,
Boston

Croft is an ale you can be proud to serve. For Croft makes any meal taste better

Croft Brewing Co., Boston, Mass.

'HE THAT KILLETH ANY MAN SHALL BE PUT TO DEATH'

NO. 1 ENEMY OF THE WORLD—Bruno Richard Hauptmann stands today as he was called during his trial, "Public Enemy No. 1 of the World." The jury's verdict branded him as the criminal of the century.

AND THE OTHER FIGURE—A wraith now—is the slain Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr. Bruno Hauptmann kidnaped him from his Sourland mansion nursery and killed him. So decided a jury of his peers.

Lindy's 'No Comment' Spells His Finis to Case

By Associated Press

Englewood, N. J., Feb. 14—The Hauptmann murder trial has written the closing chapter in the tragedy of their first-born son, and Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh have no intention of adding a postscript, be it ever so short.

Colonel Lindbergh had "no comment nor statement on the case whatsoever," it was stated at the home of Mrs. Lindbergh's mother, where the colonel had gone hours before the verdict was announced at Flemington.

As long as the prosecution thought he could be of any help, as long as there were servants of the Lindberghs and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow to be defended, the aviator attended the trial. As soon as the judge had charged the jury he left.

Last night's session was the only one he had missed in the 32 days the trial was under way.

Mrs. Lindbergh attended only two sessions, the early one at which she testified and one during the rebuttal when her mother took the stand.

Back at the Morrow home, the couple are united with their little son Jon, born after the kidnap-killing, as well as with Mrs. Lindbergh's mother. The reunion is not expected to be for long, however.

Colonel Lindbergh is to make a trail-blazing airplane flight to China and Mrs. Morrow plans a trip to Mexico.

Dies in Brawl

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb 14 (AP)—One man was reported dead and another dying from stab wounds after a street fight in nearby Larkeville today.

MOTHER of Lindbergh SILENT ON CASE

By Associated Press

Detroit, Feb. 14—Mrs. Evangeline L. Lindbergh, mother of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, declined to comment today on the death sentence imposed last night on the convicted slayer of her first grandson.

At Cass Technical High School, where she is a science teacher, Mrs. Lindbergh sent word through the assistant principal, E. G. Allen, that she did not wish to discuss the conviction of Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

"I have seen her every school day since the trial started," said Allen, "and not once has she mentioned the case to me. Whatever her feelings are, she never gives any evidence of them."

Turn to the classified ads today and select the rental that appeals to you. Then go to R. H. White Company and consult with Barbara Holmes. She will save you both time and money.

One by one, members of the Bruno Hauptmann jury, polled at the request of Attorney Edward Reilly, said "guilty" to the murder charge and then, as the four women sat sobbing, Justice Thomas Trenchard sentenced the German carpenter to the electric chair. The jurors deliberated a little more than eleven hours and the women members broke into hysterics a short time later in their hotel.

(Pictures from International News Photograph Service.)

Thurs., Fri. and Sat.—3 Sensational Selling Days in MORGAN'S FEBRUARY SALE!

"GO TO IT, BOYS! . . !

It's Up to You to Establish New Sales Records for Your Department! You're lect Your Own Specials—You Make Your Own Prices! Present Values, Thin Your Estimation, Can't Be Beaten! We Look to You for Three of the Best Days in the History of This Concern!"

Old Customer Pay

MANAGERS' CHALLENGE Days!

AT ALL OF OUR STORES!

Our Managers Challenge Each Other With Phenomenal Bargains! They're Out to Establish New Sales Records!

It is utterly impossible, even in this big, Full Newspaper Page, to give you a complete showing of Special Challenge Day Bargains! Impossible to do more than practically hint at the Wide Variety . . . The Sweeping Values . . . The Savings in Each and Every Section of Each and Every One of Our Stores!

- Values You Will Never Forget! Be Early!
- Extra Salespeople! Extra Service! Purchases for Future
- Delivery Held FREE! Sorry, No Mail or 'Phone Orders!

Nationally Famous 9 x 12

"ALEXANDER SMITH" SEAMLESS RUG INCLUDED WITH ANY SUITE!

Yours at No Extra Cost With Any Living Room, Bedroom or Dining Room Suite you buy!

NO MONEY DOWN

KITCHEN CHAIR

Sturdy—natural finish! Limit only 4 chairs to a customer! Be early! 49c

FELT BASE

3 yards for . . $1

Perfect quality! Choice of patterns! Not more than 20 yards to a customer!

3-ROOM OUTFIT $100

Living Room and Bedroom Shown Here with Kitchen Included but not Illustrated.

"Bob" Williams, Manager of Living Room Dept., Says:

"I have 'free rein' . . . and I what I say—GOES! If I know what you want . . . scores of these Living Room Outfits are going to move out of my department in a hurry—at this ridiculously low price!"

15-PIECE LIVING ROOM! $55

Divan, Club Chair and "Bunny" Chair, Richly upholstered and smartly styled in kidney design with Button-Tufted Fronts and Backs. Scarf, End Table, Bridge Lamp with Shade, 3 Pictures and 5-piece Smoking Set—All for only $55.00!

$1 Weekly!

CHIFFONIER!

A "wonder-value"! 3 deep drawers! 4.79

"Jack" Donelan, Manager of Bedroom Dept., Says:

"The other boys will have to step some to top me in these offerings! Just look at this complete, attractive Bedroom Outfit for only $55.00!"

DRESSER!

Generous size mirror! Smartly styled throughout! 8.49

15-PIECE BEDROOM! $55

Including 3 MAJOR PIECES—Bed, Chest of Drawers and Dresser or Vanity in beautiful 2-toned finish with triplicate Venetian mirrors! Spring, Mattress, 2 Pillows, 3-Piece Toilet Set, Boudoir Lamp with Shade, and 3 Pictures! EXTRA MAJOR PIECE $16.45!

$1 Weekly!

LOUNGE CHAIR!

Richly upholstered and smartly fashioned with reversible spring cushion! 8.49

OIL BURNER!

Approved by Massachusetts Fire Marshal. Economical, clean and efficient! 5.49

"Al" Schwartz, Boston Sales Mgr., Says:

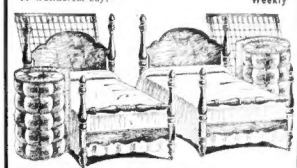

"I'm giving you here what I honestly believe to be the best Bedding Bargains Morgan's has ever offered!"

TRIPLE COUCH! 9.85

This comfortable couch opens up to Twin Beds or Full Size Double Bed! Covered in attractively figured cretonne with popular Flounce Front! A wonderful buy!

25c Weekly

6-PC. OUTFIT! 23.85

Two 4-Poster Beds, 2 Roll Edge Mattresses and 2 "National" Springs! 3-pc. Outfit may be had at only 11.95.

25c Weekly!

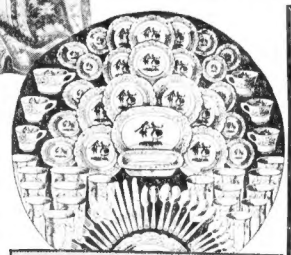

CANE PANEL BED!

Full or Twin Size!

Specially purchased for this great sale! Hurry for this! 3.79

Easy Terms!

New "Silhouette" 76-Pc. Ensemble

INCLUDED WITH ANY $50 PURCHASE

32 pieces of Dinnerware in New Silhouette Pattern—22 pieces of Sterling Silverplated Flatware and 18 pieces of beautiful Glassware!

"Hughie" Williams, Mgr. Radio Dept., Says:

"This is the height of the season for European broadcasts . . . so I'm meeting this demand with this 'knockout' table in American-Foreign Radio!"

AMERICAN-FOREIGN 'STEINITE'

Console Radio with Popular AIRPLANE DIAL!

Complete with Tubes!

19.85

While Our Quantities Last! Priced for Quick Clearance!

OIL HEATER WITH TANK

Heavy gauge steel! Perforated fronts and sides! Portable — can be moved to any room! 8.95

"Jim" Brennan, Mgr. Breakfast Set Dept., Says:

"They told me I was the boss and anything I did was o. k. Well, here's what I did—and if you're the smart buyer I think you are—you'll lose no time in getting one of these sensational values!"

5-Pc. Breakfast Set in Choice of Colors 7.49

Drop-Leaf Table and 4 attractive Windsor style chairs! Staunchly constructed throughout!

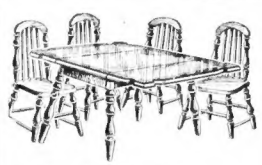

25c Weekly!

"DUTCH TAVERN" 5-PIECE SOLID OAK SET! 12.85

Seldom are you able to secure this distinctive "Dutch Tavern" set at anywhere near this price! Hurry! Quantities are limited!

25c Weekly!

PORCELAIN ENAMEL TOP 5-PC. BREAKFAST SET! 14.85

Unusually high grade table and 4 sturdy chairs complete—drastically underpriced at only $14.85. Staunchly constructed throughout.

25c Weekly!

• New England's LARGEST Retail Furniture Chain Organization •

WALTHAM 576 MOODY STREET · SOMERVILLE 257 ELM STREET · MALDEN 180 PLEASANT STREET · MORGAN'S · QUINCY 1476 HANCOCK STREET · SALEM 191 ESSEX STREET · BROCKTON 15 LEGION PARKWAY

OPEN THU. & SAT. TILL 9 P.M. Boston Store--730 Washington St. OPEN THU. & SAT. TILL 9 P.M.

For Bargains in Used Furniture Shop at Our Used Furniture Store, 1010 Massachusetts Ave., Roxbury

ITALIAN Troops ON MOVE

15,000 SOON ON WAY TO AFRICA

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)

Rome, Feb. 14—The first detachment of Italy's African expeditionary force will leave Sicily for Eritrea and Italian Somaliland Saturday, a government spokesman announced today.

This information was divulged as Premier Mussolini prepared to confer with the Fascist Grand Council to determine his policy in view of the defiant communication sent him by King Haile Selassie of Ethiopia.

The official spokesman said other expeditionary contingents would follow the first unit on Sunday and succeeding days.

He emphasized this does not necessarily presage war, but the troops are being dispatched to reinforce colonial garrisons and obviate the danger of further Ethiopian attacks.

The number of troops scheduled to leave was not disclosed, but it was learned 15,000 will be on their way before the end of next week.

The Fascist Grand Council which meets tonight is Italy's highest legislative body and customarily gives the final word on the kingdom's most important problems.

Premier Mussolini already has been in conference with the supreme council of defense.

Should today's decision signify war, it is known Italy is prepared for a two-year campaign at an expense of as much as 10,000,000,000 lire (about $850,000,000).

More than 1000 troops with full equipment arrived in Rome today from northern cities. They were to spend the day here in barracks undergoing inspection of their equipment and then were to move on to Sicily.

Italy's final reaction to King Selassie's communication, the official spokesman said, is that it is "ridiculous."

"The Ethiopians said they could not have attacked Adduh," he said, "because the Italians had already evacuated it, but that they, however, did not enter.

"How, therefore, could they have known the Italians had evacuated it?"

The government spokesman already had blamed the Ethiopian monarch for the creation of a "serious situation."

Richest Bride on Honeymoon

MRS. CROMWELL JAMES H. R. CROMWELL

Doris Duke, tobacco heiress known as the "richest girl in the world," and her husband, James H. R. Cromwell of New York, pictured in their cabin of the S. S. Conte de Savoia as they sailed on their honeymoon after an early morning surprise wedding.

$8000 RUM Found on Shore

Newburyport, Feb. 14—On the shore of Plum Island, a short distance north of the Knobb's station of the coast guard, 126 cases of alcohol, valued at more than $8000 were found by coast guards today.

The alcohol is believed to be from the rum-running boat which fled yesterday when 130 cases were seized on a wharf while being unloaded from the craft into a truck.

DRUGGISTS Told 1935 to Be BANNER YEAR

The year 1935 promises to be the best since the fabulous days of prosperity.

Max Miller, president of the Boston Association of Retail Druggists, speaking at last night's banquet of the association in Hotel Statler, made that pleasing prophecy.

More than 600 members of the association found it entirely to their satisfaction.

Miller, introducing the speaker of the evening, Mayor Mansfield, described him as "one of us—an honorary member of the association and a drug clerk some forty years ago."

Mayor Mansfield, alluding briefly and humorously to his drug clerk days, discussed principally business conditions and the inevitability of a retail sales tax.

Such a tax, he said, is the real estate owner's only hope, asserting that if there is some such relief for him the tax rate is bound to rise beyond 1934's $37.10.

Well-known Boston public officials and business men attending the banquet included City Treasurer John Dorsey, Samuel Silverman, former corporation counsel; Louis Sawyer of Brookline, former assistant attorney-general; Joseph A. Martin of Malden, chairman of arrangements for the affair, and Louis C. Sumberg, chairman of the executive committee.

WEATHER MAN Warns Thaw Near

The first thaw of the season is close at hand.

This was the weatherman's Valentine today.

With heavy snow still on the ground and with promise of rain and warmer temperatures, the weatherman issued a warning to householders that cellars will probably be flooded.

7 Fishermen Drown

Oslo, Norway, Feb. 14 (AP)—Seven fishermen were drowned today in a hurricane that swept the Atlantic coast near the Island of Frova. Several fishing craft capsized. Thirteen houses were destroyed.

TODAY -:- By Arthur Brisbane

Continued from First Page

own. However much they have together, he will know how to help her spend it usefully.

An intelligent young man, he has occupied himself with serious matters. Solving the problems of money and high finance are among his simplest accomplishments.

It is a good thing just now to start with a lot of money if you can. There is no knowing how much the government will leave you after it has carried out its ideas. Besides, there are all the "share-the-wealth" gentlemen hanging around, and they really mean it.

California is developing a Japanese war scare, not the first. Congressman Dockweiler says 25,000 out of 100,000 Japanese in California "are capable of going under arms tomorrow." There should be more than that. The Japanese work hard, live temperately, keep fit, and are always ready to "go under arms."

But WHY should there be war with Japan?

What do we want that Japan has? What have we got that Japan could get?

Would anybody in the United States be foolish enough to provoke hostile action on the part of Japan?

Would Japan be foolish enough to provoke hostile action on the part of the United States? It could only end in the ultimate destruction of all Japan's immediate, important plans.

The President wants to spend four thousand, eight hundred and eighty million dollars, largely to take men off the dole, which is demoralizing charity, and put them at real work.

He would give jobs that will give families enough to eat, while looking for better jobs. He doesn't want those he employs to settle down to being public charges forever.

His plan is to give a man $50 a month to carry him along, in the depression, and unemployment, saying, "Get a better job as soon as you can, with my blessing."

Union labor says, "Not at all, you must pay the prevailing rate of wages, charity or no charity. Pay our union men the highest wages they have ever received." This would mean paying one dollar and twenty cents an hour and upward.

The President probably would like to pay double the highest wages. The question is what ought he to do? He is not spending money that belongs to union labor or to himself. He is spending money to be taken from taxpayers.

The public is interested in giving men work, keeping them from starving. It is not interested in maintaining union wages. In this emergency questions of union or non-union labor do not enter.

The President could properly say, "I am going to hire at fifty a month men that need fifty dollars a month. I shall be delighted if those that need four hundred dollars a month can get that amount of money elsewhere."

$10,000 BAIL ON Attack Charge

Alleged to have threatened to kill an aged man, Alfred E. Whitehead, 21, of Fawn Bar avenue, Winthrop, was held in $10,000 for hearing Monday when arraigned today in East Boston court charged with attack with intent to rob and being drunk.

He was arrested last night after Abraham Marden, 73, of Shirley street, Winthrop, summoned police to his home. When he claims, he found Whitehead intoxicated in the hallway, and said he recognized Whitehead as a man who, on Tuesday night, entered his house wearing a mask, demanded money.

HOTEL AFIRE On 16th Floor

Providence, Feb. 14—Flames shooting from a 16th floor of the Providence Biltmore Hotel early today brought fire apparatus from across the Mall with their longest lines.

The blaze, which started in a store room filled with surplus wooden tables, was extinguished in less than an hour, but water damage will probably be heavy, the management said.

Court Explosion

Lawrence, Feb. 14—Robert B Otto, of Lowell street, Methuen, janitor at the Essex County courthouse, was blown several feet when a heater in the basement of the building exploded. He was only slightly hurt.

GIRL Leaps 86 Floors TO DEATH

New York, Feb. 14—Quarreling with her sweetheart on St. Valentine's eve, Miss Ima Eberhardt, 22, leaped almost 1000 feet to her death from the 86th floor observation tower of the Empire State Building last night.

In her desperate plunge the young woman cleared the four extensions of the skyscraper. Her body struck and shattered on the heavy marquee above the west entrance to the building.

Just before she eluded the vigilance of the tower guards and jumped through an open window, Miss Eberhardt telephoned her sweetheart, waiting for her return in a Greenwich Village cafe.

"Goodbye. This is my valentine message to you—I am going to kill myself."

The young man, Raymond Rebechi, of Flushing, L. I., ran frantically to a police station and asked help in finding Miss Eberhardt. While he was there the news of her suicide flashed over the police ticker.

Be sure to hear this thrilling radio program tonight, gripping drama—gigantic military band . . .

RED TRAILS

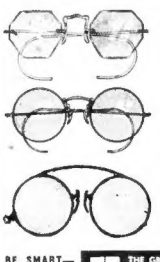

By Stewart Sterling

WBZ and Basic Blue Network—8:30 to 9 (E. S. T.)

© Copyright 1935, The American Tobacco Company

FOR 8 DAYS ONLY!

Sale of FRAMES

15% TO 20% OFF REGULAR PRICES

Lenses not included

Oxfords, rimmed frames, rimless frames—our entire stock at 15% to 20% less than the regular prices! Avail yourself of this opportunity of savings.

Dr. Kraft, Registered Optometrist in Charge

OPTICAL DEPT.—STREET FLOOR

BE SMART—SAVE LEGAL STAMPS

THE GREATER Houghton's

Houghton and Dutton Tremont at Bromfield, Boston

"Pay Cash—Pay Less"—A Boston BUY-word!

ORDERS HAVE BEEN ISSUED

Sell at Once!

CRAWFORD'S Furriers ENTIRE STOCK OF

RACCOON COATS

REGARDLESS of COST

Come FRIDAY or SATURDAY For Beautiful, Full Furred Silvery Models—Regularly up to $215

NOW $89

You Don't Need Cash!

Buy NOW!—Pay as You Wear!

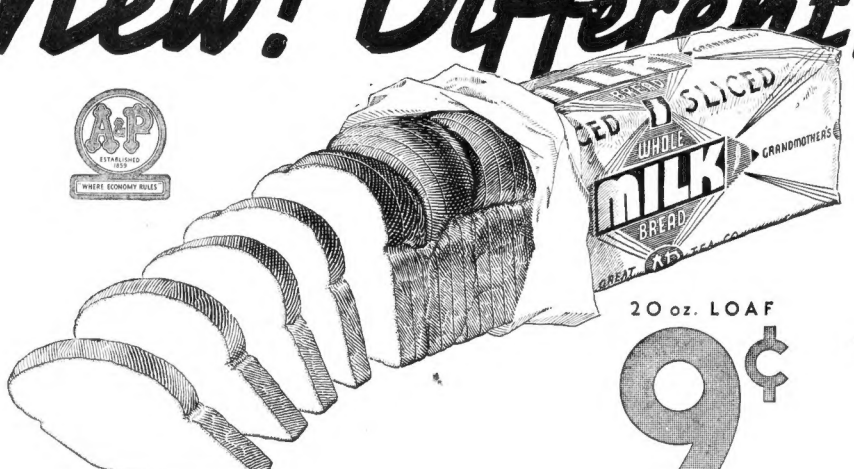

Other End-of-Season Bargains

	Were	Now
LAPIN SWAGGERS	$59	$24
SEAL Dyed Coney	$69	$32
AMERICAN BROADTAIL	$95	$43
"ICELAND" BEAVER (Dyed Coney)	$95	$49
RUSSIAN LEOPARD CAT	$125	$49
Black CARACUL with Pointed SILVER FOX	$159	$59
HUDSON SEAL with Ermine or Kolinsky (Dyed Muskrat)	$195	$79
HUDSON SEAL, Self Trimmed	$165	$85
PERSIAN LAMB	$245	$95
JAP MINK	$325	$145

CRAWFORD'S Furriers OPEN 'TIL 9 P. M.

453 Washington St., 3rd Floor, Dexter Bldg.

New! Different!

20 oz. LOAF 9¢

Grandmother's MILK BREAD

THE FINEST LOAF EVER BAKED!

Your A & P Store has it today. This richer, better white bread. Such smooth texture! Such delicious flavor! Such dainty slices! We believe it is the best loaf ever baked, and the greatest value ever offered at 9c. Try it and see!

MADE WITH MILK AND CREAMERY BUTTER

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

U.S. MAPS Crime War PLANS

SHOCK TROOPS BOOSTED

By JOHN T. LAMBERT

Washington, Feb. 14—Congress, in response to the demands of wide-spread public sentiment, is deciding to increase the shock troops for nation-wide war on organized crime.

The sum of $5,000,000 has been appropriated by the House for the famous division of investigation for the coming fiscal year.

This is the division whose agents erased John Dillinger and "Baby Face" Nelson and cleaned up 30 kidnaping cases in which more than 100 participants have been apprehended.

The appropriation is $620,000 in excess of the division's allotment for the current year and nearly double the sum expended in 1933 when its operatives first won popular acclaim.

The division will have a field force of 700 agents for war upon crimes of national scope. Only the approval of the Senate is now necessary for this expansion. President Roosevelt is anxious to see the activities of the anti-crime force expanded.

The division hereafter will be designated as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a departure to indicate its broad sphere of duty.

The agents of the division have recovered stolen property and exposed fictitious claims against the government totalling $20,000,000 in a single year. In this period, its cost to the government was only $2,650,000.

Its elaborate fingerprint system, most complete in the world, maintained in Washnigton, identified more than 4000 fugitives from justice in a year.

Shortly it will establish here a crime clinic or laboratory in which the most talented officers of state and local police forces will be afforded post-graduate courses in criminal detection.

Dope Probe Begins Here; Indictments Are Hinted

Probe of an alleged dope ring as a part of a recently ordered nation-wide drive, was started by the federal grand jury here today. Indictments of members of the ring are expected.

The ring, it is understood, is part of a gang of dope pedlars operating in the North and South Ends, some of whom have repeatedly been arraigned in court.

The probe was started, it was learned, to act on "secret reports" gathered by federal agents.

Assistant United States Attorney William T. McCarthy, in charge of narcotic prosecutions conferred today with United States Commissioner Edwin C. Jenney.

Several persons suspected being in collusion with the ring were found close to the outer room of the grand jury and taken to McCarthy's office for questioning. A woman witness was brought to the grand jury room. Her name was withheld for fear of reprisal.

JAPANESE HOUSE Votes Huge Budget

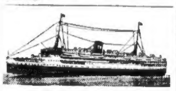

Tokio, Feb. 14 (AP)—The House of Representatives, accepting the militarists' dictum that an "international crisis" necessitates record army and navy appropriations, overwhelmingly passed the 1935-36 budget today.

(The budget provides approximately $297,000,000 for military expenditures, the largest in Japanese history, representing approximately 46 per cent of expenditures for the current fiscal year.)

GUESTS SLEEP Through Fire

Providence, Feb. 14—Without waking a single guest, firemen early today battled a $5000 blaze on the 15th floor of the Hotel Biltmore, in Exchange place, opposite City Hall.

Caused by a carelessly dropped cigarette, the fire broke out in a store-room full of blankets and bedding.

Warm and well ventilated is the trip by ship to NEW YORK on the S. S. ACADIA or S.S. SAINT JOHN of the EASTERN STEAMSHIP LINES

• MAKE RESERVATIONS EARLY FOR WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY •

Sailings daily, except Saturday, at 5 P. M., from India Wharf. Due New York next day at 8 A. M. One-way fare, $5.50. Round trip (30-day limit), $8.50 — $7.50 week-end excursions sailing Fridays, returning leave New York Sunday or Monday night.

• 78 Boylston Street (Little Building), Tel. LIBerty 3830-3831; 50 Franklin Street, Tel. LIBerty 5580; or India Wharf, Tel. HANcock 1700.

Dresses Burn; Owner Safe

Fire which drove 10 persons to the street today badly damaged the wardrobe of Sophie Milberg, above, of 2 Wabon street, Roxbury. She is shown holding two of the dresses which were ruined by the flames. She, herself, escaped without injury, as did other occupants of the building. (Picture by Boston Evening American Staff Photographer.)

'Hospital' Plane Off on 600-Mile Hop

With a 23-year-old tuberculosis patient and his nurse sister as passengers, Pilot John Shobe was flying a "hospital plane" on a 600-mile journey today from Charlottetown, P. E. I., to Boston.

Six or more hours in the air were ahead of them when the Boston flier lifted his cabin ship, equipped with a cot, from the ice of Hillsborough river, skirting Charlottetown, and headed southwest.

Shobe estimated that he should reach Boston between 2:30 and 3 p. m., and that his patient, Cornelius Crane of Prince Edward Island, would be in a Boston hospital half an hour later.

Flying with Shobe was Crane's sister, Miss Alice Crane, a Boston nurse, to care for him on the trip.

Weather

For Boston and Vicinity: Rain, or possibly snow turning to rain, and warmer tonight and Friday; lowest temperature tonight near 32 degrees; moderate to fresh northeasterly winds, shifting to southeasterly and southwesterly.

Massachusetts: Snow or rain tonight and probably Friday morning; rising temperature Friday and in east portion tonight.

Maine: Increasing cloudiness, followed by snow Friday and in west portion late tonight; slightly warmer tonight.

New Hampshire and Vermont: Snow tonight and Friday; rising temperature tonight.

Rhode Island and Connecticut: Rain tonight and probably Friday morning; slightly warmer Friday.

Atlantic Coast, Eastport to Sandy Hook: Moderate west winds, shifting to fresh northeast over north portion, and strong northeast winds tonight, shifting to southwest on Friday over south portion; weather overcast with rain over south, and rain or snow over north portion tonight and probably Friday.

For Shippers: Protect perishable shipments moving north and northeast, 8 degrees to 16 degrees; northwest, 14 degrees to 20 degrees; west, 18 degrees to 24 degrees; elsewhere, 24 degrees to 32 degrees tonight; rising temperature Friday.

BOSTON OBSERVATION

	Today 8 a. m.	noon	Yesterday 8 p. m.
Barometer	30.17		30.12
Temperature	26	32	29
Wind direction	sw.	e.	se.
Wind velocity	4	7	11
Relative humidity	75	59	68
Precipitation in past 12 hours	0	..	0

Temperature readings with maximum and minimum temperatures for the past 24 hours:

	8 a. m.	Max.	Min.
Boston	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Bermuda	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Chicago	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Denver	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Helena	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Jacksonville	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Kansas City	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Los Angeles	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Miami	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Minneapolis	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
New Orleans	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
New York	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Norfolk	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Philadelphia	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
St. Louis	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
San Francisco	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Washington	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

Second Twins

Falmouth, Feb. 14—Mr. and Mrs. John Hathaway are today the proud parents of two sets of twins. The second set, both boys, were born at St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford. The first two, a boy and a girl, were born in 1933.

U. S. ARMS Plan Accepted AT GENEVA

By Associated Press

Geneva, Feb. 14—Hugh Wilson, United States minister to Switzerland, told a special committee of the Disarmament Conference today the dearest hope of the United States is a general conference for limitation of armaments.

The committee, which will attempt to hit at the evils of arms manufacture and traffic, was just opening its session when Wilson spoke.

"The American government," he said, "attaches peculiar importance to the success of the three-fold project now before us: For the regulation of the arms traffic and manufacture, for the establishment of a supervisory body, and for publicity of expenditures."

The committee accepted the American proposal as basis for discussion.

Honor Schuster

Councillor Winfield A. Schuster of Douglas, spearhead of the Republican oposition in the executive council to Governor Curley's administration, will be tendered a luncheon Tuesday at the Parker House by the Roosevelt Club, of which Robert M. Washburn is president.

Best Bets Tonight

7:30 P. M.—WNAC—The Merry-Go-Round, featuring Alice O'Leary.

8:00 P. M. — WNAC — "Hour of Charm," featuring Phil Spitalny and his girl vocal and orchestral ensemble.

8:30 P. M.—WNAC—"The Forum of Liberty," with Edwin C. Hill, Arnold Johnson's orchestra, Edward O'Neil, baritone and guest speaker.

9:00 P. M.—WNAC—Glen Gray's Casa Loma Orchestra, songs by Annette Henshaw, sports talk by Ted Husing, and Walter O'Keefe as master of ceremonies.

9:30 P. M.—WNAC—Fred Waring's orchestra in an hour of songs and music.

10:00 P. M.—WBZ—All-Star Show, with Rakov, John Herrick and Buddy Clark, the Friml Sisters, Adrian O'Brien, Elliot Daniels and his orchestra, and Frank Ruben, master of ceremonies.

11:00 P. M. — WBZ — Curley Joe, the Yodeling Cowboy.

12:00 MID. —WMEX — Cab Calloway and 'lis orchestra.

Best Tomorrow

8:15 A. M.—WBZ—Organ music by William Meeder.

9:00 A. M.—WNAC—"Dear Columbia," dramatization of Fan Mail.

10:30 A. M.—WNAC—The affairs of Jane and John Hemingway, a comedy sketch.

11:00 A. M.—WAAB—The Martha Lee Cooking Counsel, under the auspices of the Boston Evening American.

TODAY'S RADIO TIMETABLE OF PROGRAMS—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14

	590 K—WEEI—508 M	990 K—WBZ—303 M	1230 K—WNAC—244 M	1410 K—WAAB—213 M	1500 K—WMEX—199.9 M	830 K—WHDH—361 M
5:00	Parents and Teachers		Loretta Lee, Songs	Sports Talk	Melodians	Melody Parade	5:00
5:15	Parents and Teachers	N. E. Agriculture	Yankee Singers	Skippy	Parade of the Day	Melody Parade	5:15
5:30	Concert Pianist	Singing Lady	Jack Armstrong	Musical Varieties	Parade of the Day	Trial Reports	5:30
5:45	Buddy and Blake	Orphan Annie	Cosmopolitans	Dick Tracy	Parade of the Day	Meehan's Music	5:45
6:00	"Tattler" Whitmon	Ferdinando's Music		Buck Rogers	Parade of the Day	Townsend Plan, Talk	6:00
6:15	"Tattler" Whitmon	Fair Play Forum	Francine-Bachelors	Johny Benson	At Pittsitt, Talk	Ferry's Music	6:15
6:30	Deane Moore	Press Radio News	Lum and Abner	Dailey's Music	Italian Radio Revue	"State House Today"	6:30
6:45	Billy Bachelor	Lowell Thomas	Melody Limited	Beauty Program	Italian Radio Revue	One-Man Band	6:45
7:00	Minorah Institute	Amos 'n' Andy	Myrt and Marge		Happy Jack Smith	Dooley's Music	7:00
7:15	Health Talk	Gems of Melody	Just Plain Bill	"Irish Echoes"	Happy Jack Smith	Worth's Music	7:15
7:30	After Dinner Revue	Gems of Melody	Merry-Go-Round	"Irish Echoes"	Staley Players
7:45	Magic Strings	College Prom	Boake Carter	Alexander's Music	Staley Players
8:00	Rudy Vallee	College Prom	"Hour of Charm"	ERA Band	Erny's Ensemble
8:15	Rudy Vallee	20th Century Ideas	"Hour of Charm"	History of Art	Male Quartet
8:30	Rudy Vallee	Red Trails	"Forum of Liberty"	ERA Band	"Americana"
8:45	Rudy Vallee	Red Trails	"Forum of Liberty"	Popular Law Series	"Americana"
9:00	Showboat	Death Valley	Glen Gray's Music	Murphy's Music	Ashman's Music
9:15	Showboat	Death Valley	Glen Gray's Music	Organ Tones	Voice and Violin
9:30	Showboat	Emergency Campaign	Fred Waring's Music	Davis' Music	The Phantom
9:45	Showboat	Emergency Campaign	Fred Waring's Music		The Phantom
10:00	Paul Whiteman	All-Star Show	Fred Waring's Music	Connor's Music	Freeman's Music
10:15	Paul Whiteman	All-Star Show	Fred Waring's Music	Connor's Music	Nichols' Music
10:30	Paul Whiteman	Economics Talk	Renard's Music	Stevens' Harmonies	Mann's Music
10:45	Paul Whiteman	Economics Talk	Musical Rhymester	Voice of Crusader	Mann's Music
11:00	Weather Reports	Farmer's Almanac		Haymes' Music	Melodians
11:15	Berger's Music	"Seth Parker"	Alexander's Music	Haymes' Music	Melodians
11:30	Arcadia Music	V. F. W. Program	Warren's Music	Murphy's Music	Magee's Music
11:45	Arcadia Music	V. F. W. Program	Freeman's Music	Murphy's Music	O'Hara's Music
12:00	King's Music	V. F. W. Program	Kaye's Music		Calloway's Music
12:15	King's Music	V. F. W. Program	Kaye's Music		Calloway's Music
12:30	Reichman's Music	Olsen's Music	Navara's Music		Ashman's Music

Dan Murphy's Musical Skippers at 9:00 on WAAB.

FEATURE NOTE!

George Reid, the one-man band, presents a musical program between 6:45 and 7:00 on WHDH airwaves.

Selected Radio Short Wave Slate

Hrs. P. M.	Location	Meters
1:00-5:30	GBS—London	31.68
1:30-6:00	78RO—Rome	25.40
2:00-2:15	HJV—Vatican	50.21
2:00-6:00	DJV—Berlin	31.33
3:00-5:00	RV49—Moscow	50.00
4:00-5:00	FYA—Paris	25.64
5:30-7:00	EAQ—Madrid	30.43

Tune Slowly for Europe

TOMORROW'S TIMETABLE OF PROGRAMS — FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15

	590 K—WEEI—508 M	990 K—WBZ—303 M	1230 K—WNAC—244 M	1410 K—WAAB—213 M	1500 K—WMEX—199.9 M	830 K—WHDH—361 M
7:00	Health Exercises	Musical Clock	Organ Music			Serenade	7:00
7:15	Health Exercises	Musical Clock				Serenade	7:15
7:30	Health Exercises	Musical Clock	Joe M. Chapple	Musical Clock		Recordings	7:30
7:45	Piano Duo	Musical Clock	Musical Clock	Musical Clock		Recordings	7:45
8:00	Weather Reports	Morning Devotions	Recordings			Chapel Services	8:00
8:15	Caroline Cabot	Organ Tones	Recordings	Morning Watch		Chapel Services	8:15
8:30	Musical Interlude	Farmer's Almanac	John Metcalf, Hymns	Phantom Fingers		Married Life	8:30
8:45	Musical Interlude	Recordings	The Pajama Club	Organ Music		Morning Visitor	8:45
9:00	Clothes Institute	Breakfast Club	"Dear Columbia"	Recordings	Morning Melodies	Musical Review	9:00
9:15	Organ Rhapsody	Breakfast Club	"Dear Columbia"	Recordings	Morning Melodies	Orchestra	9:15
9:30	Soloist	Breakfast Club	"Dear Columbia"	Recordings	Daily Inspirations	Press Radio News	9:30
9:45	Male Quartet	Breakfast Club	Carlo Romano, Piano	Recordings	Italian Radio Review	Uncle Pete	9:45
10:00	Soloist	Hostess Counsel	Apothecary Voice	Musical Interlude	WMEX Oracle	Saxaphone Blues	10:00
10:15	Clara, Lu and Em	Hazel Arth, Songs	Bill and Ginger	Memory Lane	WMEX Oracle	Morton Bellin, Songs	10:15
10:30	Air Sweethearts	Today's Children	Hemingway's Affairs	Fulton's Music	Community Program	Fishermen's Broadcast	10:30
10:45	Cooking Talk	Press Radio News	Dental Clinic	Rambles in Rhythm	Community Program	Fishing News	10:45
11:00	Music Hour	Music Hour	Cooking Close-Ups	Martha Lee	Weather Report	Two Pianos	11:00
11:15	Music Hour	Music Hour	U. S. Army Band	Recordings	Organ Tones	Federal Housing	11:15
11:30	Music Hour	Music Hour	U. S. Army Band	Recordings	Organ Tones	String Ensemble	11:30
11:45	Music Hour	Music Hour	Microphone Gossip	Recordings	Melodians	Farm-Garden Chat	11:45
12:00	Mary Marlin Story	Weather Reports	Voice of Experience	Organ Music	Fashion Talk	Robbins' Music	12:00
12:15	Honeyboy-Sassafras	Farmer's Almanac	The Gumps	Organ Music	Piano Recital	Pryor's Music	12:15
12:30	Stock Quotations	Farm-Home Hour	Five Star Jones	Farm-Garden Chat	Music-Nonsense	Ferry's Music	12:30
12:45	Caroline Cabot Time	Farm-Home Hour	Recordings	Leafer's Music	Music-Nonsense	Gotham Band	12:45
1:00	Caroline Cabot Time	Farm-Home Hour	Chamber of Commerce	La Rosa Program	Organ Tones	Meehan's Music	1:00
1:15	Peggy's Doctor	Farm-Home Hour	Chamber of Commerce	La Rosa Program	John Ford Lecture	Romance Under Water	1:15
1:30	Kitchen of the Air	N. E. Agriculture	Chamber of Commerce	Pinto Pete	Gordon Studio Program	Beauty Forum	1:30
1:45	Kitchen of the Air	Words and Music		Instrumentalists	Poems and Stories	Beauty Forum	1:45
2:00	Magic of Speech	Books and Authors	French Princess	Modern Education	Musical Forum	Ensemble Music	2:00
2:15	Magic of Speech	Dixie Revelers	Helen Trent Romance	To Be Announced	Musical Forum	Tone Tinkers' Music	2:15
2:30	Kitchen Parley	Cooking School	School of the Air	Piano Recital	Townsend, Plan, Talk	"West Winds"	2:30
2:45	Kitchen Parley	Cooking School	School of the Air		Hits of the Day	String Quartet	2:45
3:00	Vic and Sade	Marine Band	Rhythm Bandbox	ERA Orchestra	Lone Star Texans	Uncle Ezra	3:00
3:15	Ma Perkins	Marine Band	Rhythm Bandbox	ERA Orchestra	Musical Program	Esther Klein, Piano	3:15
3:30	Sizzlers' Trio	Marine Band	The Grab Bag	Organ Tones	Health Talk	Melatones	3:30
3:45	Kay Foster, Songs	Marine Band	The Grab Bag	Organ Tones	Violin Recital	Leland Rogers, Songs	3:45
4:00	Stock Quotations	Betty and Bob	Woolery's Music	Hits and Encores	Smiler's Program	Today's Winners	4:00
4:15	E. Harrington, Songs	Rhythm Rambler	String Quartet	Hits and Encores	Organ Reveries	Today's Winners	4:15
4:30	NBC Music Club	ERA Civic Chorus	String Quartet	Hits and Encores	Happy Jack Smith	Broadcast to Fishermen	4:30
4:45	NBC Music Club	ERA Civic Chorus	Mary Sothern's Life	Hits and Encores	Happy Jack Smith	Vic Jerome, Songs	4:45

Radio Valentines!

By N. F. T.

From Mary, Helen, Sue and Sally
Come scented cards to Rudy Vallee
Asking that, on Cupid's Day,
He remember them and forget Fay.
—Ray D. O'Scribe.

Fate up and fixes the calendar this St. Valentine's Day, whereupon the celebrated "Vagabond Lover" of radioland is airing his weekly Thursday night hour (WEEI) on the romantic heart holiday.

Verily, and despite legal difficulties, the fair haired favorite finds himself getting what may be well considered a timely break.

* * *

Heading the artist galaxy broadcasting with Rudy, looms the dramatic acting personality, Leslie Howard, assuming the lead role in a brief sketch, "Minuet," as written especially for the occasion. Then there's the Duncan Sisters harmony team, turning in a number of song impressions and another bit of comedy capering by the talkative Tom Howard.

"N. F. T."

This afternoon, on the stroke of 3 o'clock, Carmel Snow, editor of the magazine, Harper's Bazaar, fashion publication owned by Mr. William Randolph Hearst, speaks (WBZ) from Paris during a transatlantic feature period. Here's an unusual opportunity for ladies to learn what Mrs. Snow is observing in the hat, frock, coat and suit designing marts of the gay French metropolis.

Four winds from coast to coast will be laden down with love ditties this evening. Alexander Thiede directs his "Gems of Melody" half hour (WBZ) between 7:15 and 7:45, with St. Valentine the dominating spirit throughout.

Also comes Phil Spitalny and his 8 o'clock "Hour of Charm" presentation (WNAC) of orchestra music by an all-girl outfit, having such tunes as "Sweetheart of Sigma-Chi" and "Love in Bloom" in store for loud-speaker patrons.

STAR STUDDED SETTING

Elliot Daniel and his Hub broadcasting band boys are in line for a 10 to 10:30 half hour tonight (WBZ) as taking place in the interests of the Minorah Memorial Institute stage show slated for Colonial Theater staging next Sunday night for the well known Jewish charity hereabouts. Adrian O'Brien, The Friml Sisters, John Herrick, Buddy Clark, Lou Ashe are the outstanding artists to be heard, with Frank Ruben holding down the master of ceremony post.

To the men who look ahead..

Are you preparing for your future appearance intelligently or are you attempting to ward off approaching baldness by the use of general cure-all methods and tonics that have proved their inefficiency to you over and over again?

Your future appearance can be assured—your hair can be saved—THOMAS' treatment can prove its ability to do this for you, as it has done for thousands of others.

Consultation and examination free.

The THOMAS'

World's Leading Hair and Scalp Specialists—Forty-five Offices

Opposite Jordan Marsh Co. 453 WASHINGTON ST. Men's Suite 810 Women's Suite 800

Hours 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. Saturdays to 6 P. M.

Write for free booklet, "How to Retain or Regain Your Hair"

News Item!

—By Special Arrangement, each purchaser of a Remington Typewriter will receive (without cost)—

5 TYPEWRITING LESSONS AT FISHER BUSINESS COLLEGE

Franklin St. Boston, or Broadway, Somerville. Personal instruction by experts in day or night school.

—Washington Jewelry Co.

BRAND New!

NOW! $29.49

for OFFICE USE! STUDENTS! WRITERS! SALESMEN! BUSINESS MEN! PROFESSIONAL MEN!

We add NO interest or EXTRA charges!

STANDARD 4-Row Keyboard! Double shift! Standard type! Variable line spacer! Margin stop! Paper and carriage release! Other features! Handsome carrying case!

50c WEEKLY

WASHINGTON Jewelry Co.

365 WASHINGTON ST.— near Bromfield St.
503 WASHINGTON ST.— near Temple Pl.
Open Daily till 6 Saturday till 9 Mail Orders Filled

RADIO Queries and ANSWERS

Q—What about Tom Noonan and his Cathedral of the Underworld program? You may have answered this before and it slipped me.

E. S. W., of Everett.

A—This question has been previously answered as you presume. Tom has been very ill, but is now recovering in a consistent way, with his program to be resumed when his health is sufficiently restored.

Q—Is Russ Colombo dead? If so, when did he die? Has the "Beauty Box Theater" hour a real audience when broadcasting?

R. L., of Lawrence.

A—Yes, the radio singer Colombo was accidentally shot last spring and passed away as a result of the wound. Yes, there is a crowd usually in attendance.

Q—What has become of Art Gilham, the whispering pianist? Also Lee Morse, who was a singing headliner on the network and made recordings?

17 Fans, of Dover, N. H.

A—Art still has "mike" turns, although his schedule is somewhat irregular. Lee Morse has been discussed for two or three prospective programs lately, having vacationed from radio work for almost a year. All 17 of you are right about her voice being of splendid quality and rang.

Q—I wrote you previously about Vaughn de Leath and you said her schedule was irregular. I have been watching for her in the listings, but no mention of her is made. N. Y. Z. of Bellingham.

A—Vaughn comes through WEAF of New York and WCSH of Portland on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 2:30. At least that is the present arrangement.

her's age? L. M. S. of Revere.

Q—Does Ben Bernie have a grown son and is he also a musician?

INFO SEEKER of Braintree.

A—The Old Maestro doesn't want his lad to follow the theatrical profession and last word was that the young man attends Culver Military Academy.

RED TRAILS

By Stewart Sterling

tonight!

Hear radio thrill of all time—Get killers with world-famous Northwest Mounties

RED TRAILS, greatest action-pageant ever heard on land or on the radio, goes on the air at 8:30—9 tonight (E. S. T.), WBZ and Basic Blue Network. Note hour and station now. Ride tonight with the Royal Northwest Mounted Police!

Learn how to win a $3.50 Kaywoodie pipe and six standard-size 15-cent tins of marvelous Half & Half Tobacco—and how to win the same prize for your favorite dealer.

"It's two-to-one they'll get their man."

"It's two-to-one you'll like Half & Half."

HALF & HALF SMOKING TOBACCO

"It's the tobacco that counts"

Copyright 1935 The American Tobacco Company

Love Denied

By Louise Long and Ethel Doherty

Sharlene Surprised by Pilot

CHAPTER 28

Well, after all, why should he? She had lost something very lovely out of her life. But what had Stuart lost? What had Stuart had? She had taken him away from a life where he was working and accomplishing. And for what?

Well, she had got him into this. It lay in her power to set him free, and give him a chance to go back to his work, his own life, happiness—if he could find it.

As for herself, she could weather the talk. Other people didn't shrink so from divorce. . .

With a sudden resolution to go to Stuart immediately and cut the Gordian knot, she turned toward the airport. As she slanted earthward, she saw another ship coming out of the north.

She admired the pilot's graceful handling of the plane as he circled the field, and signalled to him that she was going to land also.

When she came to a stop, Sharlene took off her goggles and leaned out to thank the pilot of the other plane for his courtesy. He had already pushed up his goggles. It was Kent Damerell!

The sudden great bound of her heart robbed her of breath. Neither spoke as they looked into each other's eyes.

"I knew you," he said, "when you signalled. You always spread the fingers of the small gloved hand—so!"

"Do I?" Her voice was husky.

Kent a Widower

"Where did you drop from?"

"Frisco."

"Oh. Not a trans-Pacific flight?"

"Not just yet. Some day. I came back from the Islands by steamer a month ago. Just flew down here on business."

"I see . . . And how have you been—and your wife?"

"Hadn't you heard? Cora died in July, in Honolulu."

"Oh! . . . No, I hadn't heard. I rarely read the papers thoroughly—nobody mentioned it—I'm sorry."

"It was a great relief to her—and to me. She was never well, and she wanted to die. There was but little publicity."

"Kent—I didn't read your letter—until after I got back from the Orient—almost a year later. Then it nearly killed me—"

"Because—because I hadn't kept the faith."

They had reached her car. She got in behind the wheel and groped mechanically for the ignition switch. Then she halted, uncertainly.

"Can I take you to town?"

"Thanks, I'll get a taxi—no!" He changed his mind. "I'll go with you!" He sprang in beside her. "Let's go where we can talk."

She drove down to the Palisades and parked on the edge of the bluff overlooking the sea.

"Look at me, Sharlene!" She turned her lovely, flushed face to him. "Are you happy?"

She shrugged and dropped the lids over the tell-tale warmth of her brown eyes. "Of course!"

He seized her left hand and doubled it to look at the wedding ring. "Do you love Pennington?"

"Yes!" defiantly. "He's my Rock of Ages."

"Oh!" He dropped her hand abruptly. His face became eager, alive.

He turned on her again. "Then what did you mean—it nearly killed you because you hadn't kept the faith?"

"Regret, Kent. Regret that I hadn't been big enough to wait for your explanation."

"You would have done differently—if you'd had my letter first?"

"Yes—I think so."

"Oh, what luck! Our lives ruined because I got your mother on the telephone that day instead of you!"

She frowned a little. "It wasn't mother's fault. She reported fairly. . . It would have been all right, I think, Kent, if you had told me about—Cora—when you were called East."

"I know!" he groaned. "I was a coward about the whole affair, I've suffered plenty for it!"

It was dark when Sharlene drove up the hill, alone, after leaving Kent at his hotel. Stuart was in the driveway, watching for her, and jumped on the running board of her car.

Good News

"You're all right?" His voice was anxious.

"Of course, silly!"

"I wouldn't have worried after that, only that you had all those people coming to tea—"

"Oh, I forgot all about 'em! What did you do, Stuart?"

He shrugged. "Gave 'em a lot to drink. They were happy."

"Have we an engagement for dinner?"

"Yes—the Farrington's."

"Oh, dear! . . . Well, come in to my room a minute before I have to dress. I have good news for you."

"Fine. Be right with you. I'll shake up a cocktail—I certainly need it!"

When Stuart brought the tray and glasses into her room later, "You haven't acted like that for months," she remarked indignantly.

"I know—we've both been edgy. But what's the use? We're wasting time—I had the fear of God thrown into me this afternoon—I should say the fear of losing you—"

"But, Stuart," she wailed, "that's my good news."

"What do you mean—?"

"Losing you. I mean, you're going to have your freedom, you don't have to worry about standing by me any more."

He set his glass down slowly, untasted.

"Glad to Be Free"

"Yes?" he said, with ominous quiet.

"You—you won't need to worry about me any more, Stuart—ever!"

"Yes—?"

"And you can go back to work, thank heavens! Undisturbed, your genius will all come back—I know it will—when you haven't got me and the interruptions and the beastly money—"

"I see . . . Kent Damerell has come back."

"Yes. But, anyway, I—"

"Unencumbered?"

"Yes—"

"Well!" he smiled at her brilliantly. "That let's me out. What do you want to do? Reno?"

His calm acceptance stabbed her.

"You're—glad to be free, aren't you, Stuart?"

"It's better so. We couldn't go on—the way we are. You've never had Damerell out of your mind a single instant—"

"Wait a minute, Stuart. There have been plenty of times that I've been aware only of you—and your perfectly heavenly tenderness. Never forget that! But the cards were stacked against you. You warned me—you gave me a chance to renege there in Yuma, but I was so angry and insulted that I didn't have any sense. I was thinking only of myself. It was after we got back here, and I had his long-delayed letter, that I suffered tortures of remorse for the way I'd treated him."

"I see. That was it—you had a letter from him. Well, I'm glad he came back—for your sake."

"But I'd already figured that something had to be done for you, Stuart. You've got to get back to work, Julie said you'd die if you didn't—"

"I'm already dead!" he smiled grimly.

(Continued tomorrow)

Blue Again

By Annice Brink

TWO SHADES of blue harmonize in this little jacket suit modeled by Miss Jayne Whitney, well-known Boston singer. We recommend it for a bit of blitheness in your every-day wardrobe plans. It will make the budget cut a joyful caper, too, since it's around six dollars! A simple navy-blue crepe frock is topped by a jacket of pale-blue basket-weave sheer. Dark lapels and slightly puffed sleeves add a bit of swagger. It has that most chic of combinations—light over dark. For information on the frock, which is from a Boston shop, phone Annice Brink, Fashion Editor, LIBerty 4000, or write her at the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Martha Lee's Daily Chat

By MARTHA LEE

DO YOU like cherries?

Then eat them during the week of February 15th to 22nd, when we will be celebrating National Cherry Week, as we have for so many previous seasons.

FRENCH CHERRY CAKE
2 cups milk
5 tablespoons flour
2/3 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 1/2 cups (No. 2 can) cherries
1/2 cup sugar
4 teaspoons cornstarch

Scald the milk, add flour, 2/3 cup sugar and salt mixed together, and cook in double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Pour over egg yolks, cook one minute longer, cool, add vanilla. Drain pitted red cherries, add water enough to syrup to make one cup. Add 1/4 cup sugar and cornstarch mixed together and cook slowly over a low fire until thick and clear. Cool. Split one round layer of cake (any standard recipe) into two layers, spread the custard thickly between and dot with about one-fourth of the cherries. Spread the thickened cherry syrup over the top, cover with the rest of the cherries and garnish with whipped cream. Cut in eight wedges.

ROLLED CHERRY UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE
1/4 cup butter
3/4 cup sugar
2 1/2 cups (No. 2 can) drained pitted red cherries
4 egg whites
1/4 cup sugar
3/4 cup pastry flour
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
4 egg yolks

Melt the butter in an oblong flat cake pan and add three-fourths cup sugar. Then cover with cherries. Set in oven to become hot while preparing the cake mixture. Beat the egg whites stiff, fold in carefully one-fourth cup sugar and pastry flour, sifted together. Add vanilla and fold in egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored. Spread cake batter over the hot cherries and bake in a slow, 300-deg.-F. oven for 25 minutes or 30 minutes or until done. Let cool one minute, then turn out upside down on a paper dusted with confectioner's sugar. Roll up at once like a jelly roll. Cool to just warm, cut in slices and serve with a nice, creamy custard poured over. This dessert does not improve with long standing. Serves eight.

Menu for Tomorrow

BREAKFAST
Grapefruit
Soft-cooked Eggs
Hot Rolls Butter
Coffee
LUNCH
Clam Chowder Crackers
Banana Salad
Toasted Rolls Butter
Tea
DINNER
Fish Steak with Mushroom Sauce, or Meat
Baked Potatoes Spinach
Bread and Butter
Lemon Pie
Coffee

Advertisement

UNCORKS STUFFY NOSES IN 5 SECONDS

Doctors Recommending Extract Of Chinese Plant

When you have a head cold, thousands of tiny blood vessels in your nose swell up, choke off breathing and cork up your nose tight as a bottle. You can't sleep well and it makes you feel miserable. But now—you can get relief in 5 quick seconds. Thousands of years ago, Chinese medicine men discovered that one of their plants possessed almost magical powers in relieving nose and throat conditions. Today, after endless experiments, modern science has found a way to extract from this plant its most active ingredient, called Ephedrine. And, now, you and every other sufferer of head colds can get the wonderful benefits of Ephedrine in a scientific compound called Hill's Nose Drops.

In five seconds Hill's Nose Drops start to shrink swollen blood vessels in the nose. As they contract, passages open, mucus drains off and breathing is made easier. Now you understand why ordinary preparations that merely "oil" your nose cannot give the same relief. They don't hit at the real cause of clogged passages . . . nasal congestions. So, if you want "5 second relief" from head colds or the spasms of asthma or bronchitis, get a bottle of Hill's Nose Drops today. At all druggists. 25c.

©1935 The Lanco Co.

"NOW I FEEL FULL of PEP!"

Say these happy women

Is periodic pain dragging you down? Do monthly upsets leave you with no ambition to work or play? Next month try Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets.

Mrs. Laverty

Mrs. E. Laverty, 224 State Street, Middletown, Pa., says, "I had cramps and was always rundown at my period but since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets I am feeling full of pep. I used to dread the time but now I need not worry. They took the pain away. I would recommend them to anybody."

Was Greatly Relieved

"Every month I thought I was going to die with pain. Used to stay in bed at least one day. I tried your Tablets and was greatly relieved." Mrs. Gertrude Heiser, 1002 W. Huntingdon St., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Try Them Next Month

They relieve periodic pain and discomfort. Chocolate coated. Sold at all drug stores. Trial size 25 cents.

Lydia E. Pinkham's TABLETS

Skin Clarifiers

A Modern Spring Tonic

By The Beauty Editor

SPRING IS NEARLY upon us sentimentalists again, so there is practically no basic beautifier that to us is not wonderful, be it an old-fashioned tonic or an ultrasmart, new compact.

Since these are the days when we need a little beauty in our life, we should be allowed to correct our shortcomings, even if it seems an ungovernable fling at every tempting artifice, from artificial fingernails to platinum-flecked locks.

If you get jittery at the thought of sulphur-and-molasses—and we confess that we do—get your blood purified in a more modern and more pleasant way. Pineapples—especially the juice—have a beneficial effect upon blood and skin, we are told, and certainly it sounds reasonable enough. A friend of ours who goes on a pineapple drinking orgy each spring, has the fine glint of youth in her eyes.

* * *

Brown spots are quite apt to make their appearance in the spring of the year, when the blood is in poor condition and the liver is torpid. This condition is often responsible for unsightly facial blemishes, and when they take the form of brown spots or "liver" spots, they should immediately be taken in hand.

* * *

Care should be taken with the diet and simple and easily digested foods included on the menu. Highly spiced or fried dishes must be omitted. Exercising in the open air should be part of the daily routine, for there is no better skin clarifier than a brisk walk in rain or shine.

External applications will be found helpful, however. There is an excellent anti-brown spot ointment on the market, and I have a recipe for a home-made lotion that will bleach and fade the most exasperating spot.

* * *

To obtain this anti-brown spot leaflet, write to the Beauty Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop square, Boston, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply.

Peasant Shoes

LITERALLY snatched from the fields, gay peasant shoes make grand active sports footwear. One model is an oxford in brilliant red, blue or green kid, with a big scalloped tongue of white kid, very bold and splashy. Another type is the sportive tie with a square shaped cut-out on the toe—this done in a wicked shade of yellow kid.

Beauty Answers

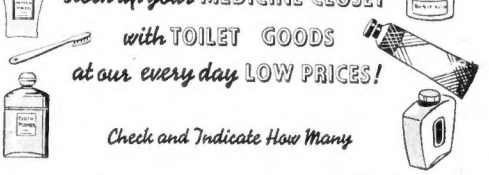

Q—How can I arrange my hair in one of the new, uplifted styles? I have tried curling the ends on top, but somehow they don't seem to stay put. Do you think the vogue for this elaborate type of coiffure will be a lasting one. It is very becoming to me, but I cannot afford to have a hairdresser do it up very often.
BARBARA A. S., Boston.

A—In order to have a successful high coiffure, you must have a special trim and cut. These coiffures are lovely with the brocaded evening costumes and full skirts, but the style is a difficult one to arrange. It will never become popular because it is too expensive to keep up. Unless you are willing to spend hours over your dressing table arranging puffs and curls each morning, I would not advise you to have your hair cut to suit the new coiffure.

MEDITERRANEAN
AQUITANIA
CRUISE
Sailing Mar. 9
Visiting Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers, Barcelona, French Riviera, Holy Land, Egypt, Rhodes, Istanbul, Athens, Naples, etc.
in co-operation with Raymond-Whitcomb
First Class $580 up
Tourist Class $280 up
Shore trips optional.

CUNARD WHITE STAR
TO EUROPE
FROM BOSTON
Scythia ..... Mar. 16
Laconia ..... Mar. 26
Scythia ..... Apr. 13
FROM NEW YORK
Olympic ..... Feb. 23
Majestic ..... Mar. 2
Berengaria ..... Mar. 9
See your Local Agent—No One Can Serve You Better—or Cunard White Star Ltd., 33 State St., Boston, Mass.

Filene's

Stock up your MEDICINE CLOSET with TOILET GOODS at our every day LOW PRICES!

Check and Indicate How Many

CREAMS and LOTIONS
1. Pond's Cold Cream—1/2 lb. ..... 73c ...
2. Lady Esther Cream—Large .. 91c ...
3. Woodbury Cleansing Cream .. 34c ...
4. Junis Cream—Large Jar ..... 67c ...
5. Hopper's Restorative Cream .. 94c ...
6. Hind's Honey & Alm'd Lotion 81c ...
7. Amami Hand Lotion ..... 39c ...
8. Mum Cream Deodorant ..... 24c ...

HAND CREAMS and LOTIONS
9. Filene Almond Hand Lotion .. 32c ...
10. Hind's Honey & Alm'd Cream 37c ...
11. Jergen's Hand Lotion ..... 36c ...
12. Jergen's Hand Lotion, large .. 73c ...
13. Pacquin's Hand Cream (tube) 39c ...
14. Pacquin's Hand Cream (jar) .79c ...

COSMETICS
15. Tangee Lipstick ..... 74c ...
16. Angelus Lipstick ..... 79c ...
17. Angelus Rouge Incarnat ..... 55c ...
18. Christy Lipstick ..... 1.00 ...
19. Roger & Gallet Pomade ..... 39c ...
State shade desired

MISCELLANEOUS
20. Squibb Aspirin Tablets—100's 42c ...
21. Squibb Adex Tablets ..... 79c ...
22. P. & S. Aspirin, 100's ..... 29c ...
23. P & S Tooth Brush ..... 25c ...
24. Prophylatic Tooth Brushes .. 32c ...

SHAMPOOS
25. Admiracion Shampoo, 45c and 80c ...
26. Filene's Olive Oil Shampoo .... 29c ...
27. Amami Lemon Rinse ..... 25c ...
28. Lovalon Rinse ..... 25c ...
29. Conti's Shampoo ..... 39c ...
30. Golden Glint Shampoo ..... 19c ...
31. Mulsified Cocoanut Oil ..... 39c ...
32. Packer's Olive Oil Shampoo .. 40c ...
33. Laco Olive Oil Shampoo ..... 39c ...

ANTISEPTICS
34. Lysol—Medium ..... 39c ...
35. Lavoris—Large ..... 67c ...
36. Listerine—Large ..... 59c ...
37. Listerine—Medium ..... 39c ...
38. Filene Mouth Wash ..... 35c ...
39. S. T. 37 ..... 37c ...
40. Pepsodent Antiseptic—Large .67c ...

TOOTH PASTES
41. Squibb's Magn'a Tooth Paste .33c ...
42. Pepsodent ..... 34c ...
43. Colgate—Large ..... 16c ...
44. Colgate—Giant ..... 30c ...
45. Forhan's ..... 34c ...
46. Iodent ..... 35c ...
47. Ipana ..... 34c ...
48. Kolynos ..... 35c ...
49. Pebeceo Tooth Powder ..... 23c ...
50. Dr. Lyons' Tooth Powder .... 97c ...

OUR OWN FILENE TOILETRIES AT EXTREMELY LOW PRICES

Filene Tissue Cream 65c 4 oz. size

Filene Cold or Cleansing Cream 65c 7 oz. size

Louis Andre' Facial Tissues 3 for 69c Regularly 3 for 79 cents 250 sheets White, Flesh Green, Orchid and Blue

Dickinson's Witch Hazel 2 for 45c Regularly 29 cents

Filene Hand Cream 45c Regularly 65 cents 7 oz. jar

Wm. Filene's Sons & Co.
Please send me articles checked above.
Name .....
Street ..... City .....
Charge ☐ C. O. D. ☐
Amounts total.....

E. A. RAPHAEL CO.

The New 1935 ROYAL Portable 2950

Complete with carrying case

Here's a finer, lighter running Royal Portable, standard four row keyboard, left and right hand shift keys, adjustable marginal stop, more durable and sturdy than ever.

And You Pay Only $1.00 Weekly

It's so easy to open an account at Raphael's

FIVE FREE PERSONAL LESSONS INCLUDED IN TOUCH TYPING BY EXPERT TEACHER

E. A. RAPHAEL CO.
49 BROMFIELD STREET
HANCOCK 8585

BEATRICE FAIRFAX GIVES ADVICE ON LOVE

Parents! Make Home Attractive To Hold Youngsters

WAILS over a joyless youth! Not a day passes without letters coming to this column from young people telling me how unhappy they are.

"I hope old age may come soon, if youth is the happiest time of life," writes one youngster. And another: What's all this bunk about youth being happy? I couldn't be any worse off if I were in an old lady's home." And a boy writes: "My father is like a jailor to all of us; mother, too."

The trouble seems to be a complete lack of understanding between the two generations. In addition to this, there are other factors: Hard times, insecurity as to employment, loss of savings and the modern devil-may-care attitude of youth.

Parents try frantically to hold their children against the modern lure of cars, drink to be had on every block, sinister men and women who make a business preying on boys and girls who are restless and discontented at home.

The way of the parent who does not think is to try to lock the door on these influences to incarcerate their children, as if home were an old fashioned penal institution with a high wall around it.

Comes the day of reckoning, when these over-careful mothers and fathers realize the closed-door policy has been a failure. Either they have completely broken the spirit of their children and have neurotic creatures on their hands, or their boys and girls have taken the bit in their teeth and gone the pace as they've seen fit.

A wise parent tries to understand his child. He considers his own youth—the impulses, temptations mistakes he made, and how he came through them with success or failure. Only a parental egotist imagines his children exempt from these things, and makes no provision for their legitimate expression.

Why should any sane person imagine that the urge to live, with its prevailing and perverse currents, should come to a standstill with his own children? Yet thousands of parents take the refuge in this selfish form of blindness.

If boys and girls are to be kept from the more hazardous forms of temptations, the solution is to make home more attractive to them. Let the youngsters feel that it's a home in the fullest sense, a place where they're free to have their friends, and such entertainment as comes within their means.

Not long ago a mother wrote me a most sensible letter about the rights of children, as she saw them.

"We have no parlor, no living-room or anything like that—but we have the nicest kind of a kitchen. Blue linoleum on the floor, checked blue gingham curtains at the window. China, glass and cooking things, mostly from the Five-and-Ten. And my children feel free to have their friends in at any time. Our house is almost a club, and I feel so safe to know the young people my boys and girls are friendly with."

Mrs. Beeckman

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I would like some information about buying a gift for a young man. I have known this young man for about a year. I have gone out with him quite a bit, although we are not "keeping steady company." He has bought me gifts, such as candy, perfumes and flowers on my birthday and holidays. He will have a birthday the latter part of this month, and I want to know if I should buy him anything. I did not give him a gift for Christmas. If I should, please give me some suggestions. D.

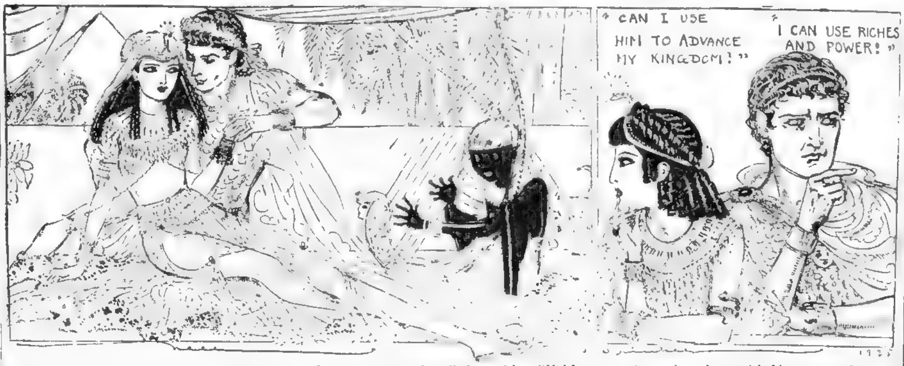

It would be pleasant and proper for you to give him something for his birthday, but it must be conservative something—one or two books that you know will have special interest for him; two or three plain white linen handkerchiefs, especially fine ones for evening wear, if you wish, and monogrammed with his initials.

WE BUY OLD GOLD

We will pay you cash for your old gold watch cases, rings, chains, broken jewelry, dental gold, etc.

The E.B.Horn Co.
429 Washington St.
Jewelers for 95 Years

Which of These Famous Lovers, Loved Best—Anthony or Cleopatra? By Nell Brinkley

DID Anthony or Cleopatra love the better? Did the siren Greek-Egyptian woman, reputed to possess all the glamour that girls long for today, love more than did her soldier-Roman lover? Or was he the one who loved best? Here is the very wise opinion of a famous newspaper editor: "There is nothing to choose between them," he said. "Neither one knew what true love was. Their whole love affair was one of infatuation. It pursued the tragic course that such affairs generally do. Anthony knew there was gold in Egypt and power for himself in bringing Egypt and that gold under Roman sway. He left an extraordinary wife at home and met a siren who, along with his own weakness, ruined him. Cleopatra was always looking for the lover who would help her most. She was an ambitious woman who killed herself just as much from defeated ambition as from love. There is nothing to choose between them."—NELL BRINKLEY.

Who Loves More Intensely?

DR. LOUIS K. ANSPACHER [illegible]

Trying FOR Top

By JOSEPHINE CULBERTSON

South jeopardized a sure six contract on the hand below in an attempt to make seven.

His only excuse was a play for top in a match point duplicate game.

He succeeded in getting it by finding a very fine double squeeze which could have been prevented by an unusual line of defence.

South, Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.

North: ♠ K 8 3; ♥ K 9 8 4; ♦ K Q 9; ♣ A Q 2

West: ♠ 5 4; ♥ Q J 6 3; ♦ J 7; ♣ K J 10 7 4

East: ♠ 9; ♥ 7 2; ♦ A 8 6 5 4 3 2; ♣ 9 8 5

South: ♠ A Q J 10 7 6 2; ♥ A 10 5; ♦ 10; ♣ 6 3

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	3 N T	Pass
5 ♠	Pass	6 ♠ (1)	Pass
Pass	Pass

(1) Slightly optimistic.

West, [illegible] opened his fourth best heart and South found the ten in his own hand winning the trick.

At this point, South, by conceding a diamond trick to the opponents, could have insured six-odd.

South, however, decided to play for seven if there seemed to be any chance of getting away with it.

He led out several rounds of trumps, and East, a weak player, signalled with a high diamond and West an equally weak player, signalled with a high club.

South decided to believe his worthy (?) opponents and proceeded to run some more trumps, discarding all three diamonds from dummy.

Retaining one more trump in his hand, South boldly led a low club and finessed the Queen. When this card held, he cashed the heart King in dummy and returned to his hand with the heart Ace.

He then played out his last trump. West, by this time was down to the King and another club and the heart Queen.

Being forced to retain the heart Queen to top dummy's nine-spot, he had to let go one of his clubs.

The heart was discarded from dummy, and East in turn was in difficulty. East had to keep the diamond Ace to top the diamond ten, still remaining in the declarer's hand, and also let go a club.

South won the twelfth trick with the club Ace and the thirteenth trick with the club deuce in dummy.

Strangely enough, even with the disastrous heart opening East and West still could have defended against seven, although they could not have beaten six.

Frock for Housewear

By MARIAN MARTIN

New styles for correct and comfortable home wear are ready — most housewives are ready for new dresses and now is a good time to make them.

The semi-fitted bodice with diagonal closing lends freedom of movement, and the contrasting collar and cuffs [illegible] without mass.

Pattern 9087 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3⅝ yards 36-inch fabric and ⅜ yard contrasting.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern.

Send your order to Boston American Pattern Department, 232 West 18th street, New York, N. Y.

SPECIAL
For a limited time only
Permanents
Steam-oil, Push-Up, CROQUIGNOLE or SPIRAL
Only $3
Complete with Expert Shampoo and Finger Wave
This wave is a real value, styled to your features and given according to your texture of hair. Absolutely guaranteed and backed by a shop with a proven reputation.
Expert Shampoo and Finger Wave 50c
Phone Liberty 7581
Artiste Shoppe
Immediate Service—Open Evenings
310 Dexter Bldg. 453 Washington St. opp. Jordan Marsh

Adele Garrison's Love Serial

Given in Marriage

CHAPTER 268

THERE WAS such intensity in Hugh Grantland's voice, as he spoke his thanks for my escape unharmed from Lee Chow, that I think Lillian and my father were as embarrassed as I at hearing it.

But Hugh was oblivious of anything else save his desire for assurance that I was all right.

"You are sure that you have suffered no ill effects from this awful experience?" he demanded, [illegible] my hand [illegible]

[illegible]

"What do you think?" I asked, [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] "Will you go to Lee Chow [illegible]

[illegible]

"If you don't mind," he said, [illegible]

[illegible] like to have it a little more [illegible]

[illegible] Harry tell you when Lee Chow came back to the farm house?"

"No, he didn't," Hugh [illegible]

[illegible]

(Continued tomorrow)

PINOCHLE POINTERS by P. HAL SIMS

NEW! Just off the press—128 pages—50c

In this fascinating book P. Hal Sims, America's foremost authority on bridge and other card games, [illegible] contract pinochle and [illegible] two three and four handed [illegible] bidding, and the general [illegible] of pinochle. Many interesting [illegible] shown and analyzed for beginners and experts. Includes official [illegible]. At [illegible] selling books or playing cards [illegible] Or write: The United States Playing Card Company, Cincinnati, Ohio.

LILY PONS, world-famous coloratura soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, says "Pinochle is a fascinating game. In fact, playing pinochle helps improve one's bridge strategy."

AMERICA IS PLAYING PINOCHLE!

BROWN'S Sensational Purchase! of Warehouse-Stored and Used Furniture on Sale Thurs. Fri. Sat.

20 Piece Living Room $19.50 Easy Terms

15-Pc. Bedroom Outfit $19.50 Easy Terms!

3-Room Outfit $39 Above rooms with 5-pc. Kitchen Set Included

3-Pc. Bed $4.85

3 Piece Overstuffed Parlor Set $9.95

Studio Couch with Pillows $3.95

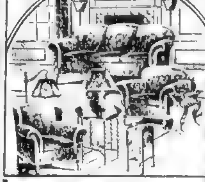

Inner-Spring Mattress full size $3.50

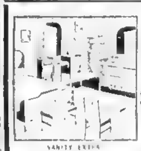

5-Piece Kitchen Set $3.95

Dining Table $2.00

Steel Ice Chest $4.95
Rug Pads, room size 1.00
Chest of Drawers 3.95
Room-Size Rug 4.95
China Cabinet 4.95
Gas Range 5.00

BROWN'S 757 WASHINGTON ST. Open Thurs. and Sat. Eves.

Strategy of Pinochle Fascinating, say Contract Fans Who Play Both Games

MRS. FONTAINE FOX, wife of [illegible] "I've recently begun to play pinochle. I've found it most interesting and a lot of fun."

ALEXANDER HAMILTON, direct descendant of America's first Secretary of the Treasury, is an expert bridge player who also plays pinochle regularly. "Pinochle is a fascinating game with many fine points," says Mr. Hamilton. "A great deal of skill and card sense are required to play it well."

City championship pinochle tournament attracts many bridge fans; P. Hal Sims, noted contract expert, writes new book on pinochle

AMERICA is playing pinochle! Contract players particularly have taken up pinochle and many play both games regularly. It's the latest vogue in card playing throughout the country.

In direct response to the rapidly increasing interest in pinochle, city championship tournaments will open here and in fifteen other leading cities next week. They will be under the direction of P. Hal Sims, noted contract expert and author of "Master Contract," "Pinochle Pointers," and other authoritative works on card games.

Entry blanks for the city tournament may be secured wherever playing cards are sold, or you may clip the coupon printed on another page of this newspaper. For the convenience of beginners and experts P. Hal Sims' booklet, "Official Pinochle Rules," is now included with every pinochle pack of U. S. Playing Cards. Get a pack, brush up on your game! The United States Playing Card Company, Cincinnati, Ohio.

NOW! "OFFICIAL PINOCHLE RULES" by P. HAL SIMS

INCLUDED WITH EVERY PINOCHLE PACK OF U. S. PLAYING CARDS

Famous U. S. Playing Card brands: Congress, Bicycle, Riviera, Wr[illegible], and others, in a wide range of popular prices. For exceptional quality, always look for the name, "U. S. Playing Card Co."

U.S. PLAYING CARDS

GET ENTRY BLANK FOR BOSTON AMERICAN PINOCHLE TOURNAMENT Feb. 18 to March 9 wherever playing cards are sold—or clip coupon printed on another page of this newspaper

RIEL Girl Seen FRIDAY

ETTA SAID IN WORCESTER

Worcest[illegible] 14—Etta Riel 20 year-old former student of State Teachers College is alive and in this city according to information in the [illegible] of police.

The [illegible] who disappeared from her home in Oxford last November was [illegible] State Detective Edward J. McCarthy [illegible] an elderly man who [illegible] 18 years in Oxford.

[illegible] man said he talked with the [illegible] girl [illegible] and [illegible] of [illegible].

Detective McCarthy received the [illegible] while new state and Worcester detectives entered the case and a conference was in progress at [illegible] with District Attorney Owen Hoban.

McCarthy was [illegible] Albert [illegible] 64 [illegible] Kelle[illegible] had [illegible] state detect[illegible] was told.

"I met her Friday afternoon on Main street. She said, 'Hello, Cooper!'"

Kelley explained that "Cooper" was a nickname by which he was known when he lived in Oxford.

"I said hello. Then she asked me for a dollar.

"I told her I didn't have it, but that if I did she certainly would get it. She looked sickly. Her face was pale.

"I told her I was going to the library, but that I'd meet her on the way back. When I came back that way I ducked through an alley because I didn't want her to ask me for money again when I didn't have it."

Asked why he did [illegible] the girl when he knew [illegible] was being hunted, Kelley replied:

"I didn't consider it any of my business. The girl is of age. I didn't know the whole story behind the thing and I didn't want to get mixed up in it."

He added that he mentioned [illegible] to Bryan [illegible] night but did not expect [illegible] would report it to the [illegible].

The new arrivals [illegible] included State Detective [illegible] Sherlock and Lieutenant [illegible] of Detectives David O[illegible] and Emmanuel [illegible] of the Worcester department.

They joined [illegible] quest of the district attorney [illegible] declared there were [illegible] mystifying [illegible] suit him.

Live to Tell of Macon Disaster

By radio, from San Francisco, has been flashed this picture showing survivors of the ill-fated dirigible, Macon, being brought ashore from the U. S. S. Concord, which picked them up at the scene of the disaster. The rescued men are being placed in a motor launch which is to land them, group by group, on the pier.

3 MEN HURT in Auto Crash

[illegible]

Birdmen Compete Saturday In Dreyfus Trophy Contest

The fifth monthly indoor model plane flying contest by Junior Birdmen squadrons for the Dreyfus trophy, cash prizes and theater tickets will be held between 9:30 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. Saturday at the South Armory.

[illegible] Pat O'Brien [illegible] at the Met[illegible] will be given to [illegible] and other active [illegible].

Prizes for the meet are $3 for [illegible], $2 for second, $1 for [illegible] tickets to Loew's [illegible] for fourth. Winners [illegible] prizes will see Ann Harding and Robert Montgomery in "Biography of a Bachelor Girl" and May Robson and Victor Jory in "Mills of the Gods."

The contest is for endurance, the [illegible] flights being the winning flights. The models will be R. O. G.'s of not less than 12 nor more than 18 inches wing span. Bruno P. Marcelli, of Medford, commander of Squadron 128, with two victories, is leading for the Dreyfus trophy to be awarded after the final competition next month.

MACON Inquiry OPENS

PROBE FATAL SHIP 'SHUDDER'

San Francisco, Feb. 14—The cause of the "shudder" which meant death to two men and the sensational end of the giant dirigible Macon was sought today by a naval court of inquiry in the first of a series of promised governmental investigations.

Even the 81 survivors of the silver sky queen which crashed and sank in the Pacific Ocean Tuesday night were not sure what caused that quiver to run the length of the Macon and subsequently rip away two of her vital gas cells.

Lieut. Commander H. V. Wiley, survivor of the Akron disaster and master of the Macon, had "some ideas" about it but declined to discuss them.

His findings will be placed before the naval board of inquiry which assembles aboard the U. S. S. Tennessee in San Francisco Bay today.

As to the original cause of the crash there were hints of some possible structural weakness in the ship's stern.

BANDITS BEGIN Long Terms

[illegible] Boston bandits began [illegible] 20 years [illegible] for armed robbery [illegible] Justice [illegible] Hugh A. Cregg branded [illegible] bandits who [illegible] robbery as a matter of daily [illegible] to more than [illegible] the past few months.

[illegible] William S. O'C[illegible] Louis [illegible] were captured [illegible] an apartment on Massachusetts avenue. They told Judge Harold P. Williams [illegible] that they had nothing [illegible].

HIT, RUN DRIVER Kills Woman

The facilities of the Boston and Cambridge police departments were thrown into a search today for the hit and run driver who knocked down and killed Miss Katherine Mahoney, 47, of Auburn street, West End.

The accident occurred in front of the office of the Registrar of Motor Vehicles on Nashua street. The driver disappeared toward Cambridge.

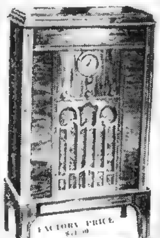

CAN YOU USE SOME CASH?

Just tell us how much you need. You can have it within 48 hours. No rush to repay . . take as long as 20 months, if you wish.

PHONE LIBerty 2710

License 22

INDUSTRIAL BANKERS INC.

WORLD RADIO 19 Summer St., Boston

½ price SALE SPARTON New 1935 Model ALL WAVE

FACTORY PRICE

$34.95 COMPLETE

Sparton ALL WAVE Radios [illegible]

Buy Your 1935 PHILCO from New England's Largest Philco Dealer

$2 first payment

Phone & mail orders filled. Lib. 7751

Children's Colds Yield quicker to double action of VICKS VAPORUB

STAINLESS, now, if you prefer

7 out of 10 are GUILTY of EYE-NEGLECT

Their SENTENCE is: HEADACHES! EYE STRAIN! DIZZINESS! WRINKLES! SQUINTING! FATIGUE! DULL EYES!

Avoid this PUNISHMENT!

TAKE care of your eyes. Have them examined by Washington Jewelry Co.'s Skilled Optometrists—[illegible] modern refracting equipment. They will [illegible] you [illegible] charm and grace to your face [illegible] to your eyes—relieve headaches and eye strain.

NO PENALTY for using our Easy Weekly Payment Plan—No PENALTY of interest or extra charges! Pay as low as 50c Weekly. Why be GUILTY of further delay!

WASHINGTON Jewelry Co.

Scientific Optical Service.

365 WASHINGTON STREET Dr. I. F. Fraument, Optometrist in Charge

503 WASHINGTON STREET Dr. J. A. Dybbs, Optometrist in Charge

Open Daily Till 6 Saturdays Till 9 P. M.

NATIONAL DISTILLERS

Penn Maryland Whiskey

Rich as a Symphony

One drink of this mellow pre-war type of blend—and you know at once that it is the creation of a master blender. Produced under the supervision of National Distillers—slowly, carefully, expertly—PENN MARYLAND WHISKEY is the perfect answer to a national demand for a blend of the pre-war type at a reasonable price. Pick up a bottle of PENN MARYLAND today.

De Luxe (Rye and Bourbon) Imperial • Regal

If your dealer is temporarily out of Penn Maryland Whiskey, please [illegible]

Penn-Maryland Corp., A division of National Distillers. Executive Offices: New York, N. Y.

"Délicieux! These smooth Old Golds!"

"WHEN I came to this country . . . the American cigarettes were all strangers to me. I tried several brands, and some I found very good.

"But when one is required to smoke cigarettes before the camera, the brand must be very mild and non-irritating. 'Try Old Golds,' the director suggested. 'They will not bother the throat.'

"So Old Gold has become my 'Old Smoothie.' It is the cigarette I enjoy most. It is so very smooth and mild."

(Signed) LILI DAMITA

Tres bien, Miss Damita—and thank you! No better tobacco grows than is used in Old Gold. And it's pure. That's why it is easy on both THROAT and NERVES.

© P. Lorillard Co., Inc.

LILI DAMITA . . . charming French star of "BREWSTER'S MILLIONS"—A United Artists Picture

AMERICA'S Smoothest CIGARETTE

'LOVE DENIED,' Thrilling New Serial of Marriage — READ IT TODAY ON PAGE 10

BOSTON AMERICAN
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER
NRA — WE DO OUR PART
BOSTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1935
Second Section
LOCAL NEWS

This Is Life

by

ROBERT E. ROGERS

The memory of the hair shirt must stick deep in Mr. Hoover. At the Lincoln Day dinner at New York he was noticeable for his tacit refusal to attack the Administration.

That for a man who was somewhat notorious for his irritability is somewhat surprising, yet it ties in precisely with his attitude since he retired to private life.

No President ever knew better than Mr. Hoover the hair shirt of misunderstanding, of ignorant criticism, of opposition, of vicious attack.

Robert E. Rogers

Whatever else the presidency taught him, it taught him surely that the commonest thing in the world is the vicious misreading of motives by one's enemies.

Even conduct is not allowed to stand on its own feet; criticism of that conduct must be besmirched with the lowest interpretations. Lincoln himself knew that Mr. Hoover knew it and complained bitterly of it.

The President, fortunately, has the temperament to carry it off in the only way possible. He can laugh it off. The governor has had many years of it, but he always fights back. It would be better, perhaps, if he, too, would laugh it off.

In that respect, then, Mr. Hoover's speech was admirable. He did nothing to embarrass the administration. Yet he was about as fatuous as other people on the subject of Lincoln and Republicanism.

It really is not true that the Republican party conceived Lincoln in its image—or even vice-versa. The G. O. P. has no copyright in him.

Democratic Festival

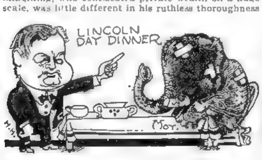

It would have been both shrewd and just on the part of the Democrats to have formed the habit, years ago, of celebrating his birthday as a Democratic festival.

In him there was much more of the strong democracy of Jefferson and Jackson than of the feeble and etiolated Whiggism of his day—a Whiggism exactly comparable to the Republicanism of today in its progressive enfeeblement and impotence.

In his conduct of the war against the South he was quite as highhanded and precedent-breaking as our bitterly denounced President in his war against depression.

When Mr. Hoover said that Lincoln was always careful to stick to the old principles in his wartime methods he can definitely be shown to be mistaken.

The man who suspended the habeas corpus, who borrowed money "recklessly" beyond any previous imagining, who confiscated private wealth on a huge scale, was little different in his ruthless thoroughness from the Wilson of the war years or Roosevelt of the bank panic. There are wars and wars!

An interesting play produced in Boston two or three years ago argued that had Lincoln lived and tried to put his suggested policies toward the South into effect, he would have been impeached as Johnson was at the hands of the fanatic Sumner, the venomous Stevens and the egregious Greeley.

Similarly, it is not necessarily stretching coincidence too far to imagine that Lincoln in present circumstances might well have seriously offended the present die-hards of the party which does lip service to him without really understanding him at all.

Tone of the Dinner

The tone of the Republican Club's Lincoln dinner was beautifully characteristic of the cabal that renounced every policy that Lincoln's death left them responsible for; actuated by a blind rage for revenge, dazzled by a vision of that which has been and nevermore can be, stooping to the lowest insults in their anger at seeing an old oligarchy smashed ruthlessly, refusing to cry their culp for the conditions within their own party and its allies which made their defeat necessary and inevitable, as silent about the party's past in Massachusetts as Harding, Coolidge and Hoover were silent about Sinclair and Fall and the Teapot Dome—the Massachusetts Republicans have not a single constructive suggestion to offer on the natal day of their great original—only insults.

It would be well for them to understand clearly that Governor Curley's first necessary job is to clean house.

He must at any cost tear down the set-up which his predecessor, out of long-standing hostility and a determination to obstruct and hobble and nullify the new administration, left deliberately in his path.

He has got to deal with the "vested rights" of a generation's intrenched Republicanism. Not until then can he begin.

And it ill becomes them to celebrate the birthday of the man who began his term of office by dealing decisively with the "vested rights" of a generation of Democracy in Washington by ranting as they do.

Back in the Civil War times they were known as copperheads.

ICY SIDEWALKS
Injure Three

Slipping on icy sidewalks, William Webster, 44, of 84 Waltham street, South End; William Kelly, 45, of 36 West Sixth street, South Boston, and Mrs. Annie Zulvis, 38, of 14 Fifield street, Dorchester, were all under treatment at City Hospital.

YOUNG BANDIT

A short-pants bandit stuck up John Salami, 12, a newsboy living at Upton street, South End. The loot was 25 cents.

The youthful Dillinger showed Salami a pistol, and invited him to an alley near Union park to show him how it worked. Salami found out.

N. E. MEN Join Defense DRIVE
OFFICERS OFF TO CAPITAL

New England's participation in National Defense Week activities in Washington Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week will be one of the high lights in the observation of the Preparedness drive, it was announced here today by the Reserve Officers' Association, one of the prime movers in the campaign.

The New England delegation which will attend the three-day meeting of the National Council of the Reserve Officers' Association will be headed by Colonel Howard Emerson of Boston, president of the Massachusetts department of the association.

Others will be Lieutenant-Colonel George Krapf, vice president of the Massachusetts department; Major Roger W. Whitman of New Britain, Ct., president of the Connecticut department and the national president of the organization; Lieutenant-Colonel Frank E. Lowe of Portland.

Added to the list of events already scheduled will be a special program at Faneuil Hall, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

It was also announced today that Colonel W. A. Ganoe, professor of military science and tactics at Boston University and radio lecturer on military affairs, has been added to the list of speakers at the meeting of the combined chapters of the Reserve organization at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the City Club.

This meeting promises to be an important feature of Boston's observation of the week. Music by the First Cadet Corps band is on the program.

NEW BUILDING
Code Hearing

The legislative committee on legal affairs today held a hearing on Mayor Mansfield's plan for the adoption of a new building code in Boston.

The proposed code would regulate construction, alteration and maintenance of all buildings. The bill calls for a building department of 12 members, including the building commissioner.

SHOE STRIKE
Expected to End

A second conference between Peter J. Walsh, counsel for the United Shoe and Leather Workers' Union and James Sullivan, attorney for the Gold Seal Shoe Company of Lynn is expected to result in the re-opening of the factory which closed Monday when 350 of 1750 employes went on strike.

Far from Political Storm of Beacon Hill

Pleasantly remote from the inclemencies of Boston weather and the political storm and strife of Beacon Hill is this palm-shaded pathway at Castle Harbour, Bermuda, where Major Harold Duffin of Governor Curley's military staff is vacationing with Mrs. Duffin and their son, Dennis. Bicycling is the accepted mode of transportation—and exercise.

CONGRESS
Broadcast for DRIVE TONIGHT

A broad[illegible] the Massachusetts congress[illegible] delegation in Washington will be radioed tonight in behalf of the Emergency Campaign of 1934, headquarters for the $1,000,000 drive announced.

The broadcast will be heard over WBZ and WBZA at 9:30 p. m.

Senator Marcus Coolidge, Congressmen Arthur D. Healey, Richard M. Russell and John W. McCormack will speak.

A total of $2,511,488.74 has been subscribed to date to the campaign for the support of 97 private charities and welfare organizations in Greater Boston.

The remaining million and a half dollars is the margin by which many charities will stand or fall this year, according to Oscar Haussermann, general chairman.

Haussermann today takes the role of a canvasser in an effort to aid the campaign.

ROXBURY FIRE
Routs 10

Two families, totaling 10 persons and a dog, fled to the freezing street during a $2000 fire in the 2½-story frame house at 2 Wabon street, Roxbury.

Starting in the attic from a defective chimney, the flames burned both upward and downward, filling the apartments of David and Sophie Millberg and David Opfer with smoke.

Governor Curley Backs Bill to Curb Dope Evil

Governor Curley today gave his hearty approval to a bill which would materially restrict the sale and use of narcotic drugs in Massachusetts by bringing closer co-operation between state and federal forces.

The Governor sent this message to a public hearing [illegible] at the State House before the legislative committee on public health.

The sponsor of the bill, Michael J. Ward, chief deputy United States marshal, and Charles A. Burrows, federal narcotic agent, were emphatic in asserting Massachusetts should adopt the bill to cope successfully with the narcotic situation in this state. [illegible] directly attributable to use of narcotics.

But [illegible] the committee his bill [illegible] the federal narcotic [illegible] in Washington and would make possible the co-operation of Massachusetts with the federal government in its attempt to obtain uniform narcotic law.

"I believe if the drug traffic is curbed, crime will be curbed. Present Massachusetts laws are in direct conflict with federal laws. This bill will make possible co-operation with the federal government. It will co-ordinate law-enforcing machinery."

Representative [illegible] of Lowell also spoke in favor of such legislation. He said:

"In Boston alone there are 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 people daily, according to my estimate, yet Boston has but one man on the narcotic end of public safety.

"I understood some cigarettes containing narcotics are coming in from Mexico and that they are being sold to school children."

Samuel [illegible] counsel for the Massachusetts State Pharmaceutical Association [illegible] 1200 members, [illegible] bill.

IDAHO CREW MAY
March in Parade

Possibility that the annual Evacuation Day parade in South Boston will have sailors and marines marching was seen today when arrival of the battleship Idaho at the South Boston drydock was announced for March 18. It may be possible, officials said, to move the date forward two days.

Several days ago Congressman John W. McCormack of South Boston asked the War and Navy Departments to assign details for the parade to be held on Sunday.

Word was received at Boston navy yard today that the Idaho will arrive here the following day for work to be done on her at South Boston drydock.

Captain F. A. Todd is in command of the battleship, which carries a complement of about 1000 men.

MAN FREED ON Postal Charge

Eugene B. Clifford, of Washington street, Dorchester, was found not guilty in Federal court, today, of passing a stolen postal money order in payment for merchandise.

Clifford's dismissal from custody was ordered when authorities admitted they had mistaken the photograph of another man for that of Clifford, and other witnesses said he was not the man.

CURLEY Cites 2 Lost PHOTOS
AS POLICE SAY "ALL'S WELL"

While police reported "all acounted for," Governor Curley today named two persons whose photographs he says are missing from police headquarters files.

He named Frank Lotito, held for the murder of Jack Darrish in Revere, and Mrs. Florence Gilman, notorious as a shoplifter.

He added:

"And I expect some interesting developments in this connection from the report of the crime committee which I have named."

The Curley comment came at the same time that Captain aJmes T. Sheehan reported at headquarters that files of 500 "racketeers" had been checked and had been found intact.

The missing files were but a forerunner to the public hearing that is to be given Police Commissioner Joseph J. Leonard before the Governor's council next Wednesday.

"A Sore Spot"

Commissioner Leonard did not appear at police headquarters today. It was learned that he was in conference with Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien, former Suffolk district attorney, who will represent the police head at Wednesday's hearing.

Activities at the State House included appearance before the legislative committee on judiciary of Attorney Paul A. Dever and Richard D. Grant, Governor Curley's secretary.

Attorney-General Dever made clear the governor's view on a bill to allow entrance of all police including state forces into night clubs and other licensed places where crowds gather. He said:

"The governor feels there is a sore spot in the present law. The passage of an amendment as sought would be one salutary result in that police would not have any excuse for not curbing nuisances, which even the bootblack in the street knows."

Frank Lotito was arrested shortly after the murder of Darrish Nov. 28. He is carried on police records also under the alias of Beverly Frank.

Big Shakeup Near

Mrs. Gilman has been arrested a score of times for shoplifting. Her last offence, a year ago, drew her an indefinite term at Sherborn Reformatory, after Judge Adlow had termed her one "who had taken up shoplifting as a profession."

In addition to his preparations for the hearing Commissioner Leonard was preparing one of the biggest shake-ups in the history of the police department.

The shake-up, it was learned at police headquarters, would affect chiefly the "big-wigs" of the department, members of the detective bureau and officers of higher rank.

Oppose Pensions

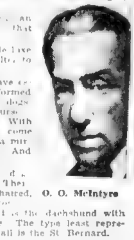

The city government of Boston and the Massachusetts Police Association today signified opposition to a petition providing pensions to firemen and policemen after 25 years service.

O. O. McINTYRE
NEW YORK
Day By Day

New York, Feb. 14—The dog population of New York is now at its peak although it's the most cantankerous city in which to keep a pet.

Until recently the law required both leash and a muzzle, but under a new ruling if the leash is used the muzzle may be abandoned or vice versa.

A few years ago dogs were barred in many apartment houses and most hotels save those with a theatrical clientele.

O. O. McIntyre

Today there is scarcely an apartment house or hotel that bans them.

The Ritz was the first de luxe inn to accord the same shelter to dogs as to human guests.

Many hotels not only have special dog menus but have formed attendants to exercise dogs. Freedom of this sort, of course, applies only to small dogs. With the increased interest has come a flood of dog shops with a mirrored and sanitized splendor. And the Walk-the-Dog Service.

Styles in most [illegible] dogs change every few years. There was the vogue of the wire haired, the Scotchman and the Boston.

Today the favorite breed is the dachshund with the Scottie second place. The type least represented and most lovable of all is the St. Bernard.

Barometer of Expression

Helen Keller's attendance at the play has become increasingly frequent. Even the autograph addicts have found her. Although she neither sees nor hears, she sits far down front and her companion by finger pressure conveys the action.

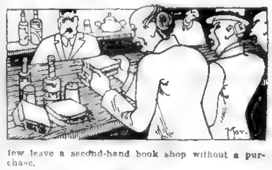

Miss Keller's face becomes a barometer of expression. She smiles, chuckles, grows grave and often brushes away a tear.

She is an occasional cigarette smoker at dinner parties but does not smoke in public. No one watching her step briskly to her car in lively chatter would suspect her afflictions. She has not yet visited a night club.

East 59th street just a skip off the avenue has become a prowling ground for the bibliophile. The block has the largest second hand book stores in town. All are a blaze of light and open until midnight.

Here a saunterer may pasture among the ancient and modern folios free of restraint. Understanding clerks stand back and respond only when called.

Among the [illegible] loiterers, I noticed the monocled Achmed Abdullah, poring over a biography of Emily Bronte. A Fred Allen looking gentleman was inspecting a shopworn Rupert Brooke. Ted Saucier came in for a quick look around. It is noticeable few leave a second-hand book shop without a purchase.

One of the most popular eating places among the natives of Chinatown is a corner white-tiled hamburger stand.

The hamburger is the only American tid-bit for which the Chinese show enthusiasm. They drench them with catsup and often eat three or four at a sitting. Always with tea.

The Beefsteak John's, around which Frank Ward O'Malley used to weave such fanciful tales in the old Sun, is no longer in Chatham Square.

But there is another Beefsteak John's, all flossed up, on Third avenue in the 30's. The original Beefsteak John's featured a filling meal—bean soup, goulash and mashed potatoes, coffee and apple pie—for 15 cents.

Short Story Hero

There was a peg-legged bouncer there with a black eye-patch that Jack London exploited in a short story for The Popular. One of the wall signs read "No Loafing—Eat and Git."

A few blocks from Beefsteak John's was the grog shop with the delirium tremor name, The Pink Alligator. The piece de resistance was called the Johnny [illegible] flagon of beer with two straws [illegible].

[illegible] Gilbert White walks along Paris streets counting Americans as kids used to count white horses . . . Dashiell Hammett is an antique shop browser . . .

J. P. McE[illegible] once made $25,000 in a year writing [illegible] jingles . . . Carole Lombard is putting [illegible] annuities . . . Gertrude Stein is on her way to visit Gertrude Atherton in San Francisco.

William Rhinelander Stewart and Vincent Astor have been chums since boyhood . . . Adela Rogers St. John's whose father was a famous trial lawyer, reads law for diversion.

Add memories: The [illegible] hung gilded rolling-pin covered with plush adorned with a row of brass hooks to hold the shoe buttoners. Oh, yes, and [illegible] top-of-the-stove toast.

Copyright 1935 [illegible] Boston Evening American

FLYING YANKEE
Starts in April

Boston to Portland in an hour and [illegible] minutes, beginning sometime in April, is the tentative schedule outlined by the Boston & Maine Railroad for its new streamlined Flying Yankee.

The new high-speed train, which will tour Maine for six days starting tomorrow, will be put into regular service then, augmenting the present service. Bangor will be an hour and 25 minutes nearer than at present.

The new Flying Yankee will be on exhibition in Biddeford tomorrow at 10:45, in Portland at 1 p. m. through tomorrow afternoon and Saturday, and in Lewiston all day Sunday.

SKIPPY — Rip Van Winkle Had Insomnia

PHONE NEWS TIPS TO BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN—WIN $50 WEEKLY

Do you want to make some money for being alert? If so, the Boston Evening American and the Sunday Advertiser are presenting the opportunity. Every week a total of $50 in prizes will be given for news tips telephoned in to the News Tip Editor at Liberty 4000. There will be given $25 weekly for the best first exclusive news tip received, $10 for the next best, $5 for the next best and $1 prizes for each of the 10 next most valuable tips. A news tip is the information that something of interest has occurred.

KILLER Arrest Is NEAR

GIRL IN CLUB DEATH TALKS

Clues from a girl promise quick arrest of "Red" Sweeney's Cosmos Club slayer, police asserted today.

She has told police that Sweeney breathed his last as she held him in her arms.

[illegible]

Nearly Killed Her

[illegible]

The girl revealed that she nearly met death herself as she sprang to protect Sweeney. Only the quickness of the shot prevented her from being killed.

[illegible]

"You scram. Don't you get mixed up in this. It's had enough as it is."

[illegible]

One big item in recovery of the death weapon.

With powerful ... lights ... Point ... bridge for the gun.

Police were informed that the killer of Sweeney ... into the channel within an hour of the shooting.

Fred Wa... diver ... bottom of the channel ...

He did not ... it was searching ...

Mother, 2 Children Saved In Fire

A mother and two of her small children were rescued from their second floor piazza over ladders early today in a fire at 502 Belmont street, Watertown.

[illegible]

Advertisement

STOP A COLD THE FIRST DAY!

[illegible]

Grove's LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE

Advertisement

If Ruptured Cut This Out

[illegible]

Pinochle Experts Look Over Entries

(Photo by ... Evening American Staff Photographer)

ROSAMOND VAHEY LOMBARD WILLIAMS

... Rosamond Vahey, two of New England's leading bridge ... P. Hal Sims, general director of the Boston Evening ... championship tournament. The tournament will start ... continue for three weeks, with evening sessions for entrants ...

BATTLE On El Guards NEARS CLOSE

[illegible]

Williams and Miss Vahey To Run Pinochle Tourney

By the Pinochle Tournament Editor

Meet Lombard Williams and Rosamond Vahey, you pinochle tournament entrants!

You will meet them personally— ... Monday afternoon ... 2:30 o'clock when the Boston Evening American's pinochle championship tournament formally opens at the Hotel Bradford ballroom.

W... and Miss Vahey, who are two of New England's outstanding bridge players ... P. Hal Sims ... news ...

The ... tournament will continue for three weeks and there will be nine sessions of play, with evening sessions for the accommodation of entrants who are employed during the day.

The game will be two-handed ... and will be for games of ... points, 1000 points constituting a game.

Boston's champion will go to New York to compete in the national tournament at the Waldorf Astoria with champions from ... cities throughout the country for the $1000 award and national championship.

Boston's pinochle king or queen will receive a $200 first prize. The second and third prizes will be $100 each. Fifty additional prizes of autographed copies of the first edition of Sims' "Pinochle Pointers" will be awarded for the 50 next highest scores.

All that is necessary for entering the tournament is that you clip and sign the entry blank accompanying this article. Send it to the Pinochle Tournament Editor, Boston Evening American. Cards and score sheets will be furnished free of charge.

Obituaries

Funeral services for Judge John Alvin Bennett, 86, for the past 38 years associate justice of the Boston Municipal Court, who died yesterday at his home, 262 Commonwealth avenue, Back Bay, will be held tomorrow noon from the Church of the Covenant, Back Bay.

[illegible]

... yesterday, will be held tomorrow afternoon from the First Christ Church, Unitarian, Plymouth. Interment will be in Oak Grove Cemetery.

THOMAS A. DALY

[illegible]

LUTHER ATWOOD

[illegible]

MRS. M. M. HENRY

[illegible]

JOHN P. HUNT

[illegible]

GEORGE HARRINGTON

[illegible]

ERNEST SHAPLEIGH

[illegible]

JOSEPH E. HICKEY

[illegible]

DR. ELISHA P. HUSSEY

... have not yet been announced. He was born in Augusta, Me.

FRANK H. LANMAN

The funeral of Frank H. Lanman, 47, a former Plymouth town official, who died at his home on ...

WILLIAM G. MEALEY

Funeral arrangements for William G. Mealey, connected with the Boston federal alcoholic tax unit, who died at his home in Manchester, N. H., yesterday have not yet been announced.

FRANCIS M. LEARY

Solemn high mass of requiem for Francis M. Leary, 2..., an attorney, who died yesterday at his home, 55 Forest street, Fall River, will be celebrated at St. Mary's Cathedral at 9 a. m. tomorrow. Burial will be in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

MRS. ELIZA A. TEED

Private funeral services for Mrs. Eliza A. Teed, 91, will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. ..., 336 Old Colony avenue, ... Burial will be in Palm... street Cemetery, Somerset.

MARTIN H. KEANE

... high mass of requiem for ... H. Keane, who died yesterday ... Alley ... will be celebrated at ... tomorrow at St. Mary's ...

ELMER BRIERLY

[illegible]

MARK H. MERROW

Funeral plans for Mark H. Merrow, 51, who died yesterday at ... following a brief illness, have not yet been announced.

He was born in Aurora, Me., but moved to Center Ossipee, N. H. ... necessitated his removal to the hospital.

We Must Raise CASH
Hundreds of
FUR COATS
Must be sacrificed
... $9.75 ...
Open Evenings
MAX'S LOAN OFFICE
165 BROADWAY BOSTON

Mother of Kaminski Collapses

Mrs. Mary Kaminski, whose son, Alexander, has only four days more of life, collapsed after a tearful visit with her son in his State Prison death cell today.

Her daughter, Mrs. Rose Patalo and other women visitors revived her after several minutes.

This was the mother's last visit to her son, who must die some time after midnight on Sunday for the slaying of a jail guard in Springfield.

With death so near, Kaminski, however, is answering fan mail from his death cell, Warden Hogsett today revealed.

The young slayer called for a dictionary, the warden said, to aid him in replying to girl who wrote him a letter asking the condemned man to outline his life history for her.

Kaminski told the warden he didn't have time enough for that. He said he wrote write her a letter.

With her daughter, Mrs. Rose Patalo, her son, Walter, and her son-in-law, Fred Patalo, Mrs. Kaminski drove from New Britain, Ct., this morning.

Before visiting her doomed son, she spent some time with another son, John, now serving a 23-year sentence in the same institution.

HARVARD COLD to German Tours

Writing to the Yale Daily News, Henry Fairchild Osborn, former president of the Natural History Museum in New York, declares that he proposed sending parties of students to Germany, but received no support from President Conant of Harvard.

He said that he asked that fair-minded and open-minded observers be sent to study an extraordinary political situation, but that "for various reasons" the suggestion was rejected.

Judge Letts Resigns

Providence, Feb. 14 (INS)—Judge Ira L. Letts of the United States district court announced his resignation from the bench today, to take effect April 1, 1935. He will take up private practice of law here and in Boston, but friends predicted his candidacy for United States Senate in 1936 in the event Senator Metcalf refuses to run.

Seeking Murder Weapon

With a powerful marine searchlight capable of illuminating ... depths of Fort Point channel, Diver Fred Wa... of Somerville, is shown as he prepares to search the channel ... near the Dover street bridge for the gun used in the murder of Joseph "Red" Sweeney.

PINOCHLE ENTRY BLANK

Please enter my name in the Boston Evening American Pinochle Tournament, Hotel Bradford Ballroom, Monday, February 18, afternoon and evening.

NAME ....

ADDRESS ....

City or Town ....

Fill in blank and mail to Pinochle Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass.

There is to be a nominal fee of 25 cents for the first day only, proceeds to go to the Emergency Campaign of 1935

You can see Barbara Holmes daily from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. at the new free rental bureau on the fourth floor of the R. H. White Co.

SCANTY Bathing Suits O. K. ON CAPE

Wellfleet, Feb. 14—No cramping "blue laws" will spoil the bathing season for the beauties who want to sun themselves here next summer.

After a spirited battle, lasting for hours, proponents of a measure to make bathers cover from "head to knees" lost.

In the same spirit of liberalism an amendment to the town law making it a misdemeanor to lower shoulder straps lost.

As the situation stands, males may go without jerseys and females needn't worry about abbreviated suits provided they aren't too daring.

Open House at B. U.

Open house will be observed at Fox Hall, Beacon Hill dormitory for women at Boston University, tomorrow evening, according to Miss Marjorie Keith Stackhouse, hostess.

PERMANENTS
SPECIAL SPECIAL

CROQUIGNOLE
Regular $3.50 Value
$1.75 COMPLETE
With Ringlet Ends
This price includes double shampoo and special styling by experts
35c SHAMPOO AND FINGER WAVE 35c
The Standard PERMANENT $1.10 Shampoo Extra
UNITED Permanent Wave
8 WINTER ST. Suite 404
Devonshire 0981 4th Floor
Open Evenings by Appointment

Bring your garment in, have them ready in 3 hours. Evening Gowns, Sunday Night Dresses, Ladies' Dresses, Ladies' Coats, etc.
ORIGINAL CLEANSERS & DYERS
8 WINTER ST. ON THE 4th FLOOR Phone DEV. 7398
2 WINTER PLACE ~ OPPOSITE CONRAD'S
59 TEMPLE PLACE ~ 7th FLOOR

Seventy-Second Annual Statement as of December 31, 1934.

John Hancock
MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

BUSINESS OF 1934

New Insurance Paid-for	$532,659,313.00
Payments to Policyholders and Beneficiaries	91,877,154.03
Increase of Assets in 1934	28,401,401.11
Increase of New Insurance Over 1933	37,591,500.00
Increase of Outstanding Insurance in 1934	62,258,807.00
Increase of Surplus Resources in 1934	2,662,644.36

STANDING AS OF DECEMBER 31, 1934

Outstanding Insurance	$3,473,967,189.00
Admitted Assets	684,065,767.43
Liabilities (or assets definitely pledged in contractual obligations)	622,249,522.73
Including: The legal reserve on policies in force $569,442,629.00; Dividends to Policyholders Payable in 1935 15,709,167.10
Contingency Reserve Held for Asset Fluctuation	16,500,000.00
General Surplus	45,316,244.70
TOTAL SURPLUS RESOURCES	61,816,244.70

SUMMARY OF ASSETS

Bonds	$228,713,086.27
Stocks (market value)	19,136,443.68
Real Estate Mortgages	210,702,896.73
Loans on Company's Policies	94,783,736.39
All Other Assets	130,729,604.36
TOTAL ASSETS	684,065,767.43

DIRECTORS

WALTON L. CROCKER
ELWYN G. PRESTON
EDWARD F. WOODS
CHARLES L. AYLING
CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS
LOUIS K. LIGGETT
PAUL E. FITZPATRICK
ERNEST B. DANE
FRED E. NASON
GEORGE R. NUTTER
THOMAS M. DEVLIN
GUY W. COX
ELBERT H. BROCK
CARL P. DENNETT
ELIOT WADSWORTH
FRANK G. ALLEN

WALTON L. CROCKER
President

Over a Billion Dollars paid to Policyholders and Beneficiaries since beginning business.

HEAVY BAIL for Holdup Suspects

Three men alleged to have robbed Max Pratt, Dorchester taxi driver, of $4 in Newton last night were held for the grand jury in a total of $17,000 bail when arraigned in Newton court today. All pleaded not guilty.

James Senna, 17, of New Bedford, and John L. Gomes, 26, of Genesee street, South End, were arrested shortly after the crime, one hiding in an empty street car in the Lake Street Elevated yards. Herbert White, 23, of Harrishof street, Roxbury, was arrested later in a taxicab at Lake street.

LYNN MAN Seeks Divorce

Charging she abused and attacked him, Harold B. Cushman, of Swampscott, Lynn bakery owner, is seeking a divorce from Mrs. Hildegarde H. Cushman, of Cambridge, in Salem probate court.

He asked for the custody of their two-year-old child, Robert.

Advertisement

WATCH KIDNEYS SAME AS BOWELS

Wash Out Your 79,200 Feet of Kidney Tubes

Your bowels contain only 27 feet of intestines, yet the kidneys contain nearly 10 million tiny tubes or filters which would measure 79,200 feet if laid end to end. Therefore, it is just as important to watch the kidneys as the bowels. Kidneys are working all the time and are Nature's chief way of taking the acids and poisonous waste out of the blood.

Healthy persons pass 3 pints a day thru the bladder which contains nearly 4 pounds of waste matter. If you pass less than this amount, your 79,200 feet of kidney tubes may be clogged with poisonous waste. This is the danger signal and may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

Kidneys should be watched closely and need cleaning out the same as bowels. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, an old prescription, which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out your 79,200 feet of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs and so-called "kidney cures" which claim to fix you up in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Treatments of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS, the old reliable relief that contains no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

Betty Alden on 'Beacon Hill'

Helen Porter Makes Debut at Somerset Tonight

By BETTY ALDEN

INSTEAD OF BEING ABLE to tell you about the American Beauty roses, crimson hearts, bows and arrows and red ribbons, which we have been visioning all week as the table decorations at Helen Porter's dinner this evening in honor of the ushers for her presentation dance, that independent young lady has fooled us and announces that bright spring flowers have been chosen to harmonize with the gold and ivory walls of the Somerset ballroom for the party . . .

Usually vivacious and jaunty, this tiny deb will be the embodiment of every mother's dream of what her debutante daughter will look like at her debut party, in a feminine and demure white lace dress with a small bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids . . .

HELEN PORTER

Many Debs to Attend

PRACTICALLY all of the season's debutantes will celebrate St. Valentine's evening by going this new bud at the large dance at the Somerset after attending one of the numerous dinners being given in households of budding daughters . . .

Ardelle Moseley, Eleanor Williams, Olivia Osborne and Margaret Eustis with their escorts, will dine with Olivia Stone and a small company of friends will be entertained at dinner by Anne Wicks . . .

Polly Wardwell, Peggy Hardwick, Alice Spaulding and Peggy Eaton will find place cards laid for them at Eleanor Swift's dinner table . . .

The ushers dinner at the Somerset will be gay and lots of fun with the laughter of Martha Bird, Polly Cotter, Anne Meserve, Kathleen Keville, Mary Benton, Betty Gray, Janet Scudder and Emmy Chapman contributing to the merriment . . .

Other girls who will dance with the ushers are Hazel Wightman, Helene August, Mrs. William K. Porter, Katherine Walsh, Natalie North, Rita Faunce, Barbara McKissock, Katherine Baker and Nancy Faxon . . .

The usher corps, which has already been announced has been augmented by the names of Fergie Locke, Garrett Patterson, Pierce Fuller and David Scannell . . .

The fun of coming out and her intense interest in aviation have absorbed Miss Helen all winter, but a trip to Europe and some study of languages is being seriously considered for her early spring program . . .

Carnival Highlights

ECHOES FROM DARTMOUTH CARNIVAL . . . Leslie Blake was completely lost in admiration of King Kong, the huge snow man who towered almost to the roof tops of one of the fraternity houses, and whose red electric eyes winked at her when she scrutinized his enormity . . . Kay Baker was the apple of the eyes of the stags at Robinson Hall where she appeared one evening in a most becoming frock of dark green . . . All the feminine guests were thankful for their warm ski suits on Friday night as they followed the exhibition of crack skiers down the steep slopes of Hanover's hills, and watched the dazzling display of fireworks over the white snow . . .

Yesterday afternoon was a contradiction to the usual fetish of society that it is not the smart thing to do to attend a matinee . . . the ladies like to go to the theater dressed in their most elegant decollete . . .

Lunching at the Ritz-Carlton before the matinee of "Dodsworth" were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tufts with Faith Simpkins and Walter Tufts, Jr. . . . Mrs. Henry Clark with her newly engaged daughter, Marian; Mrs. Henry S. Howes accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Dinsmoor . . . Mrs. Arthur Hartt and Mrs. Harold Coolidge . . . Mrs. Stanley Cunningham is another member of the fashionable world who enjoyed the play and the holiday spirit which prevailed in the packed house . . .

Virginia Wells Hostess at Party

A HALF MOON AND CARNIVAL music from the skating rink added just the right romantic atmosphere to the tobogganing party which Virginia Wells gave at the Brae Burn Country Club the other evening . . . The party was composed of about a dozen young people who are especially enthusiastic about sleigh rides, skating parties and tobogganing while we have such a generous supply of winter weather . . .

Virginia Wells

Faith Ware, Bill Rothwell, Jean Fuller, Ben Prouty, Mary Brown and her fiance, George Creighton, Polly Cotter, Don Gleason, Giff Simonds and Larry Eaton were in the party . . . Before venturing out to the toboggan slide Miss Wells entertained the whole group at dinner in the clubhouse . . .

Dr. Arthur Lee Kinsolving's idea of a restful vacation is to skip off to an unannounced destination in the South for a week or so . . . He left yesterday and although his whereabouts are a mystery, his sisters in Baltimore will undoubtedly claim as much of his time as they possibly can . . .

Now that news of the "Easter special" to Bermuda has leaked out, the debs and their older sisters are clamoring for a chance to fill in the cracks on the steamer which will be crowded with vacationing Harvard students . . . The boat will be the boys' hotel while they are anchored off Bermuda . . .

To seek relaxation and new scenery Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Dane and Dr. and Mrs. John Dane are starting off this week on a cruise to the Caribbean sea . . . The huge organ in the Harvard Club is a gift from Dr. Dane.

ACTIVE IN Vincent Club Affairs

MISS ALICE SPAULDING — MISS HOPE BLANCHARD

MISS ALICE SPAULDING and Miss Hope Blanchard ... among the Vincent Club ... gathered at the Vincent ... members of ... engaged with ... show which ... benefit the hospital.

Screen Treat for Children

MICKEY MOUSE and the Funny Little Bunnies ...

Pauline Brown Bride This Evening

DELICATE AND LACY with softly harmonizing colors of blue and pink and white, those in the bridal party of Miss Pauline Duncaster Brown, will seem like dainty figures from a lovely old Valentine, as they make their way down the aisle of the Leslie Lindsey Memorial Chapel this evening.

Ivory Satin

Usher Group

B. U. Dance

Show Benefits Church

A MUSICAL MOCK ...

Tea Hostess

MRS. WILLIAM B. BURKE, former president of the ...

CLUBWOMEN

Chatty Notes of Society

MRS. ELIZABETH M. WH... of ... New York ...

MR. AND MRS. ... AMES ...

MR. AND MRS. ... FISHER of Boston ...

$50,000 STAMP for Sale in March

New York, Feb. 14.—(AP)—A scrap ... British Guiana Magenta of 1856 ...

It will be offered for sale in London in March by Mrs. P. Costa Scala of Utica, widow of Arthur Hind, philatelist, most of whose $1,000,000 collection she has disposed of. He bought the stamp in Paris in 1922 for $32,500.

Calendar for Week

TODAY

Women's Republican Club, a lecture by Representative Henry Cabot Lodge.

Massachusetts Maine Daughters, at the Hotel Vendome, a meeting, play and luncheon.

Faculty Wives Club, at the Hotel Touraine, a luncheon.

Women's Charity Club, at the Hotel Touraine, a meeting and tea.

Daughters of Massachusetts at the Hotel Statler, a meeting and tea.

Ladies' Unity Club, at the Richardson Food Shop, 192 Boylston street, a luncheon and bridge.

Daughters of Connecticut, at the Y. W. C. A., 140 Clarendon street, a committee meeting.

Pioneer Club, at the Y. W. C. A., a supper.

Greek Mothers' Club, at the Y. W. C. A., a meeting.

Swiss Club, at 190 Beacon street, a meeting.

FRIDAY

Sigma Beta Iota Sorority, 8 p. m., at the Hotel Vendome, a dance.

Syrian Ladies' Aid Society, Junior Chapter, 8 p. m., at the Copley-Plaza. A dance.

Marycliff Academy Alumnae, at the Hotel Bradford. A dance.

Professional Women's Club, 3.30 p. m., at the club rooms. A club lecture, "Review of Important Books of the Day."

Daughters of the American Revolution, 12 m., at the Hotel Statler. A meeting and luncheon.

Boston City Federation Club, 12.30 p. m., at the Y. W. C. A., a meeting.

SATURDAY

Rosary Alumnae, 3 p. m., at the Hotel Statler. A meeting.

Women's Republican Club, 2.30 p. m. An illustrated lecture by Mr. Arthur H. Merritt on "Climbing the Hills of Gaspe."

St. Catherine's Guild, 2 p. m., at the Hotel Vendome. A bridge and tea.

New Hampshire Daughters, 2 p. m., at the Hotel Vendome. A meeting.

Vagabond Club, 8 p. m., at the Y. W. C. A., a play.

SUNDAY

Proparvulus Club, 3 p. m., at the Copley-Plaza. A meeting.

League of Catholic Women, 3 p. m., at the Copley-Plaza. A lecture.

Business Girls Coed Club, 3.30 p. m., at the Y. W. C. A., a tea.

MONDAY

Professional Women's Club, 2 p. m., at the Hotel Statler, a bridge.

TUESDAY

Florence Crittenton League Circles, 12.30 p. m., at the Hotel Kenmore, a mass meeting luncheon. Speaker—Miss Henrietta Additon.

Letters of Napoleon

LOVES JOSEPHINE DESPITE DIVORCE

By HENDRIK WILLEM VAN LOON

Author of "The Story of Mankind," "The Story of the Bible," and ... making an intimate study of the ...

NAPOLEON, the Deliverer, the Apostle of the New Creed of Liberty, Fraternity and Equality, had been victorious because he had the people of all nations on his side.

... had opened ... rigged and ... and their best ... bands ... the street to cheer them on. They had adopted the Marseillaise as their own ...

May 6, 1809.

My dear: I received your letter. The bullet which touched me did not, however, wound me. It barely grazed the tendon of Achilles. My health is very good. You are wrong to be worried. My affairs here are going along all right. Best to you. NAPOLEON.

Oct. 14, 1809.

My Darling: I am writing you to let you know that peace has been signed two hours ago between Champigny and the Prince Metternich. Goodbye, my love. NAPOLEON.

NYMPHENBOURG, near MUNICH, October 21, 1809.

I have been here since yesterday. Everything is all right. I will not leave until tomorrow. Then I will stop a day at Stuttgart. You will be advised 24 hours in advance of my arrival at Fontainebleau. It will be a real celebration to see you again and I await this moment with impatience. I send you a kiss. All yours, NAPOLEON.

Ceremony Error Gains Divorce

All of ... famous Count Walewska who ...

... their divorce Napoleon ... tenderness and concern for Josephine. Following ... one of the first letters ... December, 1809, ... their divorce.

"Old Hens Are Corrupting Young"

My dear, I found you today weaker than you should be. You have shown courage, you must sustain yourself courageously. It is not necessary to allow yourself to slip into baneful melancholy. You must find contentment and above all your health which is so precious to me. If you are attached to me, if you are fond of me, you must bear up forcefully and be happy. You cannot doubt my tender and constant affection, and you certainly do not understand my feelings if you suppose that I can be happy and content if you are not tranquil.

Adieu, my dear, sleep well. NAPOLEON.

7 p. m., December (?) 1809.

I got your letter, my dear. Savary tells me you cry all the time; that is not right. I hope you will go out for a little walk today. I will come to see you when you tell me you will be reasonable and that your courage has taken control of you. Tomorrow all day I have ministry meetings.

Adieu, my dear. I also am sad today; I must know that you feel satisfied and that you have steadied yourself.

NAPOLEON.

Paris, Friday.

My dear: I've received your letter; I regret to learn you have been ill. I'm afraid it must be this weather. Madame de la T... is one of the most foolish women hereabouts. I've tolerated her cackling too long. Now I'm annoyed with it and I've ordered her not to come back to Paris. There are five or six other old hens whom I wish likewise to get out of Paris. They are corrupting the young people with their indecencies.

I am going to name Madame de Makau (a baroness since you wish it) and I will take care of your other requests.

My health is good enough. I want to know if you are getting along all right. Adieu, my dear, NAPOLEON.

Holds Him Even in Her Loss

Read more of these tender, passionate love letters of Napoleon to Josephine in this newspaper tomorrow.

GOOD TEA IS KNOWN BY THIS MARK

INDIA TEA

GOLD DECISION

THE SUPREME COURT'S ... lower the price of gold ... the highest in 100 years.

HOW TO SELL GOLD

GOLD SCRAP SHOP
698 WASHINGTON ST.

BLUE LABEL • KETCHUP •

the finest ketchup ever

IN THE BOTTLE THAT POURS

LOUELLA PARSONS

Robinson Wins Napoleon Role

Bette Davis Is Given Josephine Role

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
Motion Picture Editor Universal Service.

Los Angeles, Feb. 14—Eddie Robinson gets his "Napoleon." After weeks and months of indecision Jack Warner, in New York, telephoned Hal Wallis to go ahead with plans to film the life of France's "Little General."

Bette Davis will change her blonde locks to play Josephine.

What actre[illegible] that makes M[illegible] Paramount, R[illegible] Columbia [illegible] Bette for Warner[illegible] prospective Josephine[illegible]

Of course Warner[illegible] the first company to [illegible] the Napoleon [illegible] urge. Ernest Pascal prepared the story [illegible] when Emil Ludwig, famous biographer of Napoleon, w[illegible] Hollywood, he conferred with Warners on the [illegible] the life of the [illegible]

Louella O. Parsons

* * *

I was just getting [illegible] a few things about [illegible] me Jr. when I heard [illegible] had said he would [illegible] scenarios [illegible] such a promise [illegible] this desk has been swamped with letters [illegible] Now comes [illegible] we read [illegible] they [illegible]

[illegible] he wanted [illegible] pay.

* * *

[illegible] of Paramount [illegible] and he hasn't [illegible] Today [illegible] Herzog [illegible] own Hungarian drama [illegible] of Werner Farr [illegible] Marcel Maret. Mr. Her[illegible] Although he has [illegible] a few weeks he [illegible] the Maz[illegible] Christians. In [illegible] the story on Fr[illegible] the next day Lubitsch [illegible] on the Paramount lot.

* * *

Snapshots of Hollywood

[illegible] CHAPLIN [illegible] GODDARD [illegible] CHAPLIN [illegible] MISS GODDARD [illegible] FRANCIS LEDERER [illegible] WERA ENGELS [illegible] WERA [illegible] IVAN LEBEDEFF [illegible] MARY ANITA LOOS [illegible] COUNTESS DI FRASSO celebrates her birthday [illegible] JOHN CONSIDINES [illegible] COLLEEN MOORE entertains [illegible] WILLIAM HAINES [illegible] KAY FRANCIS [illegible] JOSEPH SCHENCK [illegible] NATHAN BURKAN [illegible] DENNIS O'BRIEN [illegible] JUNE KNIGHT [illegible] TOMMY LEE [illegible] MARY BRIAN [illegible] DICK POWELL [illegible] BILL TILDEN [illegible] ALINE MacMAHON [illegible] New York [illegible] CLARENCE STEIN [illegible] New York [illegible]

Seein' Stars

By Feg Murray

Mary, Chaplin

Sign Pacts

WILL MAKE NEW FILMS

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

Hollywood, Feb. 14—An important meeting of the United Artists stockholders was held at Pickfair.

Joseph Schenck, who will be in Hollywood only two weeks, and who is returning to New York to buy a circuit of theaters, called the meeting to sign two new producers, Mary Pickford and Charles Chaplin.

Miss Pickford was represented by her attorney, Dennis O'Brien of New York, while Charlie brought with him that eminent New York lawyer, Nathan Burkan.

Mary Pickford will start producing as soon as she finishes her radio contract. Her type of pictures, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "Stella Maris," etc., are just exactly what the women's clubs and parent-teachers are demanding today.

Mary will not act but she will develop some young girl for the Pickford roles. What would be more satisfying to the Pickford public than to have America's sweetheart start a young actress on her way to fame and fortune?

Charlie will produce a picture with Paulette Goddard as soon as he finishes his present comedy, which, according to Charlie, is over half finished. He, too, will select new talent for United Artists, although he himself will continue in his pantomime roles and in an occasional [illegible] picture.

Youthful Grace and Charm

Doris Swallow is one of the lovliest of the "Casino de Paree" girls in the third of the jubilee shows opening tomorrow at the Keith-Memorial.

Amusements Amusements Amusements

METROPOLITAN Tomorrow
THE FIFTY MILLION PEOPLE who demanded a picture as good as "Here Comes the Navy"—Can't be wrong!
DEVIL DOGS OF THE AIR
A Cosmopolitan production with JAMES CAGNEY PAT O'BRIEN MARGARET LINDSAY FRANK McHUGH
Another METROPOLITAN Biggest Show Revue headed by the Hilarious Star of the Screen
STAGE Polly Moran In Person!
CARL FREED and His Harmonica Harlequins "RED DUST"
LLORA HOFFMAN Nightingale of Song
Johnny Conway & Rowena
Lou & Irma Belmont
Paul Miller ★ Stevie Allen
The ELIDA BALLET
Fabien SEVITZKY
Last Day! George RAFT Carole LOMBARD "Rumba" STAGE Jimmie Lunceford and Orch.

MODERN
Paramount FENWAY Barbara STANWYCK "The WOMAN IN RED" GENE RAYMOND · GENEVIEVE TOBIN
WARNER OLAND CHARLIE CHAN IN PARIS

BOWDOIN 5 VAUDEVILLE ACTS IN PERSON "ROMANCE IN MANHATTAN"—Francis Lederer "BACHELOR OF ARTS" with Tom Brown "FIRST ROUNDUP" "Forsaking All Others"
THE OLD HOWARD BURLESQUE 3 Complete Shows Daily CARROLL SISTERS

PARAMOUNT PUBLIX NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRES
ALLSTON: CAPITOL — JOAN CRAWFORD, CLARK GABLE, ROBERT MONTGOMERY "FORSAKING ALL OTHERS" — "THE PRESIDENT VANISHES" — "BROADWAY BILL" "ENTER MADAME"
ALLSTON-BRIGHTON: ALLSTON — PAUL MUNI "BORDERTOWN" — "Romance in Manhattan"; EGYPTIAN — "Gentleman Are Born" — "Kentucky Kernels"
CAMBRIDGE: CENTRAL SQ. TRO 7900 — "THE PRESIDENT VANISHES" — "Bachelor of Arts"; HARVARD KIR 4663 — "365 NIGHTS IN HOLLYWOOD" — "BY YOUR LEAVE"
CHELSEA: OLYMPIA — PAUL MUNI "BORDERTOWN" — "THE LITTLE MINISTER" Katharine Hepburn
DORCHESTER: CODMAN SQ. — GINGER ROGERS "Romance in Manhattan" — "MUSIC IN THE AIR"; FIELDS COR. — SYLVIA SIDNEY "BEHOLD MY WIFE" — "THE GAY BRIDE" — Dionne Quintuplet Pictures; STRAND — "President Vanishes" — IRENE DUNNE "Sweet Adeline"
MATTAPAN SQ.: ORIENTAL — IRENE DUNNE "Sweet Adeline" — EDWARD ARNOLD "The President Vanishes"
ROSLINDALE-JAMAICA PLAIN: RIALTO — JAMAICA — Bruce Cabot, "Men in the Night"
ROXBURY: RIVOLI — DUDLEY — "THE PRESIDENT VANISHES" — "SWEET ADELINE" — "MEN OF THE NIGHT" — "BEHOLD MY WIFE"
ROXBURY-DORCHESTER: SHAWMUT ★ MORTON — Sylvia Sidney "BEHOLD MY WIFE" — "WICKED WOMAN"
WARREN — LIBERTY — LORETTA YOUNG "WHITE PARADE" — JACKIE COOPER, "PECK'S BAD BOY"
SOMERVILLE: STRAND — "Pursuit of Happiness" — "Great Expectations"
WALTHAM: EMBASSY — GINGER ROGERS "ROMANCE IN MANHATTAN" "THE PRESIDENT VANISHES"; CENTRAL SQ. — "MUSIC IN THE AIR" "MILLION DOLLAR RANSOM"

Amusements
NEW SCOLLAY New Policy STARTS TOMORROW 2 Claudette COLBERT HER GREATEST ROLE The GILDED LILY A Paramount Picture
also 2 BIG FEATURES CHARLIE CHAN IN PARIS with WARNER OLAND
All Screen Show

Loew's STATE ENDS TODAY Clive of India RONALD COLMAN Loretta Young Tomorrow ANN HARDING ROBERT MONTGOMERY "BIOGRAPHY"
Loew's ORPHEUM New Show TOMORROW — ENDS TODAY — LEW PARKER & Co.
DAVID COPPERFIELD M-G-M's SUPREME TRIUMPH CHARLES DICKENS' Immortal Classic All-Star Cast of 65
STAGE. VENITA GOULD — CHING LING FOO, Jr. — Masters and Gauthier — Bernice Stone And Perry Twins

YES! THE 8th WEEK! BOSTON HAS GROWN FOND OF Robert Flaherty's MAN of ARAN The IRISH prize-winning film epic! FINE ARTS THEATRE SPONSORED BY THE ADULT EDUCATION COUNCIL

NEW GAYETY 15¢ CLAUDETTE COLBERT "IMITATION of LIFE" 5 VAUDEVILLE ACTS
UPTOWN 30c GINGER ROGERS FRANCIS LEDERER "ROMANCE IN MANHATTAN" Also "THE PRESIDENT VANISHES" PARK BURLESQUE
TREMONT 15¢

Copley to Reopen

Beer Ban

"Drunkard" Premiere Saturday

By George Holland

"The Drunkard, or the Fallen Saved," will open at the Copley Theater Saturday night, with the "original New York cast," and two important additions.

One is Belle Livingston, who will be the mistress of ceremonies, and the other is the entertaining Leo Beers.

George Holland

For my interest, I nominate the colorful La Livingston. Belle has had four husbands and is as willing as Barkis—if the next right one happens along.

An axe party at Belle's expense several years ago resulted in the destruction of her "country club" in the hills of E. 58th St. Liquor was found, police alleged.

The Harlem Woman's Prison held Miss Livingston briefly. She celebrated the end of her visit there with a "coming out party," which attracted New York society and stage-folk. The invitations were written flashily on jail stationery.

"I am laying aside my striped gown and the government mop to step into my car and go to the club, to receive friends from 4 to 7," was the message on the bids.

* * *

The marvellous adjustability of La Livingston may be appreciated when it is explained that not even beer will be served at the Copley Theater, while the performances of "The Drunkard" are given. In New York, beer was served in the converted church where "The Drunkard" was presented.

* * *

"The First Legion," will move to the Boston Opera House Monday night.

A Call for Love in the Marine Corps

PAT O'BRIEN — MARGARET LINDSAY

Pat O'Brien puts in a call for Cupid and pretty Margaret Lindsay in "Devil Dogs of the Air," Cosmopolitan picture opening tomorrow at the Metropolitan.

At Orpheum

"David Copperfield," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's production of the Dickens classic, is breaking all records at the Capitol Theater in New York, where it is entering its fifth week, the longest picture run in the history of that theater. The film is the attraction at Loew's Orpheum starting tomorrow.

Gala New Bills

Bevy of Stars

"Devil Dogs of the Air," with a brilliant line-up of Hollywood's finest, opens at the Metropolitan tomorrow.

[illegible]

Movie Clock

STATE—"Clive of India"; 12.15, [illegible] 9.50.

KEITH MEMORIAL—"White Lies", 10, 12 [illegible], 5.49, 8.12, 10.[illegible]

METROPOLITAN—"Rumba"; 11.15, 1 [illegible], 4.40, 7.40, 10.20.

GAYETY—"Imitation of Life", [illegible] 9.30.

UPTOWN—"Romance in Manhattan"; 1.10, 4.10, 7.10, 10.10.

PARAMOUNT—"Women in Red"; 9, 11.33, 2.06, 4.39, 7.12, 9.55.

BOWDOIN—"Romance in Manhattan", 9, 12.06, 4.[illegible], 8.50.

LOEW'S ORPHEUM—"The Winning Ticket", [illegible] 50, 12.[illegible], 4, 7.[illegible], 10.10.

FINE ARTS—"Man of Aran", [illegible] 9.[illegible]

MAJESTIC—"Don Quixote", 11, 12.[illegible], 4.17, 6.05, 7.[illegible], 9.41.

BOSTON—"I've Been Around", 10.18, 1.21, 4.[illegible], 7.[illegible], 10.[illegible]

MODERN—"Lives of a Bengal Lancer", [illegible]

FENWAY—"Charlie Chan in Paris", [illegible] 10.10.

SCOLLAY—"Lives of a Bengal Lancer", 11.30, [illegible] 6.0[illegible], 9.[illegible]

TREMONT—"Conquerors"; "Baby Take a Bow", continuous 9 a. m. to 11 p. m.

HOWARD—"Massacre", 10.40, 6.16.

Romance From Dickens Pages

FRANK LAWTON — MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN

Frank Lawton and Maureen O'Sullivan [illegible] David and Dora of [illegible] Loew's Orpheum [illegible].

Amusements

SHUBERT — LASTS 4 TIMES
Dwight Deere Wiman and Auriol Lee Present
SYBIL THORNDIKE
in John van Druten's Brilliant Comedy
"THE DISTAFF SIDE"
with Estelle Winwood and Viola Keats

2 Weeks Beg. Next Tues.—Seats NOW
"DE LUXE"
By Louis Bromfield and John Gearon. A new American Comedy with Violet Heming, Melvyn Douglas, Ann Andrews, Blanche Ring, Cora Witherspoon, Elsa Maxwell.
Eves. 55c to $2.20—Washington's Birthday and Sat. Mats. 55c to $1.65

PLYMOUTH—TONIGHT 8:30
Bert Lytell and Philip Green Present
BERT LYTELL
in a Play About the Jesuits
"THE FIRST LEGION"
Eves. 55c to 2.20 Thurs. & Sat. Mats. 55c to 1.65

2 Weeks Beg. Next Mon.—Seats Now
HOLIDAY MAT. FRIDAY
DENNIS KING
In A New Comedy
"PETTICOAT FEVER"
Eves. 55c to 2.20—Thurs. & Sat. Mats. 55c to 1.65

Tonight at 8.15 — Next Mat. Sat. — COLONIAL SMASH HIT OF SEASON
Max Gordon Presents
WALTER HUSTON
In Sinclair Lewis'
"DODSWORTH"
Eves. .83 to 2.75—Mats. Wed. & Sat. .83 to 2.20

Amusements

OPENING THE DRUNKARD
Sat. Nite at 8:40
1 Year in New York
2nd Year in Los Angeles
6 Months in Chicago
4th Month in Detroit
4 Months in Pittsburgh
OR THE FALLEN SAVED
Famous P. T. BARNUM Melodrama
Added Features
Belle Livingston-Leo Beers
COPLEY THEATRE Phone Com. 6066
Prices 50 75 1.00 1.50 Seats NOW
FREE Coffee-Sandwiches Dancing
LAUGHS GALORE

Today at YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATER

BROOKLINE
COOLIDGE CORNER — WARNER BAXTER "HELL IN THE HEAVENS" CONCHITA MONTENEGRO — Ursula Parrott's "There's Always Tomorrow" FRANK MORGAN
FRIDAY—WILL ROGERS AND EVERGREEN

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY KIR. 4580 HARVARD SQ — BING CROSBY 'HERE IS MY HEART' — GINGER ROGERS "Romance in Manhattan"

CHARLESTOWN
THOMPSON SQUARE THEATRE — SHIRLEY TEMPLE "BRIGHT EYES" — PAT PATERSON "LOVE TIME"

DORCHESTER
MAGNET — "College Rhythm" Joe Penner-Lanny Ross — "I SELL ANYTHING" Pat O'Brien-A. Dvorak

BACK BAY
STRAND — "Barretts of Wimpole Street" — "Million Dollar Ransom" — Added Attraction Dionne Quintuplets

EGLESTON SQ.
The EGLESTON — Franchot Tone-Jean Muir 'Gentlemen Are Born' — John Mack Brown-S. Blane "Against the Law" — ANDY CLYDE COMEDY

HYDE PARK
FAIRMOUNT FORMERLY EVERETT SQ — GARBO "The Painted Veil" — Bruce Cabot-Judith Allen "Men of the Night"

MALDEN
FREE PARKING GRANADA CONT. 1:45-11
GABLE—CRAWFORD—MONTGOMERY 'FORSAKING ALL OTHERS' 'PRESIDENT VANISHES' Next Saturday—'BROADWAY BILL'

STRAND — Paul Muni-Bette Davis "BORDERTOWN" "Bachelor of Arts" China Thurs., Fri. Eves.

MYSTIC — G. Rogers-F. Lederer 'Romance in Manhattan' S. Blane, 'Silver Streak' Tango Wed. Nite, Prizes

REVERE
BOULEVARD AND REVERE — JOE PENNER "COLLEGE RHYTHM" — KATHARINE HEPBURN "The Little Minister"

ROXBURY
HUMBOLDT — RALPH MORGAN in "THERE'S ALWAYS TOMORROW" — "THE MAN WHO RECLAIMED HIS HEAD" Claude Rains

SOMERVILLE
CAPITOL & BALL SQ. — Sylvia Sidney-Gene Raymond "BEHOLD MY WIFE" — J. Durante-C. Butterworth "STUDENT TOUR"

E. M. Loew's Davis Sq. Thea., Somerville
Leslie Howard, "BRITISH AGENT"
Dickie Moore, "Tomorrow's Youth"
THURSDAY—GIFT NITE

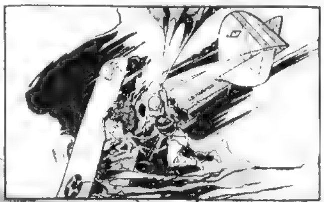

TEELE SQ. SOMERVILLE BROADWAY — 'MAN WHO RECLAIMED HIS HEAD' Joan Bennett-Lionel Atwill "WAGON WHEELS" Randolph Scott-Gail Patrick

SOUTH BOSTON
STRAND — Richard Dix "West of the Pecos" "LADY BY CHOICE" Vaudeville Night
BROADWAY — F. Tone-Jean Muir "Gentlemen Are Born" Tim McCoy "SQUARE SHOOTER"

SOUTH END
NATIONAL — Eves. 10c 20c Mat. 10c Cont. 12.30 to 11.30 — Anna Sten-Fredric March "WE LIVE AGAIN" STUART ERWIN "BACHELOR BAIT" Fri., Sat., "PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS"

PATRONIZE YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE

TOMORROW—HERE COME THE MARINES!

It's the only fighting corps on earth that could top the thrills—the action—the fun—of "Here Comes the Navy"! So Jimmy and Pat signed up and they're streaking for the sky! Come early! See it all! Go out, brag to your friends that you've seen the grandest circus of entertainment since the screen began!

DEVIL DOGS OF THE AIR

JAMES CAGNEY · PAT O'BRIEN

MARGARET LINDSAY · FRANK McHUGH

A Cosmopolitan Production · A Warner Bros. Picture

AIR THRILLS human eyes never witnessed before as Marine Corps fliers scorn peril in actual combat maneuvers staged above the clouds!

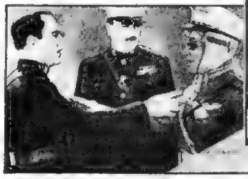

CASUALTY LIST mounts to one as Marine Cagney succumbs to fatal charm of Marine O'Brien's girl friend . . . And then the fun starts!

BIG GUNS of the land forces hold no terrors for sea-going Frank McHugh who still insists the Navy won the war—if there really was a war!

WAR RAGES merrily with leatherneck battling leatherneck as Director Lloyd Bacon shoots the works to top the thrills and laughs of "Here Comes the Navy"!

Starts Tomorrow
METROPOLITAN THEATRE

52nd JUBILEE KEITH'S MEMORIAL

TOMORROW ON THE STAGE

Direct From It's Sensational Broadway Run
GLORIOUS! GLITTERING
CASINO DE PAREE Revue
CAST OF 100
MILTON BERLE
NEW YORK'S MOST BRILLIANT JESTER
CHILTON & THOMAS
WORLD-FAMOUS DANCERS
CARDINI
THE SUAVE DECEIVER
BARBARA JASON
SINGING COMEDIENNE
and 36 WORLD'S MOST RAVISHING GIRLS

SCREEN
A HILARIOUS RIB-TICKLING SMASH HIT!
Edna May Oliver
James Gleason

—LAST DAY— IN PERSON
PHIL BAKER
JACK WHITING
MITZI MAYFAIR
Other Keith Stars
Screen
"WHITE LIES"

RKO BOSTON

STARTS TOMORROW ON THE STAGE
THE BOWERY MUSIC HALL FOLLIES
AND THE GAY NINETIES
JUNE WEST • LEWIS & AMES • CHARLES CARRER • FOUR GOBS
DUVAL AND LEGG
MISS FLORADORA

PREVIEW TONIGHT
Strange Wives
Ends Tonite
CHESTER MORRIS in "I'VE BEEN AROUND" — BIG ACTS RKO VAUDEVILLE

FLOYD GIBBONS' PAGE OF THRILLS AND MYSTERY

'Traveller's Close Shave Off Nautical Graveyard'

Sleeping Hundred Miss Thrill of Lives When Coast Liner Leaves Course

By FLOYD GIBBONS

HELLO EVERYBODY:

All right, Adventurers, pile into the old Op'ry House and grab yourselves front row seats for today's program of thrills and hair-raisers. Hold your breath, boys and girls, while the curtain rises and the orchestra plays the overture introducing the gripping drama unfolded to us by T. R. Burke of 31-31 29th street, Astoria, N. Y., for today's yarn is something new in the way of adventure stories. It is the tale of a disaster that never happened. It is the dramatic yarn of more than a hundred people who for the brief space of 10 seconds were in danger of their lives—and don't know it to this d[illegible]

FLOYD GIBBONS

[illegible] since Burke went [illegible] business going and [illegible] to see. Even [illegible] story [illegible] Autumn of 1911 [illegible] Cape Mendocino, on [illegible] coast. Burke, a trav[illegible] situations in his 22 years of [illegible] this particular night [illegible] most exciting moment [illegible] life.

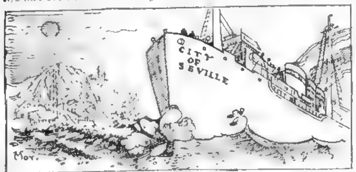

Burke was journeying southward by water, bound for San Francisco on the City of Seville, a coast-wise boat, carrying a hundred-odd passengers and a good-sized load of freight. He was sitting in the lounge, along about midnight, all the other passengers had retired, but Burke was up writing reports to his home office which he [illegible] docked at San F[illegible]

A few minutes before 12 Summers, the mate, came into the lounge and stopped [illegible] Burke. He was going on duty at midnight and invited Burke to join him in the chart-house for a smoke and a bit of talk to while away the dragging hours. Why not? Burke wasn't sleepy. [illegible] had gone to bed. And the mate, Summers, was an interesting chap to talk to. He put away his papers and followed Summers from the lounge.

"Passengers Not Allowed in the Chart House." That sign stared at Burke from the door he was about to enter, but he paid no attention to it. The captain was in bed—the mate was in charge of the ship, and who would know if he slipped in for a bit of a visit. And, in a way, he is glad he did. Otherwise he would have just been another one of those hundred-odd passengers who slept unwittingly while their lives hung in the balance. Otherwise this story would never have been told.

Landsmen's eyes are not trained to the sea. Summers was amused at Burke's inability to pick out distant lights which he could see easily. He sat, smoking, listening to the mate's voice talking through the annunciator. "Point Mendocino abeam, sir. Logging 12 knots, sir. Weather clear, sir. Aye-aye, sir."

The words "Cape Mendocino" stuck in Burke's mind. Mendocino, the danger-spot of west coast navigation graveyard where many a noble ship lies rusting and many a precious human life has been claimed by a tyrannical and relentless sea. He wondered at the mate's easy assurance [illegible] with a passenger while piloting his ship through one of the most ticklish stretches of his course.

But no, by golly, the mate wasn't so assured! The serenity had vanished suddenly from his countenance. A studied frown had taken its place. [illegible] shore seemed somehow out of position, and 20 [illegible] the port side the flashing beam of the Mendocino Lighthouse [illegible]

At that precise moment the City of Seville ran into fog [illegible] sudden, thick, blinding fog [illegible] mariners everywhere [illegible] is found only in [illegible] were sounding now with ever-increasing frequency.

Up ahead the [illegible] was no longer visible. Even the foremast [illegible] that impenetrable mass of [illegible] For 20 minutes the City of Seville ran blind, sounding its siren at intervals, picking its way gingerly through an empty, cheerless sea.

Then suddenly, THE ALARM. It came from the megaphone of the watchman ahead.

"Breakers ahead! Get back, for God's sake. Breakers ahead!"

Summers flew into action, pulling levers, ringing gongs. Burke, looking out of a cabin port, saw a sight that made his body stiffen. For a brief second the moon, breaking through a rift in the fog, showed the outlines of a good-sized mountain, a scant 200 yards away, dead ahead of the ship.

In that moment Burke thought of all the sea disasters that had ever happened. He thought of the Titanic, sinking in a wintry sea, with a full load of screaming, shrieking victims. He thought of men trampling one another, fighting like wild beasts to get to the lifeboats.

Then S[illegible] Get [illegible] Summe[illegible] You're [illegible] supposed to be [illegible]

At [illegible] to the [illegible] take head. Another [illegible]

Next [illegible] steaming up [illegible] with [illegible] yelled up [illegible]

"S[illegible] passen[illegible]

"Yes[illegible]

Summ[illegible] the hawsers [illegible] out of the side of his mouth he [illegible] came overland and seen a bear."

And [illegible] of seeing things I hope you all see tomorrow [illegible] story of the Light That Moved Strangely.

Join X-9ers; Get Your Badge

Become a member of the X-9 Club. Write your name, street, number, city or town on [illegible] and enclose five cents to pay for handling of badge and membership card.

Mail your application to SECRET AGENT X-9, BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, Post Office Box 1606.

By return mail you will receive your card and a new shiny badge.

$10.00 EVERY DAY and $100.00 EVERY MONTH is what Floyd Gibbons will pay American readers to prove that more thrilling and interesting TRUE adventures happen in YOUR life and in the lives of your friends than anything fiction writers can invent. And Floyd will prove it every day on this page. The famous war correspondent's own life is filled with adventure. He was wounded in "No Man's Land," torpedoed in mid-Atlantic and rode with Death in the Sahara, but he wants to write YOUR story now. Send it in to him today. There are no conditions. Everyone is eligible.

HOW TO WIN $100.00

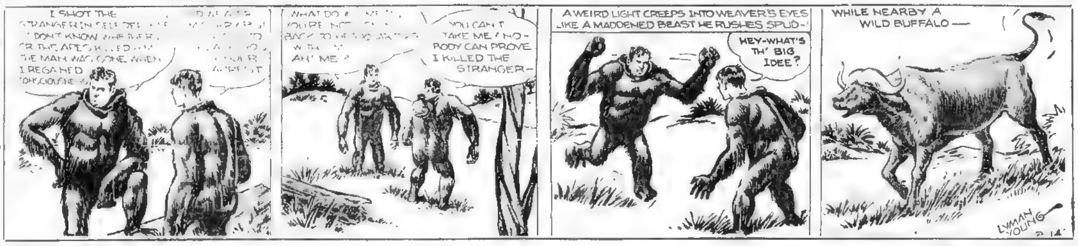

And Membership in the Floyd Gibbons Adventurers' Club

Floyd Gibbons, headline hunter and world famous adventurer, invites YOU to send in YOUR true adventure story to his column. He will pay $10.00 every day for every story printed and an extra prize of $100.00 for the best adventure of the month. You don't have to worry about how well you can write—just send in the facts and Floyd will whip your story into shape for publication. Put the biggest thrill in YOUR life down on paper and mail it to FLOYD GIBBONS, care of the Boston Evening American, and Floyd will do the rest.

SECRET AGENT X9 — Underground Work

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK — A Duo Personality

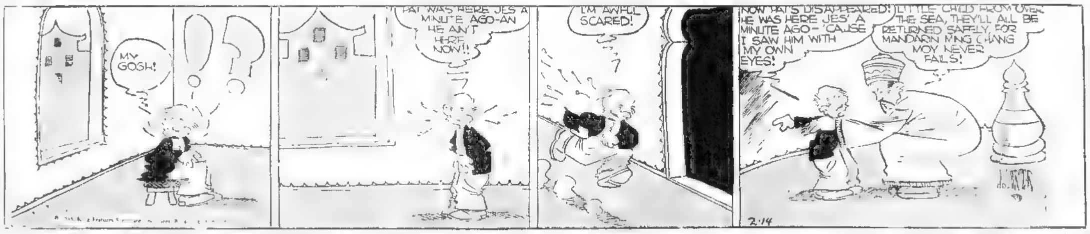

RED BARRY — Censored Literature

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN — "So You Won't Talk!"

JUST KIDS — A Man of His Word

JIMMY AND THE TIGER — A Fund of Information

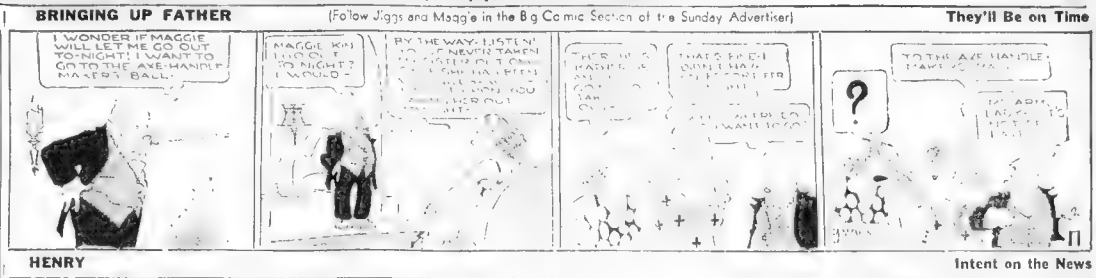

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE

BRINGING UP FATHER

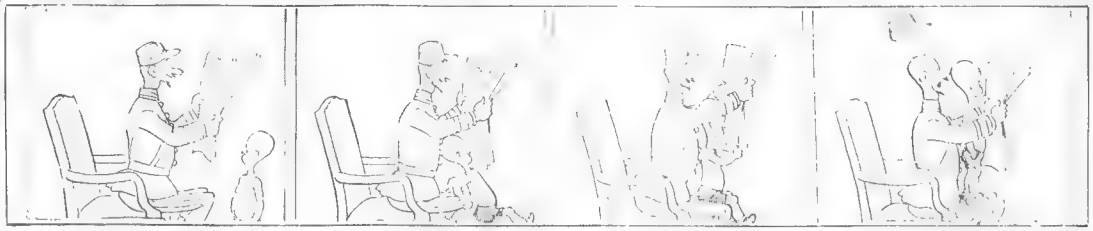

(Follow Jiggs and Maggie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

They'll Be on Time

HENRY

Intent on the News

JOE PALOOKA

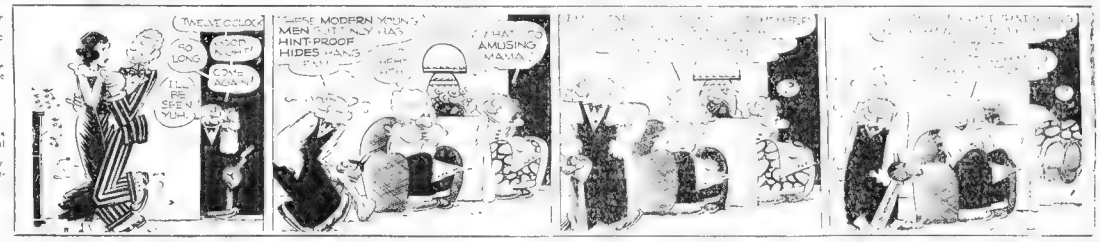

Cut It Out!

POLLY AND HER PALS

(Follow Polly and Her Pals in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

History Repeats Itself

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Somebody's Baby

LITTLE JIMMY

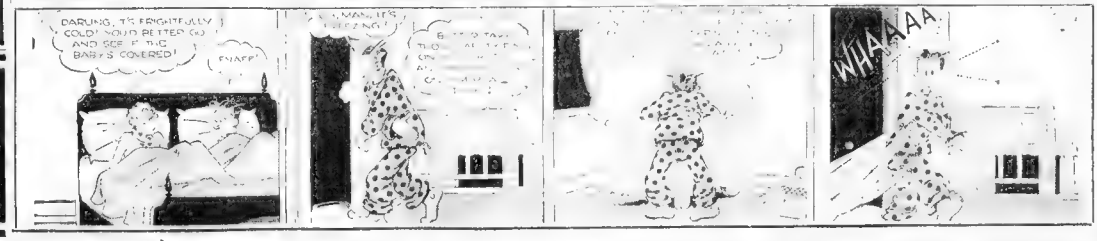

What's This Leading To?

BLONDIE

(Follow Blondie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Undercover Man

Cross-Word Puzzle -:- By EUGENE SHEFFER

HORIZONTAL

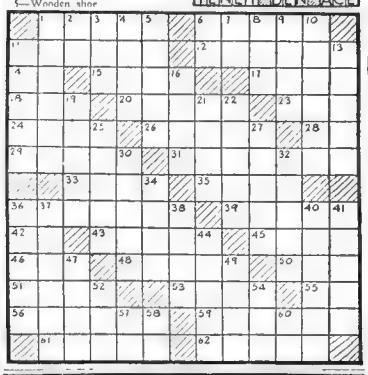

1—Arrives 6—Drudges
11—The Yaqui is the chief river of what state of Mexico?
12—In general circulation
14—Month of the Jewish calendar
15—Children's protective cloths
17—Rounded projection of an organ
18—Feminine name
20—What celebrated American actor appeared in O'Neill's "An Wilderness"?
23—Metal
24—Annual season of fasting
26—Italian playing card
28—Negative
29—Force air audibly through the nose
31—What American statesman became known as the foremost orator of his time in opposing the policies of Henry Clay?
33—Expensive
35—Mountains in Turkestan
36—What English philosopher was noted as the exponent of the modern philosophy of evolution?
39—Sea eagles
42—Exclamation
43—Primeval deity
45—Dry 46—Insect
48—Gentle heat
50—Habitual drunkard
51—Have courage for
53—Place compactly
55—Make 56—Grins
59—Football team
61—What celebrated Italian family of violin makers lived at Cremona?
62—Masculine name

VERTICAL

1—What English economist succeeded in having the Corn Laws repealed?
2—Upon
3—Unruly crowd
4—Masculine name
5—Wooden shoe
6—Mother
7—Pertaining to
8—Sick 9—Plunder
10—What lake is between Louisiana and Texas five miles from the Gulf of Mexico?
11—Floats 13—Friend
16—Who wrote "Arms and the Man" and "Candida?"
19—Positive terminal of an electric source
21—Plane surface 22—Honorable
25—In what Italian city was the famous Church Council of the sixteenth century held?
27—Former Russian rulers
30—Implied but not expressed
32—Prongs 34—Network
36—Fish (pl.)
37—Colon is one of the chief cities of what republic of Central America?
38—Smart blows 40—Wears away
41—Few threads introduced beneath the skin
44—Observed 47—Decorate
49—Actor's part
51—Note in Guido's scale
54—Indolent tumor of the skin
57—Latin conjunction
58—Note of the scale
60—Six in Roman numerals

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS

P	A	S	T	B	O	Y	I	A	M	A	S	S
A	R	E	L	I	T	R	E	L	W	A	S	T	E
C	E	R	A	T	E	D	E	N	T	E	R
.	N	E	P	A	D	D	I	E	A	F
P	O	N	E	.	D	O	E	.	A	R	M	S
U	S	E	.	A	S	.	E	A	T
T	E	R	M	S	.	T	.	D	E	M	E	S
S	A	P	I	.	R	O	A	R
B	A	Y	A	R	D	.	E	R	A	N
L	I	E	S	.	C	L	A	C	.	W	A	S	T
A	M	A	I	N	.	R	E	G	E	N	T	S
S	E	R	V	E	.	E	M	U	.	T	I	T	L	E
T	I	E	N	E	T	T	E	.	D	E	N	I	A	L	E

Boys, BE A REAL DETECTIVE with a NICK CARTER FINGERPRINT SET
GRANT'S
INCLUDES BRUSH, FINGER PRINT POWDER, INK PAD, AND BOOK OF INSTRUCTIONS.
10c COMPLETE
395 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON

WHY WAS BOWLER FIRED?

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

AUSTEN LAKE on Spring Problems of Baseball Writers

THE BASEBALL AUTHORS, who will soon desert our icy mountains for Florida's coral strand, if that is not saying a plain fact too gorgeously, are paid to guess high. Though I dare say none will be so bold as to guess the Braves and Red Sox into a pennant unless they wish to be made conspicuous.

Austen Lake

It is customary for the ball authors to weigh the Southern training evidence like a butcher, with their hands on the scale.

Thus you may soon be hearing how Lefty Grove is the pulsating perfect pink of his old personality while Maranville is frisking around on his creaky leg like a new-foaled colt.

I trust this will be the truth and, if not, I question whether it is not better to pretend that it is to shed rays of Southern optimism and tile winter weary patrons over the spring thaws.

In springtime Florida I have often consulted my soul on these matters, while toasting my skin a nice gravy brown listening to the silken rustle of palm fronds and the pert chirabink of robins.

I confess it has caused me quite a wrench to write the bold, raw facts and say that certain news gilded rookies could not really hit a grapefruit with a deck chair or pitch a light bulb fast enough to bust it on a brick wall.

* * *

Social Vipers

JUDGE FUCHS AND EDDIE COLLINS have been pretty forgiving when I wrote naked, negative opinions about their teams in past springs.

But sometimes the ball players, with whom one feeds, frolics and fritters between times, regard one as a social viper for writing that they are afflicted with housemaid's elbow, board-in-the-back, policeman's foot and kindred baseball diseases.

It is very risky to a writer's independence to meet, on a plane of social intimacy, the men he is writing about.

They are mostly pleasant, friendly chaps with worries about family and money, and they are apt to mention confidential bits about little Edna's septic throat, or read you sweet baby letters that prattle about nursery nothings in an up-and-down scrawl.

So, when these baseball daddies lose a ground ball down their shirts, or trip on their own insteps, you are apt to hide the ugly truth in your overnight dispatch and report to your home readers that So-and So is a diamond-in-the-rough, and neglect to say how rough that rough is.

* * *

Candor's Kickbacks

I RECALL THAT BOB QUINN was very twitchy about candid criticisms of his teams from the South, and had the Boston papers clipped and returned by airmail. So that, by the hang of his jowls and the hard bulges at the back of his jaws, you could tell pretty quick that your wire essays were dark brown to his taste.

And once, when a camp correspondent wrote a piece saying how the Braves had scrimped on the meal money and no longer laundered the men's linen free, Mr. Bruce Wetmore, a stockholder, dropped by the Boston editor's office to demand the writer's instant recall on pain of great personal offense.

Then there was Mrs. Al Powell, the wife of one of the early Braves' co-owners, who used to sit on the Soreno Hotel porch at St. Pete, a vision of organdy and ruffles, and pout sternly at the writer, saying:

"There goes one of our ungrateful guests, who is being treated to a life of luxury at no cost, and he is writing slurs about his hosts."

* * *

Music in Their Fingers

FORTUNATELY, IN RECENT YEARS, the quality of the Braves and Red Sox has improved, so that the ball authors may now be optimistic without being unfaithful to their journalistic vows.

But in the elder day it was always a sordid conflict between softening influence and rugged devotion to duty.

At the risk of being called heretic by my fellow-authors, it was no small temptation for one who was hauled down out of a bleak, blizzardy North and installed under a midsummer sun, with electric push-buttons to answer your every want, and no expense, to turn up the wick of your gratitude and thumb over your glory-words.

Not that Judge Fuchs or Eddie Collins wish their clubs to be guessed into a pennant, or tried to put a collar on the writers.

Just that merriment's music entered our typing fingers as we thrilled pianoforte pieces for our paper, and every stumble footed ball bum was bathed in a golden glow.

Which is why, some years ago, a Boston editor, who was freezing his ears and stumbling over snow drifts at home, wired his training camp reporter:

"The Red Sox can't be that good or angels would snatch them up."

* * *

Three-Year-Old Prediction

IF THE DUTY of the training camp journalist is to predict how the pennant dice will fall, there is something very remiss with the rates of pay.

If he were infallible no newspaper expert would have to expert very long before his experting was commanded by some of the bookmakers who make books on baseball, horse racing and puppy petting.

By application of his foreknowledge, a type stained serf of the press could win himself into a life of Oriental luxury with just a few guldens, kronen or shillings as an investment starter.

I will always recall, as a historic case in expertness, how Ty Cobb took me down to the washroom of the old Brunswick Hotel one September day and pointed to a list, penciled in the woodwork, of teams in the correct order that they stood in the American League race at that moment.

"That guy knew his stuff," Ty marveled. "That list was there when we made our first trip to Boston this year."

"Excuse me, Mr. Cobb," said the white-coated attendant, who overheard. "That list has been there at least three years."

"All the more astounding," said Cobb. "The guy predicted the standing three years before it happened."

Nick Lutze Wants Morelli to Referee

Meets Danno

SAYS HE WILL LICK IRISH GIANT

By Jack Conway

Nick Lutze today demanded that Al Morelli, former wrestler, be named referee for his finish mat bout with Dan O'Mahoney which will be staged by Paul Bowser at the Garden tomorrow night.

"Morelli is a fair official," said Nick. "Like myself, he has a college background and considers good sportsmanship above everything else.

"Al was a star football player at Boston College, and was on his way to fame as a wrestler when he met with an injury. He has recently been refereeing, and has been impartial.

"O'Mahoney has got the breaks from the referee in his Boston bouts.

"He has been permitted to do as he has wished when under fire, while the referee has interfered with his opponents.

"All I ask is a fair official. I am in perfect condition, and will lick O'Mahoney if I get a fair deal."

Paul Bowser says he will hold a conference between the representatives of Lutze and O'Mahoney, and see if they can agree on some referee. Otherwise he will name the third man in the ring.

"I shall see that Lutze and O'Mahoney both get a fair deal," said Bowser. "Nick has wrestled at my shows for five years, while O'Mahoney has yet to break faith with me.

"I am more anxious than either Lutze or O'Mahoney to have a decisive winner with no fluke decision."

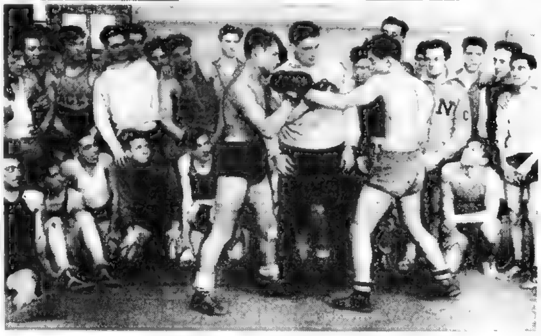

O'Mahoney and Lutze have both tapered off in their training. Dan licked Scotty McDougal in Albany on Tuesday night, and is ready for a torrid session.

WEIGHS 197

Lutze weighs 197 pounds, and is confident he will win and then land a title bout with Ed Don George.

In the semi-final, Gino Garabaldi, husky Italian, hopes to polish off Ernie Dusek, while other bouts will have George Zaharas tangling with Vic Christio, Rudy Dusek with Abe Coleman, Scotty McDougal with John Spellman, John Malmberg with Bud Martin, and Billy Bartush with Rebel Rob Russell.

CLASSES IN HIGH ART OF SELF DEFENSE

ART GRILLO TOM KIRBY NICK CARDINALE

Instructor Kirby shows two of his pupils in the boxing class some fine points of the game at the Paris Street gym, East Boston. Kirby, former noted light heavyweight ringman, has many able boxers preparing for the Boston championships in April. The program is included in the ERA recreation schedule of the Boston Park Department.

DAVE MISHEL RAY ALLANSESE JOHN DE GRANZO

It's all in fun, and it's a lot of fun, as the smiles of mat students, Allansese and De Granzo, show as they listen to Mishel's instructions, at the Paris Street gym. These boys are pointing for the Boston title tourney, run by the Park Department, which will be one of the greatest events of its kind ever staged.

GEHRIG ASKS $35,000

$12,000 Raise

CONFERS WITH YANK HEADS TODAY

By Universal Service

New York, Feb. 14—Lou Gehrig, who figures to be the highest salaried player in baseball this year, will go into a huddle with Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Ed Barrow today or tomorrow to discuss the highly important subject of his 1935 salary.

Lou and Mrs. Gehrig returned from a world tour, and [illegible] to remain in New York until the salary question is adjusted to his satisfaction.

Lou Gehrig

Gehrig drew $23,000 last season, this figure representing a $2,000 cut he took two years ago.

He is said to look for $35,000 during the coming season.

Lou insisted he had not seen the contract which the Yankees sent out several days ago. He said:

"There is a lot of mail for me down at the post office and they will bring it over today. Then I will know just what I have been offered.

"If the raise is as large as I expect, I will sign right away. If it isn't, then I won't sign. But I cannot class myself as a holdout until I see the papers."

Gehrig has been around long enough to know [illegible] a big contract is just after a [illegible] season.

One does not have to show Gehrib the record books to [illegible] to him that.

1—He was the home-run king of the majors with 48.

2—He led both major leagues in hitting with 363.

3—He led both leagues in driving runs across the plate.

4—He had t ehhighest mark of the year in total bases.

With all these accomplishments still fresh in memory after a world tour Gehrib is out to lead both leagues in salary checks.

He is not belligerent about the matter but he intimated when asked about his plans for starting South that this question must wait.

"That will depend on when I sign the contract. I don't figure on going to the training camp until that matter is settled."

Winchester Mystery

Valedictory

200 GOLFERS AT FAREWELL DINNER

By Bill Grimes

Until I attended the Harry Bowler testimonial dinner—a wonderful tribute to an equally wonderful character—I was under the impression that "The Seven Keys to Baldpate" was the ultimate in mystery.

But in severing connections with Bowler, the Winchester Country Club completely outmystified the masterpiece of Earl Der Biggers.

After 22 years of faithful and productive service, Harry Bowler leaves the Winchester Country Club on [illegible]

Harry Bowler

[illegible] 200 golfers attended the farewell dinner and at least [illegible] probably even more [illegible] members.

The guest of honor was presented with a [illegible] and suitably engraved watch, a sterling [illegible]—which incidentally [illegible] from the employees—and [illegible]

Possibly it was because I was seated to leeward of Heine Reeves, but at any rate I thought for a while that Bowler was rejoining instead of departing from Winchester.

WHY, OH WHY?

And, I still cannot figure out why the Winchester Country Club [illegible] Bowler. The only answer I have arrived at is that his [illegible] was by no means unanimous.

[illegible] the most important [illegible] development of the W[illegible] Father and Son and [illegible] four ball tournament.

I predict now that the attendance of these tourneys will fall off, now that Harry has departed.

And, I'll further predict that the members will demand a real showdown as to just why Bowler was [illegible]

Since the announcement was made that Bowler was to leave Winchester, at least three of the better country clubs have been angling for his services.

Within a week, Bowler will sign to manage a club, which is within a radius of five miles of Winchester.

And, the best wishes of the majority of his former club members will go with him.

Skeet and Trap

Hamilton, Bermuda, Feb. 14—Orson Munn, of New York, won a shoot off from Oliver G. Mitchell, Natick Mass., to win first place in the scratch singles of an international skeet and trap shooting [illegible]

Smith Wins With 260

Palm Springs, Calif., Feb. 11—Horton Smith brought the California winter golf season to a close [illegible] won the $2,000 invitation tournament with a 260.

Ky Laffoon was second with 261, Harry Cooper and Fred Mortison were tied for third with 262.

Tech Stroke

Tom Graham of Montana

Tom Graham, husky Montana lad, will stroke the M. I. T. varsity eight during the coming season.

Coach Bill Haines has given the husky oarsman the seat, and it will be his to hold against all comers.

Graham is one of the steadiest men to stroke a shell in many years for the Engineers. He did not row with the eight last season.

However, he rowed with the freshman crew three years ago, and was in the varsity shell that defeated Marietta the following year.

Eddie Burke Back With Eddie Powers

By Bill Grimes

While the Cubs are resting up for tonight's game with the New Haven Eagles at the Arena, the Bruins are packing their grips for third final trip to St. Louis and Chicago, a jump they have already made twice this season . . .

The Patricians have but six more games at the Garden before the play offs, and Les Canadiens, who will stop off at Lawrence Monday night, will be their home opponents . . . Eddie Burke is back playing under the manager with whom he started his professional career, Eddie Powers . . . Burke was sent to Philadelphia by the Americans but in some way he popped up in Syracuse after playing one game for the Arrows . . .

Powers scouted for the Bruins a year ago, and five of the players he recommended and whom the B's placed on the reserve or negotiation list are now playing for Toronto Seniors, who are coached by Frank Selke, publicity director of Maple Leaf Gardens . . . Figure that one out, if you have a trend for mysteries . . . The rookies under Coach Selke are Hodges Oliver, Atchison, O'Brien and Kitchen . . . Oliver, a center ice man, and O'Brien, a left winger, are the most promising . . .

Shortly after the information leaked out that Howie Morenz and Lorne Chabot were on loan and not the property of the Chicago Blackhawks, the final papers were passed on these players. It is also alleged that Major Frederic McLaughlin, owner of the Hawks, cleaned up his indebtedness to Joe Catterinich, of Les Canadiens . . . Incidentally, the Canadian Arena Co., owners of the Montreal Maroons, is especially anxious to get the control of the Les Canadiens away from Catterinich and Leo Dandurand . . . A difference of $25,000 has blocked the deal for weeks.

Until they had been beaten for three by the Bruins, Capt. Happy [illegible] had but 15 goals scored on them this season . . . Tommy Daly, trainer of the Maple Leafs, will take the puck chasers March 9 to join the Toronto baseball club at Tampa . . . Tommy Bell, who is Timmie's assistant, will handle the club.

Jean Lusie has the most enthusiastic array of followers that has ever rooted for any member of the Bruins or Cubs . . . If the Cubs and Detroit Olympics win the championships of their respective leagues they will stage a "Little World Series."

It's about time somebody gave Clem Loughlin, manager of the Chicago Blackhawks, a tumble . . . He has kept a dismantled world championship club up in first place most of the season . . . Rollie Conacher, who was let out by the Crescent-Hamilton Club of New York, has caught on with the Free Staters of Baltimore.

Honey Walker, the Detroit trainer, has invented a hockey glove which completely eliminates any chance of broken thumbs or fingers . . . He also has a helmet on the market . . . Jimmy Herberts, who has been refereeing Down East, has returned to Toronto . . . His league blew up . . . Jimmy states the Moncton Hawks, holders of the Allan cup, can beat any club in the International League.

DOG Champions SHOW

A situation familiar to all followers of the sports world will take place at the Eastern Dog Club at Mechanics building February 21 and 22 when the champion of [illegible] two years ago attempts to regain its laurels, and last year's title winner will strive to retain its crown.

Ch. Benson of Crombie, the spectacular pointer which shattered tradition in 1933 and carried off the best in show award from 1100 dogs, the first time a pointer had captured the coveted place, is being sent back to Boston after a year's lapse by Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge of M[illegible] N. J.

The [illegible] winner of last year, the English setter Gilroy's Chief Topic has been entered to defend its title by W. F. Gilroy of Pittston, Pa. The entry of this pair is sure to enliven the competition, and the numerous other champions from all parts of the country, which are to show here, will make the task of these "best in show" most difficult.

Included among the Eastern show entries are more than 20 dogs which, during the 200 exhibitions of last year, went to best award.

Since the triumph of Ch Benson of Crombie two years ago the pointer has topped no less than six shows throughout the country.

B. U. Track Meet

Boston University holds its annual intramural track meet at the Boston Y. M. C. A. this afternoon.

TECH MERMEN Off for Williams

Technology's swimming team fifteen strong, was to leave this afternoon for Williamstown where it races Williams tomorrow. Saturday the tankmen will swim Rensselaer at Troy.

Tech has a strong team [illegible] for the two duals. Cleon Dodge and his mates have broken three records in dual swims this season.

Dodge cracked the backstroke record, Bernard Vonnegut clipped several seconds off the old breast stroke record, and the [illegible] quartet shaved the mark in the event in its last race against Amherst at the University Club pool.

Osborn

Plays Volleyball Here

Harold M. Osborn, 1924 Olympic record high jumper and decathlon champion, will be in Boston on Saturday.

He is a member of the Germantown, Pa., volleyball team which will play against the Boston Y. M. C. A., newly crowned New England volleyball champions, and the Providence Y. M. C. A., holder of the Massachusetts and Rhode Island Y. M. C. A. title at 3 o'clock in the Boston "Y" gymnasium.

Wthin the past few weeks this same Osborn, now 38, has been jumping 6 feet 6 inches.

Open a charge account

Firestone

• TIRES •
• BATTERIES •
• ACCESSORIES •
• BRAKE SERVICE •

Regular Prices!

NO MONEY DOWN

TERMS
TO SUIT YOUR CONVENIENCE
• Weekly • Monthly

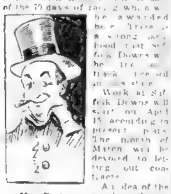

BARRABEE SERVICE STORES INC.
143 BROOKLINE AVE., BOSTON
40 Arsenal St., Watertown

Mr. Boston East Boston to Get 1st License

—By Jack Conway—

SUFFOLK DOWNS the Walter O'Hara-Bayard Tuckerman race track in East Boston, is well out front as far as Massachusetts's racing projects are concerned.

It will be the first license and end up with most of the 70 days of the 70 days of racing which will be awarded here. There is a strong likelihood that Suffolk Downs will be the first track licensed in this state.

Mr. Boston

Work at Suffolk Downs will start on April 15 according to present plans. The month of March will be devoted to letting out contracts.

An idea of the number of contractors who ... by the erection of a race track may be gained from the ... of Narragansett Park ...

It will be necessary to fill in considerable land at a cost of $50,000 before the Suffolk Downs construction can get under way.

* * *

WORK AND WAGES

GOVERNOR CURLEY has ... the backers of Suffolk Downs ... East Boston track ... program of work and wages.

Suffolk Downs ... year permit ... will be only for a year.

This will ... O'Hara and Tuckerman to make a greater investment at this time than they otherwise would care to do.

Mark Lilienthal, architect, will soon return from F... and will make some changes in the plans of Suffolk Downs.

The original grand-stand called for 25,000 seats which was more than the seating capacity of the grand stand at Narragansett Park. It is believed the grand stand finally agreed upon will seat 20,000.

Lilienthal and George Funk were the architects at Narragansett Park and at Epsom Downs, Houston, Tex.

* * *

DATE CLASHES

O'HARA has informed the Massachusetts Racing Commission he is anxious to avoid clashes of dates.

He has control at Narragansett Park as well as at Suffolk Downs and so can map out the dates for these two tracks.

He is also prepared to enter into a working agreement with Lou Smith, owner of Rockingham Park.

Smith was the pioneer in New England racing, and has always been ready to co-operate with other tracks. He has felt that race conflicts would eventually ruin the turf game.

O'Hare will not have any difficulty getting Smith to agree to a sane racing program.

Racing will have a big year in Massachusetts. This is the most fertile field in the country for the sport of kings.

If the owners of the tracks use good judgment and do not try to milk the game, they will be able to reap a harvest of gold.

The public is in a critical mood, and will not tolerate any racing abuses.

The rival tracks should get their own houses in order, and arrange satisfactory meetings as far as dates are concerned before they go to the public seeking patronage.

* * *

DOGS ON SPOT

I FIND that public interest in regard to dog racing has cooled off. Even the promoters are not so keen for this branch of the sport as they formerly were. They have found that it costs money to build a dog track.

I look for four tracks in Massachusetts. One will be in Boston, another in Lawrence, a third in Quincy and a fourth at a spot to be agreed upon within the next week. The licenses for dog tracks will be awarded within two weeks.

This will give the promoters ample time to get ready for their openings. I do not believe dog racing will survive as long as horse racing, but while it does the public will hear many a yelp. Some from the dogs and others from the noble promoters.

* * *

RANDOM SHOTS

TOMMY PARLE tells me Dan O'Mahoney and Nick Lutze will play to a near capacity crowd when they clash at the Garden tomorrow night . . . As a box office attraction, the youthful O'Mahoney is running ahead of Gus Sonnenberg . . . The Irish champion has color, tremendous strength, a right hand sock and considerable wrestling ability . . . It will be interesting to see how O'Mahoney fares against a fast, skillful wrestler like Lutze.

Dave Arata says the Trojans will not play tonight as they are without a home . . . Dave will appear at the Adjutant General's office today and demand that his club be permitted to play basketball at the Irvington street Armory . . . Arata says the Trojans will not return to the Arena under any conditions.

DISTRICTS CONTINUE

THE EIGHT BALL IN THE CORNER POCKET

ANGELO BROVELLI CURTIS FULLERTON

Brighton High Leads With 30 Points

Flat Events

START TODAY WITH FINALS SATURDAY

By Bill Connell

Sparkling competition in the trial events of the Boston District Schools' track meeting, at the East Armory this afternoon, headed the brief list of school sports today.

Field events of last Monday gave Brighton 30 points start, with East Boston second at the 29 ... standing. Other scores: South Boston, 27; ... Jamaica Plain, 22; Hyde Park 21.

... Other events today ... hockey ... basketball.

RED SOX CRITIC CURT FULLERTON

HE WAS WITH 'EM

By Joe Cashman

YEAR AWAY

MEL ALMADA

"I've heard a lot," he relates, "about Hockette lacking a fast ball. Don't believe it.

"His speed doesn't blind you, I admit, but he has a 'hard one' which sinks over the outside corner of the plate that is a pip. He also has a most deceptive delivery.

ONLY A KID

"If he has a weakness, it is his curve ball. It could be better.

"He started off in Kansas City by wining eight or nine games in a row. When the hot weather rolled around he slumped slightly, but he was at his peak again in the fall.

"He has the stuff to be a cool weather winner for the Sox, and, if he manages to put on some weight, he'll be a standout over the entire campaign.

"Almada," continued Curt, "is still a child. He's not old enough to vote yet. He has plenty of natural ability, but still has a lot to learn. He's not ready for the majors now, but another season in the 'bushes' ought to make him a star for the Sox.

"Niemiec is a courageous and conscientious lad. It requires more than that, however, to make good in the majors, and Al has still to convince me he possesses what it takes.

"I'll admit he did better than I expected at Kansas City, but frankly I'll be greatly surprised if he manages to stick with the Sox."

COLLINS BACK

"Three of the six unsigned players I regard as holdouts," admits the Sox foreman, "but I'm going to give them all another week to join the fold before identifying any of them.

"A week from today, however, anybody who hasn't agreed to terms will be named."

... Braves headquarters ... Eddie Cunningham ... that the midget was obliged by a radio contract to remain in Rochester until next Wednesday.

Mat Results

Boston—Ernie Dusek, Nebraska, defeated Rebel Rob Russell, Newport, R. I., two falls out of three.

Revere—Cowboy Hughes, Montana, defeated Carol Cranston, Boston, two falls out of three.

National League

AMERICAN DIVISION

	W	L	T	Pts	Goals For	Goals Agt
BOSTON	18	13	4	40	92	85
Chicago	18	13	4	40	77	65
Rangers	18	12	4	40	106	97
Detroit	11	16	7	29	80	77
CANADIAN DIVISION
Toronto	22	11	4	48	112	85
Montreal	19	13	2	40	91	64
Canadiens	12	15	5	29	68	90
Americans	10	18	8	28	78	101
St. Louis	7	24	6	20	65	101

GAMES TONIGHT

Chicago at Detroit
Toronto at Rangers
Montreal at Canadiens

Can-Am League

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS

Boston 4, Providence 2.
Philadelphia 6, Quebec 3.

	W	L	T	Pts	Goals For	Goals Agt
BOSTON	19	9	6	44	108	82
Providence	14	10	8	36	83	81
Quebec	15	15	4	31	101	81
New Haven	11	16	7	29	81	97
Philadelphia	12	21	3	27	84	116

GAME TONIGHT

New Haven at Boston.

Imagine! A NEW YORK EXCURSION for $3.50 round trip

SUNDAYS FEB. 17, 24

See the sights of Manhattan. Visit friends. Tour Radio City, the wonder spot of this age.

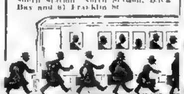

Lv. Back Bay ... A.M.
Due New York* ... A.M.
Lv. New York* 12.30 A.M.
Due Back Bay ... A.M.
Due Boston (So. Sta.) 6.35 A.M.

*Grand Central Terminal

Washington's Birthday EXCURSION

Celebrate the Holiday in New York

Limited number of tickets good only in coaches on trains indicated on sale at R. R. ticket offices, South Station, North Station, Back Bay and 6? Franklin St.

THE NEW HAVEN R.R.

Open Evenings until 9

SAVE AT Western Auto Stores

Satisfaction or Your Money Back

6 Stores in GREATER BOSTON:
130 Brookline Ave.
125 Federal St.
118 Brighton Ave. (Allston Sta.)
Cambridge—688 Massachusetts Ave.
Quincy—1536-38 Hancock St.
Malden—200 Pleasant St.
Lynn—21 Market St.

Wizard SPARK PLUGS 29c Each in Sets — 33c — Guaranteed 10,000 miles

Thick Rubber FLOOR MATS 33c — 1.29

Hacksaw Blades 4c
Fluid for Shock Absorbers 29c — 37c
Electric Soldering Iron 15c
Hydraulic Brake Fluid 24c — 38c

GOOD-PENN Motor Oil — 100% PENNA OIL — LONG-RUN Motor Oil Wax Free — 14c Quart — As Low As 8c Quart — 14c — Gallon 55c — 2 Gallons 1.27 — Also "Long-Run" Wax-Free Oil 8c

Adjustable Open-End WRENCH 28c
Locking Ornamental Radiator Caps 54c
Auto Fuses 5c
Cup Grease Pound Can 11c
Battery Hydrometer 14c
Ignition Coil 81c

TRUETONE Auto Radio
5-Tube "Junior" Style $19.95
6-Tube Truetone "De Luxe" $29.95 — Easy Payments

Ball-Bearing Roller Skates 71c — Other Skates as low as 40c
Radiator Caps 44c

Replacement Parts FOR POPULAR CARS
Genuine "Wizard" Carburetors
Starter-Drive Springs 19c
Locking Door Handles
Silent Timing Chains
Water Pumps and Parts
Superior Quality Cylinder Head Gaskets — Dodge DA 6, Chrysler 6, Plymouth, Whippet, Pontiac, Essex, Chevrolet, Ford

Gas Gauge Outfit 10c
Pliers 9c
Valve Grinder 5c
Generator Cut Outs 20c
Ignition Points 10c
5-Cell Super-Focusing Flashlight 56c
Breather Caps 3c
Key Case 4c
Genuine "Eveready" Flashlight 17c
Flashlight Cells 3c
Fender Guides 54c — 79c
Tuned-Twin Horns $1.65 — $3.30
Cotter Pins 4c
Acid Core Solder 8c
Gas Tank Cap 2c
Tube Patch Outfit 4c
Treated Dust Cloth 10c
Seven-Piece Socket Set 28c
Link 19c
Electric Cigar Lighter 14c

WIZARD Batteries Save You More Than 40% — Sizes for All Cars — Definite Replacement Guarantee — Batteries Installed FREE — WIZARD "De Luxe" 13-Pl. $4.95 — WIZARDS $2.29 — 13-Plate "Standard" $3.95

Top Dressing 9c
Headlamp Bulb 5c
Transmission Linings 23c
Lock Washers 6c
Ignition Wrench Set 7c
Gasket Shellac Compound 6c
2-Ply "Ace" Bicycle Tire 75c
.22 Calibre Cartridges 12c

Our Guarantee of Low Prices
If You Can Buy It For Less Elsewhere, Return It and We Will Refund Your Money

TAP'S TIPS

JUDGE SHILLING—8th AT HIALEAH

Equipoise Ready for Race Classic

By Associated Press

Los Angeles ... Equipoise ... the ... $100,000 ... week ...

Makes Move

The Whitney ... contention ... going ... his move ...

... in fine shape.

Thomas ... was well ... ing. He felt the ... chestnut ...

SCRATCHES

AT HIALEAH PARK

1—Phyllis R, High Treason, Nedvise, Terry On, Hastimond, Playful Tour

2—Drowsy Miss, Maddening, Newell, Mario.

3—Canimar, Broken Up, Aviatrix, Conchita

4—Darkling, True Sentiment

5—Captain Jerry, Up In Arms, Balthasar, Manual, Marcasite, Jeanne S.

Weather clear; track fast

AT FAIR GROUNDS

Raining and muddy

1—Doc Oster, Hour Lady

2—(To be run as 5th race) Southland Pact, Precounts, Speedy Boy.

3—Declared off ... run as substitute ...

4—Princess ...

5—Reverberate

7—(To be run as 2nd race) Shirley May, Lucky Carter, Old Cally, On Trial

8—(To be run as substitute ... race)—Maximum, Cotton Patch, War Dimes, Sister ..., ... Bloom, Carissa

N. U. '38 FOUR Out of U. C. Meet

The Ne... freshm... winds... Club meet ... Garden ... meet ... noon at New Hamp...

Tonight! Stupendous radio drama! Northwest Mounties on the ride in

RED TRAILS

By Stewart Sterling

WBZ and Basic Blue Network—8:30 to 9 (E. S. T.)

NO SAINT IS BEST

Wilson's Choice in Second Race

96 Pounds

GOLDEN LYRE FAVORITE IN FIRST

By Dave Wilson

Best Bet—No Saint

Hialeah Park, Miami, Fla., Feb. 14—Trainer Big Jim Healy appears to have found a "soft spot" for No Saint, the fleet son of High Time, in the six panels of the second number here tomorrow afternoon.

Golden Lyre, Glory, Greenock, Distract

... GLORY, GREENOCK ...

No Saint, Postscript, Quickly

... QUICKLY ...

Dong Bin, Broadsword, Feudal Lord

Civil War, Day Signal, Ridge Mor...

... CIVIL WAR ...

... DAY SIGNAL ...

Currants, Mock Turtle, Philda

Gold Basis, Golden Way, Wise Advocate

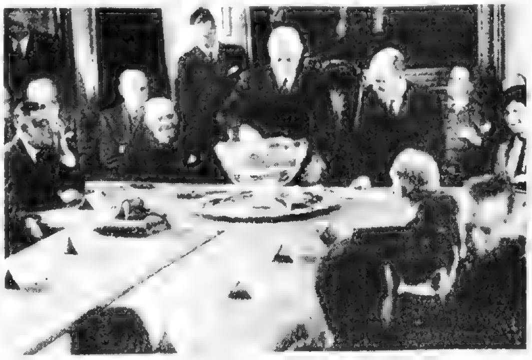

... GOLDEN WAY ... WISE ADVOCATE ...

Idle Flirt, Stand Out, Durga

IDLE FLIRT ... STAND OUT, the probable favorite ... DURGA may share in the spoils.

Out of the Bowl

Comes Davis Cup Draw

B. C. Frosh Relay to Meet Prep Four

Giant Signs

Boxing Coming Back, Says Mike Jacobs

By DAMON RUNYON

Copyright, 1935, by Universal Service

Flemington, N. J., Feb. 14—Mike Jacobs, celebrated Broadway ticket broker, now gathering fame as a boxing promoter, took a peek at our murder trial the other day, and hastily departed, somewhat depressed.

GETTING BETTER

"He is a great fighter and a great show man," said Mr. Jacobs. "He is the best fellow ... a promoter that ever lived.

"The people love to see him and it would not take much of an opponent for him to pack any arena.

"Barney Ross is next to Baer as a drawing card. If Jimmy McLarnin ... after the ... title at ...

"I like the big fellows best, I suppose, and ... most of the ... will be produced this year by little fellows."

HORSES SURE ARE LUCKY

ARLINE JUDGE TOPO KETSINGER

Here's ... 1935 Scandals, presenting Head Play, winner of the $7500 added Santa Anita Handicap, with a floral tribute.

GOOD Will Deal OFF

HITLER

DOESN'T VALUE SCRIBES TOO HIGHLY

By Davis J. Walsh

International News Service Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 14—It now develops that the Herr Hitler is not going to invite 20 American correspondents to come to Germany as his guests for the Schmeling-Hamas prize fight, as of March 10.

Mr. Hitler had the idea ... to him on the basis of ...

Jacobs' Idea

...

Winter Sports

	Snowshoeing	Skiing
Bartlett, N. H.	Good	Good
Brattleboro, Vt.	Good	Fair
Canaan, N. H.	Good	Good
Claremont, N. H.	Good	Good
East Jaffrey, N. H.	Good	Good
Fryeburg, Me.	Good	Good
Gorham, N. H.	Good	Good
Greenfield, Mass.	Good	Good
Hanover, N. H.	Good	Good
Laconia, N. H.	Good	Good
Lancaster, N. H.	Good	Good
Lincoln, N. H. (In the Notch)	Good	Good
Littleton, N. H.	Good	Good
North Conway-Intervale, N. H.	Good	Good
Peterboro, N. H.	Good	Good
Warren-Moosilauke, N. H.	Good	Good
Waterville Valley, N. H.	Good	Good
[illegible], N. H.	Good	Good
[illegible], N. H.	Good	Good

N. U., H. C. Should Furnish Thrills in U. C. Relays

TEAMS AMONG FASTEST IN COLLEGE RANKS

By Walter Kiley

... University Club games ... in one of the features of the Boston Garden carnival on Saturday night.

...

St. John's Prep Outlegs Eaglets

MAINE

Compare Windsor's age with any other straight whiskey in its price class. Then have one drink—and compare Windsor for taste. You'll understand why this low-priced National Distillers' brand has become so tremendously popular!

100 PROOF

WINDSOR STRAIGHT WHISKEY

PENN-MARYLAND CORPORATION

A Division of National Distillers • Executive Offices 120 Broadway, New York City

NO CASH DOWN

TIRES • RADIO • BATTERY

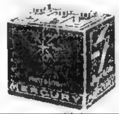

NEW G3 ALL-WEATHER

Guaranteed against road hazards. 43% more non-skid mileage—no extra cost. See it!

GOODYEAR Lifetime Guaranteed SPEEDWAY

51c A WEEK AND UP

12 Weeks to Pay

Quick Starts with Prest-O-Lite Surplus Power "B-E" MERCURY

115 Amps. for 20 Mins. 15% More Plates for Quick Starts $9.40 Less Allowance for Old Battery

Powerful 6-Tube Super-Het AUTO RADIO

Automatic volume control; lighted airplane dial; removable lock and key; dynamic speaker; clear natural tone — Hear Our Demonstrator!

Take up to 6 MONTHS TO PAY NO CASH DOWN $27.95 CASH Installation Extra

GOODYEAR SERVICE

1345 Boylston St., Boston

Near Red Sox Ball Park

Phone COMmonwealth 1165 Jack Wallace, Mgr.

ERNIE DUSEK WINS

Rips Reb Russell to Ribbons

6000 at Bout

MOSKOVITCH WINS 10TH IN ROW

Ernie Dusek got back on the victory path whipping Rebel Bob Russell in the feature of Alex MacLean's wrestling show before over 6000 fans at the Boston Arena who saw every prediction of a knock-down, drag-out battle fulfilled.

There wasn't a dull moment in the match as Russell and Dusek whaled away at each other with kicks, punches, bites, gouges, strangles and every other bit of savagery as they tried to tear one another limb from limb.

Dusex won the first fall in 23:07 with a body press and the third fall in 7:45 with the same implement. Russell took the second, flattening the Omaha wild man with an "Irish whip." The time was 11:45.

Russell was always within striking distance of victory but in the third fall he was thrown out of the ring and injured his side. It was comparatively easy for the Omaha boogey man after that.

He floored Rebel Bob with punches and then pinned him while Russell was trying to shake the fog away.

Wallace Moskovitch won his 10th straight bout, beating Jim Garms in the semi-final in 11:07 with a toe-hold. The giant Russian ran his victory string to eight as the Red Demon.

TURK "ROBBED"

In special bouts Farmer George McLeod gave a sparkling exhibition of clever wrestling as he toppled Andy Brown in 13:29 with a flying head scissors while the Mysterious Ghost came back from near defeat to conquer Jack Ross in 18:38 with a head scissors.

The Praying Turk, who prayed to Allah from the middle of the ring before his bout with Art LeGrand for assistance, failed to get any response for referee Al Pierotti was forced to disqualify him in 8:33 for being too cannibalistic.

The Praying Turk—Bey Souleyman—left the ring in a rage, claiming he had been "robbed."

In other bouts George Linnehan drew with Tom Georgett in 10 minutes; George Saunders defeated Farmer Raymond, 6:48; and Frank Sexton and Leo Hyatt drew in 15 minutes.

STENGEL Signs 3-Year CONTRACT

By Associated Press

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 14 — The Brooklyn Dodgers of the National Baseball League today signed Casey Stengel to a new three-year managerial contract running through 1937 after cancelling a previous agreement which still had a year to run.

It was said the new contract called for a "substantial increase" in his salary.

Brooklyn, under Stengel, finished only sixth in the National League race last year, but it was their playing which decided the pennant, as they defeated the New York Giants in the last two games of the season, 5-1 and 8-5.

Stengel's previous agreement, signed last spring for a two-year term, was said to call for $10,000 a year. No intimation was given as to the terms of the new three-year contract beyond the fact that it was an increase.

The new contract was offered voluntarily by the Dodgers, President Stephen W. McKeever said, and was in recognition of Stengel's work last year and in the belief that Casey could build the club into a winner within three years.

Stengel, then a coach, was called in as successor to Max Carey, who had managed the Dodgers for two years and whose contract still had a year to run when he was summarily removed.

Fox Winner Of Skating Race

Joe Fox, state champion, won the Olympic Skating club two-mile race at the mid-week ice carnival on the Charles River lagoon.

Joe Lewis set the pace for five laps but took a spill on the turn. Fox jumped into the lead and was never headed.

THUNDERING TO RECORDS IN SWIRL OF SNOW

(Picture from International News Photograph Service)

Down the steep Mount Van Hoevenberg slide they come, in a storm of dust, to set a track record of 1:44:43 for the mile and a half distance. Here is the four-man championship bob-sled team at the finish of their run. Donna Fox of New York is the driver. The other members of the team are Max Bly, Dick Lawrence and Jim Bickford.

Fritz Pollard, Jr., May Enter B.U.

By Bob Ahearn

Sport items picked at random:

Jean Pusie and the colorful Bruin Cubs cross sticks with New Haven Eagles at Arena tonight. Another kids' night scheduled with youngsters under 17, accompanied by adults, admitted free . . . Edward Batchelder to assist Judge Kenneth Nash in coaching Tufts baseball nine this spring . . .

Nick Lutze

Red Sox have six unsigned players, Eddie Collins announces . . . Boston University basketball quintet host to Worcester Tech tonight at St. Botolph street court . . . Dan O'Mahoney and Nick Lutze end preparations for wrestling match at Garden tomorrow night . . . Northeastern's baseball list announced. Fourteen games including a series with Boston College . . .

Charles "Chuck" Hornbostel, track ace, is now a bona fide student at the Harvard Business School. Something predicted in this corner over two weeks ago . . . District meet trials of schoolboy tracksters at East Armory this afternoon . . . Harold M. Osborn, 1924 Olympic world's record high jumper and decathlon champion, will be in town Feb. 16 to take part in Germantown, Pa., and Boston Y. M. C. A. volleyball match . . .

New bill for Amateur boxing at South Boston Irish American A. A. tonight. Plenty of entries assures a banner crowd . . . Joe Cronin leaves Los Angeles today for Red Sox training site at Sarasota. Betterymen report Feb. 28 . . .

Fritz Pollard, Jr., may enter B. U. Considered a better athlete than famous dad. One of the largest crowds in years expected for Eastern Dog Club show. Braves' fund raising committee meets tomorrow night at Copley Plaza.

N. U. Enters 23 in U. C. Meet

Twenty-three men will be entered by Northeastern U. in the University Club games, Saturday night at the Arena.

The Husky trackmen will be led by the veteran mile relay quartet which will race against Holy Cross. Each foursome has won the time title for the distance at a national meet, and tied in the B. A. A. games.

Everett Eldredge, anchor, will also enter the dash; Allen Hakanson, leadoff man, will compete in the hurdles. The other two relayers are Dick Ellis and Frank Tuscher.

Ches Garland, Leon Sudrabin, Walt Dickson, Karl Johnson will run the 880; Art Johnson, Al Lengel, and Will Perry, the mile; Ray Henderson, the hurdle event. In the high jump the Huskies have Jim Sandler, Al Komich, and Ed Pray; Ray Henderson in the broad jump; Captain Roger Hadley, Herb Becherman, and Henry Canney in the weights.

CUBS Face EAGLES

MILT HALLIDAY RETURNS

By Bill Grimes

After hanging another defeat on the Rhode Island Reds in Providence, the Bruins Cubs are back home for a set-to with the New Haven Eagles tonight at the Boston Arena.

The Cubs are so far out in front in the Canadian-American League that only a train wreck can stop them.

They have been slowly forging ahead until now they are four games up on the Reds.

Jack Shill, who is on trial from Toronto, is with the Cubs from the Bruins for tonight's clash. But his stay with the Cubs will be short-lived. He will be returned to the Bruins on Saturday when the Patrick warriors play the Eagles in St. Louis.

To take his place, the Cubs have recalled Milt Halliday from Cleveland of the International League. Halliday will report to the team in time for the game against Providence on Saturday night. Halliday has been on loan to Cleveland this season.

The Lineups

CUBS		EAGLES
W. Jackson	lw .... rw	Holmes
Carrigan	c c	L. Jackson
Giroux	rw .... lw	Roubell
Pusie	ld .... rd	Molyneaux
Portland	rd .... ld	Reid
P. Jackson	g .... g	Moore

Shill will work on the second line with Alex Motter and Phil Bessler, and his acquisition will strengthen the club, for he is capable of playing better hockey than he has shown with the Bruins.

The Eagles are in danger of relinquishing their hold on fourth place, for the Philadelphia Arrows, by virtue of their victory over the Quebec Beavers, are right on their heels.

Although they are seven and a half games back of the Cubs, the Eagles have been very troublesome for the Jayvees this season. In their last two starts against the Cubs the Eagles have a victory and a tie to their credit.

School Results

BASKETBALL

Attleboro 33, Franklin 19.
Beverly 18, Lynn Clasical 15.
Durfee 33, Holy Family 20.
Essex Aggies 60, Hamilton 35.
Everett 22, Somerville 21.
Fitchburg Normal 50, Deerfield Acad. 30.
Holliston 30, Framingham 21.
Lawrence 30, Peabody 23.
Lowell 28, Nashua 8.
Melrose 28, Stoneham 18.
Milton Academy 24, Milton High 17.
Millis 40, Hopkinton 7.
New Hampshire 37, Holderness 19.
Reading 29, Lexington 23.
St. Bernard's 38, St. Peter's 27.
St. George's 38, Thibodeau 26.
Tabor 31, Portsmouth Priory 27.
Worcester Academy 29, Cushing 21.

HOCKEY

Franklin High 3, Medfield 1.
Newton High 36, Wellesley High 1.
New Hampton 6, Clark 2.
Taft 4, Loomis 1.

SWIMMING

Brookline Girls 39, Somerville Girls 15.

Big Green Wins

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 14—Dartmouth's Indians raided the Cornell camp for a 29 to 20 victory in an Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League game played here.

Swell Guy, This Ben—

Sponsor of Girls' Track and Swimming; Champ Diver Not Long Back

By Walter Kiley

Ben Levias . . . Moving spirit behind conduct of New England's track and swimming competition for women . . . Born in the heart of Boston, May 24, 1895 . . . One of four children . . . A product of city gymnasiums, Cabot street and Brookline Swimming Club in particular . . . A great competitor in the swims and diving in the pre-war period . . .

Took firsts in all the New England open diving events . . . Finished fourth in the 1917 national long distance swim at Philadelphia . . . Served 26 months as helmsman with a seaman's rating on the transport George Washington . . . Making 15 trips across, on two of which President Woodrow Wilson was a passenger . . .

Has several life savings to his credit, once dashing in fully clothed to effect a rescue at Sharon . . .

In 1921 became a member of the first Red Cross life saving corps of this district . . . which later was the nucleus of the Boston Swimming Association of which he is vice-president . . . and a member of its three committees, on women's track and swimming and men's swimming . . . An organization boasting more than 200 youthful athletes . . . With a personnel not one of whom receives financial remuneration . . .

BEN LEVIAS

Chairman of the New England swim committee, women's athletic committee, member of national swim committee, American track and field committee for women, athletic officer of the Roxbury Post, A. L., and the organizer of the Olympic Skating Club in 1930, which presents annual speed skating and ice carnivals . . . One of the busiest men in Boston, a friend to all newspaper men and an employe of one of Boston's biggest banks.

Was once of the opinion that competitive athletics was harmful to women . . . Now one of its biggest boosters . . . His efforts in both boys' and girls' swimming have instilled new life into the competition of such New England centers as Whitinsville, Worcester, Gardner, Pittsfield and Maine.

Included among the outstanding women products from the Levias regime are such as Katherine Mearls, Olive Hasenfus and Mildred Wiley, who tied for second in the 1928 Olmpic high jump . . . Is still single and lives with sister in Roxbury.

Trojans' Game Postponed

The Boston Trojans-Philadelphia Hebrews' professional basketball game, scheduled this evening at the South Armory, Irvington street, has been postponed.

Inability of the Trojan management to secure a court for the clash caused the postponement.

Use of the South Armory has been denied the Trojans.

Tech Defeats Clark

Two rugged games face the M. I. T. basketball team, which scored its first victory of the season last night at the Tech hangar over Clark, 39 to 30.

Tomorrow the Beaver quintet plays Union at Union and on Saturday Johnny Demo and his Cardinal and Gray hoopsters meet New York State on the latter's court.

Dick Smith, the six foot center on the Tech hoop team, was a sensation in the Clark game.

Inexperienced and unskilled in center play, the lad plodded steadily ahead and gradually has developed into a star.

B. C. '38 FIVE

Boston College freshmen basketball stars have formed an independent team, known as "The Boston College Eaglets."

Garfield Bouts Tomorrow Night

Amateur boxing will again lure North Shore fight fans to the Walkathon Arena, Revere Beach boulevard, tomorrow night, when the Garfield Athletic Association sponsors its second show of the season.

The offering features the following classes: 118 pounds, 126 pounds, 147 pounds, 160 pounds novice class, and heavyweight.

FISHER On New BANKING Bill

By HUGH E. BRADSHAW

The new banking bill, in the opinion of Irving Fisher, comes nearer to making the President an economic dictator than all previous legislation put together.

The Yale professor follows up this statement by saying that the ability to change the purchasing power of the dollar gives such far-reaching control over the destiny of a modern nation as no despot in history was able to wield. As Irving Fisher views the subject, it is necessary that a standard for controlling the volume of credit must be set up. To his way of thinking, an index number of commodity prices is the best credit control.

Irving Fisher

* * *

When such a liberal and progressive economist as Professor Fisher is moved to view with alarm the discretionary powers for credit control embodied in the proposed bill, it is time for all to be careful. Money matters to the man-in-the-street are too complex to consider. When it is realized that it is the purchasing power of his money that is concerned a more serious attitude will be taken. All too often the members of Congress passing on monetary reforms are just as much in the dark. It is our guess that if the bill passes as proposed one will be justified in jumping to inflationary conclusions.

* * *

Notebook: It is not a question that President Roosevelt will administer the banking and credit situation badly if the bill passes . . . It is a question of how much faith can be reposed in all future Presidents . . . It is too great a gamble . . . We may over-stress the point, but the banking changes being sought appear to us to be more important than the gold clause case . . . Just remember money is mostly represented by credit . . . How much of this there is to be is of vital importance . . . The more units the less valuable they are.

* * *

As we stated on Monday, the stock list is reaching for a rally base. Prices are literally beginning to bounce. Volume drys up on declines. While the weakest shares of a week ago give indications of being thoroughly sold out. The stage is set for a technical rally. In importance and extent it will be dependent on the way the gold clause decision goes. Favorable news could force the industrials back to their best levels of January. The rails could at least approximate the tops of the same period.

* * *

Briefs: The oils seem ready to put on their usual spring display . . . Granted moderately favorable general market conditions, some fairly decent turns could be made in the group . . . Steel and motor share sluggishness is a real damper on bull enthusiasm . . . These are the good cheer industrial sections and a lot was expected of them marketwise . . . More than either has shown to date . . . At the same time both seemed fairly vulnerable to selling . . . Metals hold their own . . . And the packers look fine . . . We hear the latter had a wonderful January.

GRAINS

Chicago, Feb. 14 (AP)—Wheat closed easy, ⅛-½ cent under yesterday's finish, May 96⅝-¾, corn ⅛ off to ½ up, May 85½-⅝, oats at ⅛-¾ decline, and provisions varying from 10 cents setback to a rise of 5 cents.

Bank Statement

Boston balance	$19,000,000
Boston clearance	$31,000,000

Dow-Jones

Time	Industrials		Railroads
11:00	102.78	.09	32.62	.01
12:00	102.80	.11	32.61	.02
1:00	102.86	.17	32.54	.07
2:00	102.84	.15	32.53	.08

Change figured from previous closing average.

Stock Market Timetable

10-11—Prices were somewhat irregular in the first hour. Utilities were lower. Rails and miners were steady. Metals were generally mixed. Homestake featured with a gain of 18. Sales were 110,000 shares.

11-12—Fractional improvement in the rails featured second hour dealings. Trading was very dull. Transactions approximated 180,000 shares.

12-1—Stocks turned mixed in the third hour. American Can was a feature and was up 3 points. Tobaccos were higher. U. S. Tobacco rose more than 3 and Bayuk Cigar gained 2. Sales approximated 240,000 shares.

1-2—Shares mulled about indecisively in the fourth hour. Minor fluctuations ruled. Tone was steady. Sales were 300,000 shares.

2-3—List drifted in a narrow range during the final hour. Trading was quiet. Late tone was steady. Sales were estimated at 380,000 shares.

NEW YORK CLOSE NET CHANGES

FINAL SALES PRINTED ON TAPE AT 3:05

High	Low	Stock	Sales in 100s	High	Low	Close	Net Chg.
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
4¾	1⅛	Zenith Radio	1	2	2	2	+ ⅛
7⅜	3⅝	Zonite	5	4⅛	4	4⅛	+ ⅛
2	1	Call Money		1	1	1

(a) Optional stock or cash. (b) Partly extra. (c) Extra stock and cash. (d) Extra in stock. (e) Paid in 1933. (f) On account of accumulations. (g) No regular rate; latest payment. (h) Payable in stock. (m) Special. (n) Paid in 1934. (r) Paid this year. (ww) With warrants. (xw) Without warrants. (*) Ex-dividend. (†) 1934-35 high; low since July 1, 1933. (x) Indicates ten shares trading unit.

Bangor Hydro-Electric Co.

Bangor Hydro-Electric Co. reports for 1934 calendar year net profit after all charges of $571,971. After preferred dividends of $305,794, the balance of $266,177 is equal to $1.22 a share on the 217,020 shares of common stock. This compares with net in 1933 of 641,914, equal after preferred dividends of $305,787, to $1.54 a share on the same number of common shares.

The company's balance sheet, dated December 31, 1934, shows current assets of $988,653, including $213,096 cash and $82,537 U. S. Government bonds. Current liabilities were $240,231, leaving excess current assets of $758,422, compared with $998,779 on December 31, 1933.

Company declared regular quarterly dividends of $1.75 a share on 7 per cent preferred and $1.50 on 6 per cent preferred, both payable April 1 to stock of record March 11.

Prudential Co.

Production of new business by the Prudential Insurance Co. of America in 1934 exceeded $2,000,000,000, more than 10 per cent above the production attained in 1933, Edward D. Duffield, president, reports. Insurance in force was more than $15,000,000,000, covering 22,000,000 policy holders. The company's assets increased $130,000,000 to $2,965,245.00 in 1934.

Clark Equipment

Clark Equipment Co. declared a dividend of 20 cents on the common, payable March 15 to stock of record February 28. Like amount was paid in four preceding quarters.

Inter. Mining Corp.

International Mining Corp. declared a dividend of 15 cents, payable March 20, to stock of record March 1. A similar amount was paid December 20 last.

Wheeling & Lake Erie

Wheeling & Lake Erie Railway reports for year ended December 31, 1934, surplus of $1,197,549 after taxes and charges, equal to $10.08 a share on the 118,826 shares of 7 per cent prior lieu preferred, on which there is an accumulation of unpaid dividends, against $1,065,050, or $8.96 a share, on the 7 per cent preferred, in 1933.

Allowing for only annual dividend requirements on the 7 per cent preferred stock, 1934 balance is equal to $3.58 a share on the 102,139 shares of 6 per cent preferred stock, against $2.28 a share on 6 per cent preferred stock in previous year.

December surplus was $298,740 against a deficit of $1173 in December, 1933.

Atlantic Refining

Atlantic Refining Co. declared regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents on the common stock, payable March 15 to stock of record February 21.

Central Vermont Corp.

Central Vermont Public Service Corporation declared regularly quarterly dividend of $1.50 per share on preferred stock, $6 dividend series, payable February 15 to stock of record January 31.

Niagara Share

Report of Niagara Share Corp. of Maryland and subsidiaries for year ended December 31, 1934, certified by independent auditors, states that net assets at market or estimated fair value were equivalent at the close of the year to $2,291.41 for each $1,000 debenture, $504.43 for each share of Class A preferred stock and $9.43 for each share of Class B common stock on December 31, 1933.

SHARES Steady Near CLOSE

RAIL GROUP IS HEAVY

New York, Feb. 14—The stock market remained in its rut again today as speculative enthusiasm continued at low ebb as a result of the current gold case uncertainty.

Railroad shares were inactive and heavy during the late trading with most issues, including N. Y. Central, Atchison, Union Pacific and others losing early gains.

Columbia Gas and Public Service receded to new lows. Consolidated Gas, American Water Works and North American were slightly easier.

Steel shares marked time.

Oils, as a group, were quiet and firm pending tomorrow's meeting of the oil state governors.

Motor shares including Chrysler and General Motors held in a narrow range around their previous levels. General Electric was a firm spot, but tobaccos were inclined to work lower.

Sidelines

While speculative sentiment seemed to be a little more bullish than otherwise, brokers reported that most of their customers were in no hurry to desert the sidelines pending the Supreme Court's pronouncement on the gold controversy.

Market technicians pointed out that the recent small trading volumes might indicate a large amount of equities business is accumulating under present price levels and that any real stimulus would be reflected in a sharp expansion in dealings. At the same time the cautious attitude in the financial sector showed few signs of relaxing.

A more hopeful view of the labor situation was taken by some observers following the publication by the American Federation of Labor of its regular survey of business in which it was stated that strikes this spring would jeopardize recovery.

A gain in cotton consumption in January, as reported by the census bureau, was seen as further proof of economic improvement. Consumption for the month was estimated at 546,787 bales of lint compared with 413,535 bales in December.

GRAINS

Chicago, Feb. 14 (INS)—Grain futures were steady to a shade easier at the start today in dull trading. Wheat was ⅛c up to ¼c off, corn unchanged to ⅜c down and oats unchanged.

Wheat: May, 96¼-⅜; July, 89⅞-90; September, 88⅞.

Corn: May, 84⅞-85⅛; July, 79½-⅝; September, 76⅛.

Oats: May, 51¼; July, 44.

Exchanges

New York, Feb. 14 (AP)—Foreign exchange steady; Great Britain in dollars, others in cents.

Great Britain demand, 4.88⅛; cables, 4.88⅛; 60-day bills, 4.87¼; France demand, 6.59⅝; cables, 6.59⅝; Italy demand, 8.49½; cables, 8.49½.

Wool Tops

New York, Feb. 14 (AP)—Wool top futures closed steady, unchanged to 2 lower.

	High	Low	Last
July	73.5	73.5	73.0b
Aug.	73.9	73.9	73.0b

b—Bid.

Boston Banks

	Annual Div.	Bid	Asked	Prev. Bid
Bos Sfe Dp&Tr*	$116	280	....	280
First National	2	31	32½	31
Merchants	16	335	350	335
Nat. Rockland	2	47	50	48
Nat. Shawmut	1	18½	20	18¾
New Eng. Trust*	†30	400	....	400
Sec. National	4	101½	103½	101½
State St Trust*	8	180	190	180
U. S. Trust*	‡.50	7	8½	7
Webster & Atlas	‡.50	27	30	28

†Including extra. ‡Paid in 1934. *Stock to be sold must first be offered to directors of bank. ‡Paid this year.

Boston Market

	High	Low	Close	Chg.
Am&Cont Corp	8⅞	8⅞	8⅞	+ ¼
Am Penu 1 pf	5½	5	5	— ½
Am Tel	103¼	102⅞	103¼	..
Bos & Albany	112¾	112¼	112¾	— ¼
Bos Elev	63	63	63	..
Brdgpt Brass	7⅞	7	7	..
Brown & Co pf	7	7	7	— ½
Chic June pf	113½	113½	113½	— ½
Cop Range	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	— ⅛
E G & F A pf	46	46	46	+1
E G & F p pr	62	62	62	..
Economy	18	18	18	—1
Edison	104	100¼	102½	—2½
Employers Gp	12	12	12	..
Hygrade Sylv.	31	31	31	..
Maine Cent pf	16¼	16¼	16¼	— ¾
Mergenthaler	29⅞	29⅞	29⅞	—1⅛
N E Tel	90¾	90¼	90¾	— ⅛
New River pr	59	59	59	—3½
New Haven	6⅞	6⅛	6⅞	+ ⅛
North Butte	25c	25c	25c	—1c
Pond C Poc	25	24½	24½	—1
Quincy	1	86c	1	..
Shawmut	8½	8½	8½	..
Sullivan Ma	12	12	12	..
Swift & Co	18¼	18¼	18¼	+ ⅛
Un Gas Co	1¼	1¼	1¼	..
United Fruit	73⅞	73⅝	73⅞	— ⅛
United Shoe	74½	73¾	74	..
United Shoe pf	37	36¾	36¾	— ¼
Utah Metal	2¼	2¼	2¼	..
Vt & Mass	125	125	125	..
Warren Bro	4⅝	4⅛	4⅝	..
BONDS
Amoskeag 6's	68¼	68¼	68¼	— ¾
E Mass C 5s	68	68	68	+4⅞

*Ex-dividend.

Business Activity

GOLD MOVE SUSPENSE PARALYZING TRADE

By B. C. FORBES

The greatest market-places in America are suffering a paralysis of inactivity; they are waiting for the Supreme Court's gold decision.

Not only so, but the suspense is holding up the carrying out of various important deals, including new financing.

The Supreme Court rarely acts in a hurry. But there is no reason why the judges should not take cognizance of existing conditions and put this momentous case first on their calendar. No other question before them is one-tenth as important; no other litigation is having one-hundredth as much restraining influence upon the normal functioning of the country.

B. C. Forbes

* * *

After all, the members of the Supreme Court should be just as much concerned as any other citizens in carrying on their work as helpfully as possible.

When a job of incalculable importance is put up to them, why should they dawdle needlessly?

Each day they delay in doing the job now confronting them is hurtful rather than helpful.

Therefore, it is to be hoped they will concentrate upon this case until they have reached a decision. Then their decision should be promptly announced.

* * *

When juries cannot reach a unanimous verdict, it is customary for judges to send them back to deliberate further. But it is hardly likely that any Supreme Court judge, once having definitely made up his mind, would be won over by protracted wrangling.

Wherever men gather today, the talk is of what the Supreme Court is likely to do. The very widespread feeling is that no unanimous ruling will be reached.

Among my contacts, the preponderating forecast is that the government will be upheld.

In financial circles the prediction is that, should the government be upheld, fireworks will immediately be witnessed in the security markets and that constructive developments in many directions will be announced.

Should the government be overruled, a sharp, but short spasm of unsettlement is anticipated.

* * *

All over the country utility executives are holding daily sessions with lawyers. They are extremely worried over the administration's legislative plans.

Utility men declare that, not only are holding companies marked for annihilation under the bill now before Congress, but that operating companies also will be jeopardized.

I understand that a movement is under consideration among utility leaders to organize an open fight against the administration's proposals. The utilities' side of the question will not only be presented outspokenly at Washington, but ways and means are being considered to arouse the public to the gravity of the issues involved.

* * *

According to utility officials, if their industry be emasculated as threatened, the next logical step would be to subject other industries to similar treatment.

Whereas responsible men of affairs long hesitated to open their mouths no matter what Washington did, the conclusion is being reached that the time has come to speak up.

Interesting developments are promised.

* * *

A Hoosier heading a very large eastern enterprise has returned from spending some time on his farm and mingling with rank and file Indiana folk. While those who have received fat checks from the government for not producing things—for doing less work—are chuckling, more than one farmer remarked:

"We have never been able to figure out how to keep on spending more than we earn. We don't know how Washington can do it either. Maybe the smart folks at Washington have learned a new secret. But we doubt it."

So do many of the rest of us.

* * *

Wherever I go, I find that thoughtful citizens are acutely concerned over the rate of Washington's expenditures, over the rate at which Washington is plunging deeper and deeper into debt, over how taxpayers are going to be able to foot the bill.

Washingtonians, however, apparently refuse to look ahead, to think things through.

(Copyright, 1935, by B. C. Forbes.)

Net Profit

UNION TWIST DRILL CO.

Union Twist Drill Company reports for the 1934 calendar year net profit after all charges, including taxes, of $161,973.

After deducting dividends on the $7 preferred stock of $50,502 (7170 shares outstanding at end of the year) the balance of $111,471 is equal to 58 cents a share on the 191,735 shares of $5 par common stock outstanding.

For the 1933 year the company reported a loss of $71,266.

Company declared a quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share on common stock, same as three months ago, and regular quarterly of $1.75 a share on preferred, both payable March 28 to stock of record March 20.

Earnings

HYGRADE SYLVANIA INCOME UP

Hygrade Sylvania Corporation, manufacturer of lamps and radio tubes, reports for the year ended Dec. 31, 1934, net profit of $874,416 after all charges, equal to $3.81 a share on 192,684 common shares after preferred dividends.

This compares with net in 1933 of $655,072, or $2.67 a common share after preferred dividends.

Balance sheet as of Dec. 31, 1934, shows current assets of $4,221,876, including cash of $625,321 and $1,208,506 United States government obligations; current liabilities, $536,318; and working capital, $3,685,558.

This compares with current assets Dec. 31, 1933, of $3694,625, including $519,336 cash and $879,939 United States government obligations; current liabilities, $575,198; and working capital, $3,119,427.

Crude Rubber

New York, Feb. 14 (AP)—Crude rubber futures were steady, 13 to 16 higher. March, 13.17-19; May, 13.31-34; July, 13.48-49; September, 13.63.

COTTON

New York, Feb. 14 (INS)—The cotton market moved about 25 cents a bale higher today after a quiet opening around the previous close, a slight influx of buying proving sufficient to shake the list out of its lethargic state, momentarily at least.

At midday futures were 2 to 4 points higher, with March up 3 at 12.35, May up 4 at 12.43, July up 2 at 12.44, October up 2 at 12.34, and December up 3 at 12.41.

Mohawk Carpet

Mohawk Carpet Mills, Inc., for year ended December 31, 1934, reports net loss of $73,568 after depreciation, interest, taxes, etc., against net profit of $348,371 in 1933.

New York Curb

	High	Low	Last		High	Low	Last
Ala Pow $7 pf (7)	50½	50½	50½	Imp Oil Can	16⅜	16⅜	16⅜
Allied Mills	14¾	14½	14½	Ind Pipe Line	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
Alum Co pf (1½)	70¾	70¾	70¾	Indus Fin pf	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
Am Cit P&LA (3h)	33	33	33	Int Hyde-El pf	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
Amy Cyan B (.10g)	16⅜	16⅛	16⅜	Int Mining	14½	14½	14½
Am Founders	7-16	7-16	7-16	Inter Util B	⅝	⅝	⅝
Am Gas & El (1.20b)	19⅞	19⅛	19⅛	Inters Hos	27	27	27
Am G&E pf (6)	87	86¾	87	Irving Air Ch	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛
Am Maracaibo	9-16	9-16	9-16	Lake Shore M	51½	51½	51½
Am Sup Power	1	1	1	Lehigh C&N	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜
Ark Nat Gas	⅞	⅞	⅞	Lerner Strs	45	44½	45
Ark Nat Gas A	¾	¾	¾	Lim McN & L	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
Atl Cst Fish	8½	8⅛	8½	Louis L & E	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
Atlas Corp	8¼	8⅛	8⅛	McWill Dredg	30	30	30
Atlas Corp war	2⅜	2⅛	2⅜	Mid West Util	⅛	⅛	⅛
Atlas Ply (½e)	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝	Molybdenum vtc	9⅛	9	9
Bickfords (.70b)	9	9	9	Nat Bellas Hess	1	1⅛	1⅛
Blue Rid cv pf (3h)	39¼	39¼	39¼	Nat Daisy pf	104	104	104
Blumenthal (S)	3¼	3¼	3¼	Nat Inves war	⅝	⅝	⅝
Bridgpt Mach	4½	4½	4½	Nat P&L pf	54	54	54
Br Am Tb B (.948e)	28⅞	28⅞	28⅞	Nat Sug Ref	33	33	33
Brown F Dist	9	9	9	New Bradford	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Buf N&EP pf (1.60)	17	17	17	N J Zinc	52½	52½	52½
Bunk Hill & S	33⅞	33⅞	33⅞	Newmount Min	36⅛	36⅛	36⅛
Butler Bros	7	7	7	Niag Hud Pow	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Can Marc Wire	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞	Nipissing Mines	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Carnation (1)	17½	17½	17½	Nor St P A	9⅛	9⅛	9⅛
aCro P & L $7 pf	60	60	60	Ohio Oil pf	91	90⅛	91
Carrier Corp	17⅞	17⅜	17⅞	Pac Lighting pf	74⅞	74	74
Catalin Am	6⅛	6	6	Park Rust-Pr	61	61	61
Celanese 1st pf (7)	105⅝	105¼	105⅛	Pennroad	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
Celluloid 1 pf	78	78	78	Pioneer Gold	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛
Chesebro (10b)	148½	148½	148½	Pond Crk Poch	25⅛	25⅛	25⅛
Chi Riv & Mach (½e)	14⅞	14¾	14¾	Potrero Sugar	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
Childs pf	23	23	23	Pug Sd P 5 pf	14½	14½	14½
Cities Service	1⅛	1	1⅛	Pug Sd P 6 pf	9	9	9
Cit Serv pf	9	9	9	Quaker Oats pf	133	132½	132½
Colts Pat F (1½b)	28¼	28	28	Salt Cr Prod	5	5	5
Colum G & E pf (5)	53	53	53	Scovill Mfg	22	22	22
Comwlth Edis (4)	54⅞	54⅝	54⅞	Sec Corp Gen	1	1	1
Compo Sh M (½)	16⅝	16⅝	16⅝	Selected Indus	2	2	2
Cons Cop Min	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	Smith A O	41¼	41¼	41¼
Cons G & E Bal (3.60)	58⅝	58⅝	58⅝	So Am G & Pl	4⅛	4	4
Cons Ret Strs	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	So Penn Oil	23	23	23
Cust Mex	2⅛	2	2	Std Oil Ky	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
Davenp Hos (2)	14⅞	14¼	14¼	Stutz Mot Am	3⅛	3	3
Dist Co Ltd (.747e)	22¼	22¼	22¼	Sunray Oil	1	1	1
Dist Corp Seagr	17⅛	16⅞	17	Sunshine Mng	12⅛	11⅞	12⅛
Duval Tex	9⅛	9⅛	9⅛	Swan Finch Oil	3	3	3
Eagle Pich Lead	4½	4½	4½	Swift & Co	18⅛	18	18
East Sta Pow B pf	6½	6½	6½	Swift Int	34⅛	34	34⅛
El Bond & Sh	6	5⅞	5⅞	Swiss-Am El pf	55⅛	55⅛	55⅛
El Bond & Sh pf (6)	50⅛	50	50½	Swiss Oil Corp	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Elect Sh pf N	43½	43	43	Technicolor	13⅝	13⅝	13⅝
Equity Corp	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	Teck-Hugh G	4	4	4
Falcon Lead	1-16	1-16	1-16	Todd Ship	27	27	27
Fanny Far (.31¼b)	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	Unit Corp war	9-16	9-16	9-16
Ferro Enam (.45)	10⅞	10⅞	10⅞	United Gas	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Ford M Can A (1⅛e)	31	31	31	Unit Gas pf	41½	41½	41½
Glen Alden	21	21	21	Un Lt & P cv pf	5	5	5
Gt Nor Pap	23	23	23	Un Molasses Ltd (.066g)	5	5	5
Greyhound	27	26⅞	27	U S Elec Pow	⅛	⅛	⅛
Hecla Min	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	Univ Cons Oil	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
Hir Walker	30⅞	30⅞	30⅞	Utah P&Lpf (1.16⅔k)	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
Hir Walker pf	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛	Ut P&L pf	6	6	6
Holling Gold	17⅞	17⅜	17⅜	West Va C&C	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Humble Oil	48⅞	48⅛	48⅛	West Cartrid pf (6)	98⅛	98⅛	98⅛
Hygrade Slyv	31	30⅞	31	Wright Harg (.45b)	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜

ANNOUNCEMENTS

3 Bids and Proposals

PROPOSAL
THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL DISEASES
National Industrial Recovery Project Mass. State M-34 PWA Docket 1744
Notice to Contractors

Sealed separate proposals for (1) Laboratory Equipment and Autopsy Table and (2) Mortuary Refrigerators for the Laboratory and Mortuary Building at the Metropolitan State Hospital, Waltham, Mass., will be received by the Department of Mental Diseases at Room 167, State House, Boston, Mass., until 2 o'clock P.M. Thursday, February 28, 1935, and at that time and place will be publicly opened and read. Bids must be made upon the Department's prescribed special form of contract for projects financed and constructed under the terms of the National Industrial Recovery Act and Chapter 365 of the Acts of 1933, to which is attached and made a part thereof the Special Contract Provisions, Revised April 15, 1934, of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works and the State Emergency Public Works Commission. Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum wage rates prescribed by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works must be paid on this project.

Without exception, no bid will be considered unless accompanied by the bidder's Certificate of Compliance, U. S. Government Form P. W. A. 61, Revised March, 1934, to the effect that the bidder is complying with and will continue to comply with each applicable Code of Fair Competition or, in the absence of such Code or Codes, with the President's Reemployment Agreement. Copies of this Certificate will be included with the "Instructions to Bidders."

The contractor is required to submit with his proposal "Addenda Number One to the Special Contract Provisions," properly filled in.

All bidders shall be required to file with their bids a properly executed certificate of workmen's compensation insurance issued by a company satisfactory to the State Commissioner of Insurance.

Plans, specifications and contract forms may be obtained at Room 167, State House, Boston, upon deposit of amounts as follows: (1) Laboratory Equipment, $10.00; (2) Mortuary Refrigerators, $10.00. These amounts are to be included in the estimates and all checks but that of the successful bidder will be returned upon return of the plans and specifications. Plans and specifications also may be seen at the office of the architect, Gordon Robb, 234 Clarendon St., Boston, Mass.

Bids must be accompanied by properly certified checks on, or certificates of deposits issued by, a responsible bank or trust company in amounts as follows: Laboratory Equipment, $150; Mortuary Refrigerators, $100; made payable to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Checks and certificates will be returned after execution of the contracts upon demand. A surety bond by an approved surety company will be required from the successful bidders in amounts not less than the full amount of the contract. The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals, or to accept any proposal deemed best for the Commonwealth, and no award can be made without the approval of the State Engineer, P. W. A., and of the State Emergency Public Works Commission.

The local registration office of the National Reemployment Service from which employee lists for this contract shall be obtained (as required in Article C of the Special Contract Provisions) is National Reemployment Service, Corner Church and School Streets, Waltham, Mass.

DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL DISEASES,
Winfred Overholser, Commissioner.
f14 21

Death Notices

DOBIE—In Everett, Feb. 12, 1935, Frank Dobie, beloved husband of Sarah J. Dobie (nee Donough). Funeral from his late residence, 24 Reed Ave., Everett, at 8 o'clock Friday morning. Requiem high mass at the Church of the Little Flower at 9 a. m. Relatives and friends kindly invited. Formerly of Chelsea.

DONAHUE—In Medford, Feb. 12, James E., beloved husband of Catherine A. (McCaffry) Donahue. Funeral from his home, 191 Fellsway West, on Friday, Feb. 15, at 8 a. m. Solemn high mass at the Immaculate Conception Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

GIFUN—In East Boston, Feb. 12, Anna (nee Belidia), beloved wife of the late Jeremiah Gifun. Funeral from the residence, 736 Bennington St., Friday, Feb. 15, at 9 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at St. Lazarus' Church at 10 a. m. Relatives and friends are cordially invited.

MORGAN—In Somerville, Feb. 12, Catherine G. (nee Mahoney), beloved wife of the late John L. Morgan. Funeral from her late home, 71 Park St., Friday, Feb. 15, at 8 a. m. Solemn high mass at St. Catherine's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

TAYLOR—Suddenly in Arlington, Feb. 12, Mildred M. Kipp, wife of Arthur L. Taylor, of 171 Mystic St. Funeral services at the Saville and Kimball Funeral Home, 418 Massachusetts Ave., Arlington, Friday, Feb. 15, at 2:30 p. m.

10 Funeral Directors

J. S. Waterman & Sons Funeral Directors 497 Commonwealth Ave., Boston

Graham Funeral Service 1170 WASHINGTON ST. Special Funeral $125 Non-Sect. Special Funeral Metal Casket, $314. Service available anywhere in N. E.

John F. O'Brien & Son Modern equipped. Careful attention. Absolute honesty in cost. Funeral Home and office at 146 Dorchester St., South Boston.

KELLY Jos. H. Quality and Service. Charlestown, 1 Moulton St. Cha. 0960.

AUSTIN W. MARTIN — Day-Night Service. 1561 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. Tro. 5610

11A Monuments

MONUMENTS OF QUALITY WRITE FOR DESIGNS AND PRICES Theo. J. Craig 176 WATER ST. QUINCY, MASS. GRAN. 1607-R

15 Lost and Found

LOST On Arlington St. car, Saturday P. M., bundle business papers useful only to owner. Finder please call Han. 7330 daytime or Arl. 3616-W evenings. Reward.

Lost On Arlington St. car, Saturday P. M., bundle business papers useful only to owner. Finder please call Han. 7330 daytime or Arl. 3616-W evenings. Reward.

Found Collie, Chow, Spaniel, German Shepherd, Fox Terrier, Police and Spitz. Call MISS JAMES, Liberty 4000.

Lost Lady's gold watch, between Green St.-Beacon St., Brookline. Reward. Longwood 0071.

Lost Cambridge, red Irish Setter, male, "Putch." Wore collar. Reward. TROwbridge 7018.

Lost Jamaica Plain, mongrel Boston Terrier, female, brindle and white. Rew. Jam. 3450-M.

Lost Cloth and fur muff in Back Bay. Reward. 70 Fenway, Apartment 42. COM. 7529.

LOST your dog? Phone Animal Rescue League, 51 Carver St., Boston. Han. 9170.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

12 Florists

EXPRESSIONS OF SYMPATHY From Penn's Cost No More Beautiful Fresh Sprays $3 up
Penn The Florist CAN BE SENT BY WIRE ANYWHERE ANY TIME PENNPHONE LIB. 4317 124 TREMONT ST. BOSTON

16 Personal

Is your cellar flooded? Electric automatic pumps. Revere Engineering Co. Revere 2298.

18 Special Notices

THE CHINA HOUSE offers daily specials in China and Glass. 469 Wash. St., Wellesley.

EDES MFG. CO., Plymouth, Mass. Zinc, copper plates for photos, etching.

BEST values in town on shoes for the whole family. 209 St. Botolph St., Boston.

Live Stock

SAVE HAY and GRAIN USE DISTILLERS' GRAIN FOR SALE AT Readville Distillery, Readville, Mass.

Store Fixtures

OFFICE store fixtures for sale. J. B. Libby Co., Inc., Portland, Maine.

Porches

Paramount Home Improvement Corp. "Make your porch liveable all year round." Center Newton 3337.

19 Beauty Aids

FREE [illegible]

SHAMPOO—Finger wave dries in 15m. 75c. Permanent, $2.50 up, complete. Annette, 8 Winter St., Em. 91u. Dev. 7265.

20 Beauty Instruction

STUDLEY BEAUTY SCHOOL. Thorough training in every branch; expert teachers. 8 weeks' course. $50. Easy Terms. Discounts for cash. Send for circular. We help place students. 125 Tremont St. Room 503. Devonshire 7634.

21 Professional Service

ANGLO-SWEDISH MASSAGE. 241 West Newton St. Kenmore 1983

SCIENTIFIC massage by graduate. 580 Commonwealth Ave., Suite 2. Ken. 2149.

24 Dancing

Boston's Foremost Reliable Dancing School 15 Private Lessons $5 Uptown School Modern Dancing 330 Mass. Ave., at Hunt. Personal Direction Miss Shirley Hayes TEL. CIRCLE 9068 Newest Ballroom steps, fox-trot, waltz, "400," etc. Beginners guaranteed to learn here. Be Popular! Become a Good Dancer! Learn quickly here! NOTE! Class and Social dancing every evening, 9 P. M. to 12 P. M. Wonderful Orchestra! 25 Beautiful young lady instructors. Fun for all. Come and enjoy yourself. Price $1.00

LEARN PROF. LERNER'S "CONTINENTAL" SPECIAL WALTZ — FOX-TROT — TANGO VERSION Every Type of Stage and Tap Dancing Taught Private and Class Daily 10 A. M. to 12 P. M. LERNER'S DANCE STUDIO 335 MASS. AVE. CIR. 9248

CLASSES $.75 LATEST BALLROOM DANCES. Every Tues. & Fri. 8:30 to 11 PRIVATE LESSONS DAYTIME OR EVENING

TAP and STAGE DANCING Also Taught Paparone STUDIOS

DON'T WASTE TIME AND MONEY BALLROOM Guaranteed in 4 LESSONS TAP ALSO MY REPUTATION IS YOUR PROTECTION PROF. RITTER 177 Tremont St. DEvonshire 7330.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF DANCING BALLROOM 2 Private Lessons $1 152A Hunt. Ave. Cor. W. Newton St. Cir. 6891

COPLEY SCHOOL 177 Huntington Ave. Strand Bldg., near Norway St. 15 PRIVATE LESSONS. LATEST STEPS Beginners and Advanced Cir. 7941 $5

Miss Hunt's Studio 3 PRIVATE LESSONS $1

18 Private Lessons—10 A. M.-11 P. M. Wm. H. O'Brien 240 Hunt. Ave. CIR. 6126 $5 CLASSES TUESDAY, THURSDAY, SATURDAY

26 Where to Dine

NARDINI'S LUNCH or FEAST Concord, New Hampshire

27 Where to Buy Liquor

Powers' General Store Vinal Sq. Route 3, No. Chelmsford

38 Dermatology

NOSES RESHAPED Ears Set Back FACE LIFT All Featural Defects Corrected Blemishes Removed A. S. GIBSON, M. D. 154 Boylston St. Phone Lib. 4162 Est. 35 Yrs.

FACE and Feature E. P. Reid, M. D. Specialist 316 Newbury St., Ken. 4317. Est. 36 yrs.

38A Buttons and Trimmings

KOPLOW FOR BUTTONS Hundreds of Designs—See Us First! KOPLOW TRIMMING CO. Buckles and Clips to match 29 Kneeland St. Hancock 9158

41 Medical

X-RAY

Examination, consultation and trial treatment absolutely free to all who call before Feb. 17th, 1935. The X-ray and mercury quartz light treatment is accomplishing wonders in diseases of every description. No matter what your disease may be, remember Daniel J. Walsh, M. D., fulfils the above offer.

POLYPI TUMOR

Mrs. Elsie Karklin, 150 Florence St., Roslindale, Mass., says: "In 1923 I had an operation on my nose at Mass. Gen. Hospital. After that I had terrible pains in my head. Mrs. Wital, a neighbor, told me of Dr. Walsh. Following her advise I had Dr. Walsh treat me, and he stopped the pains. In 1934 I made a misstep and tore the tendon Achilles in my heel. I had Dr. Walsh treat that and I was soon well again. I make this statement with the intent to direct others suffering from chronic diseases where they may get relief from their suffering."
"Signed (Mrs.) Elsie Karklin."

D. J. WALSH, M. D. 18 Boylston St., Boston, Mass. Office Hours daily from 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. except Tuesday and Friday, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. only. Closed Sundays and Holidays.

PILES No need to suffer needlessly. Send for 20 page free booklet. DOVER STREET CLINIC 16 Dover St. Dept. A. Boston, Mass.

ACNE—BLOOD DISEASES TREATED BY THE LATEST METHOD VACCINES USED WHEN NECESSARY Hours 9 to 8 W. Mulcahy, M. D. 32 Boylston St. Han. 5938

GLASSES—Kryptoks. Repairing 'For Less.' Eyes Tested. Factory, 4 Shawmut St., near Park Sq. Hcb. 3895.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

47A Piano Tuning

PIANOS TUNED $1.00 Prof. Hall 1064 Huntington Ave. Commonwealth 7307

EMPLOYMENT

60 Employment for Women

Mass. State Employment Service NO FEES We have openings for Household girls and mothers' helpers. Apply 7th floor, 166 Nashua St.

Laundry Help [illegible]

LADIES start making a living immediately ... No experience or money needed. Liberal commission. Call at 76 Summer St., Boston Magazine.

GIRL wanted for general housework. For information call Aspinwall 3199.

61 Employment for Men

CASH for Licenses. Trade on Stamps. Unused U. S. Postage Stamps. 41 Cannon St., 611 Wash St.

WANTED—Men, bakers, tea, coffee or other route men. Good proposition for right man. Rawleigh, Dept. MAB-20-L, Boston, Mass.

62 Positions Wanted by Women

ALERT young woman, 27, desires cashiering ... exp. Eve. 2958.

63 Positions Wanted by Men

[illegible]

65 Educational Instruction

DIESEL Engineering

America's Original Exclusive Diesel Training Schools. Trained men needed in all stages ... Also New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Seattle and Vancouver.

FINANCIAL

70 Money to Loan

PERSONAL LOANS WITHOUT ENDORSERS ON FURNITURE, AUTOS, NOTES
Borrow $50, pay back $3 monthly
Borrow $100, pay back $5 monthly
Borrow $200, pay back $9 monthly
Borrow $300, pay back $12 monthly
On Principal with Charges at Lawful Rate for the actual number of days you use the money.

LICENSED BONDED NATIONAL LOAN SOCIETY 24 SCHOOL ST., BOSTON LAFAYETTE 0038 689 MASS. AVE., CAMBRIDGE TROWBRIDGE 3715 1 SALEM ST., MALDEN MALDEN 6085 Licenses 82—117—179 Respectively

"If you need Money INVESTIGATE the GLOBE PLAN" GLOBE Discount & Finance Corp. 437 Park Sq. Bldg. (31 St. James Ave.) LIB. 7368 LICENSE 142

WE LEND MONEY on Liberal Terms Quick, friendly service. Loans of $300 or less ... 1 to 20 months to repay. Come in, write or 'phone. Auto Loans Furniture Loans Co-maker Loans Combination Loans NEW ENGLAND EQUITY CORPORATION 153 Washington St. 4th Fl. Rm. 403 Phone LIBerty 1731 License 57

Let PILGRIM PLAN Solve your money problems See Us Today! AUTOMOBILE FURNITURE LOANS $50 to $1000. Up to 20 months to repay. One day service. Legal rates. Loans $300 or less under state supervision. PILGRIM PLAN 24 SCHOOL ST. CAPITOL 7243 RM. 401 4TH FLOOR LICENSE 65

LOANS Made to wage-earners and salaried workers with endorsers. Loans made on furniture without endorsers. BOSTON MORRIS PLAN CO. 209 Washington St., Boston License 62 Roxbury and Cambridge

AUTO LOANS FOR ADDITIONAL CASH OR TO REDUCE YOUR MONTHLY PAYMENTS CALL, WRITE OR PHONE LIB. 5067 M-A-C PLAN INC. 333 Wash'ton St., Rm. 202. License 152

LOANS BUSINESS—SALARIES AUTOS—FURNITURE ACCTS. RECEIVABLE COLEMAN FINANCE CORP. 141 MILK ST. HUBBARD 3253

BANKERS FINANCE CORP LOANS on Autos 18 Tremont St., Boston; Rm. 901 LAF. 0319 License 231

TRUCK and AUTO LOANS FIDELITY LOAN AND FINANCE CORP. License 69. 457 Stuart St. Rm. 210, Boston. KEN. 9249.

FINANCIAL

70 Money to Loan

LOANS UP TO $300 24 to 48 HOURS FURNITURE AUTO CO-MAKER

For Single or Married People
Our Complete Loan Service offering 4 loan plans and 20 repayment plans, makes it easy for any employed man or woman to obtain a loan and just as easy to repay it.
For Quick Service in Boston and Nearby Towns Phone—LIBerty 2710

INDUSTRIAL BANKERS, Inc.

BOSTON	33 Tremont St. 2nd Floor, Tremont Bldg.	Laf. 5337	License 22
CAMBRIDGE	552 Mass. Ave. Cor. Pearl St. Central Sq.	Kirk. 2800	License 71
CHELSEA	417 Broadway Room 2, 2nd Floor	Che. 2266	License 195
DORCHESTER	761 Dudley St. 2nd Floor Uphams Corner	Col. 5379	License 66
EVERETT	471 Broadway 2nd Floor Howard Bldg.	Eve. 2144	License 197
MEDFORD	25 High St. 2nd Fl. First Nat. Bk. Bldg.	Mys. 1036	License 199
NEWTON	313 Washington St. 2nd Fl. Washington Bldg.	New. 5187	License 201
SOMERVILLE	130 Union Sq. 2nd Fl. Parke Snow Bldg.	Som. 3536	License 33
WOBURN	373 Main St. Tanners Nat'l Bank Bldg.	Wob. 1430	License 205

INDUSTRIAL BANKERS, Inc.

WE SPECIALIZE IN 2ND MORTGAGE LOANS TO HOME OWNERS Very Small Repayments. Hub Finance Co. 600 Washington St. LIBerty 8410

AUTO and TRUCK LOANS AMERICAN FINANCE CORPORATION, LICENSE 23 Room 227 Park Square Bldg. HUB 1313

72 Business Opportunities

THE KENNEL CLUB, Common st., Braintree, with club license, for sale, dance floor, booths, bars, furnished rooms, kitchen, etc. Braintree 1420 or Gra. 1454.

JONQUIL RESTAURANT in Gloucester. Liquor license, bar, booths, fully equipped; good business; reas. Tel. 2608 or 220 Main St.

MEAT MARKET, 187 Broadway, South Boston, for sale. Will sacrifice. Col. 1190.

MUST sell established variety store at a sacrifice. 395 Washington St., Somerville.

REAL ESTATE MARKET

75 Houses for Sale

WAKEFIELD—27 Franklin St., duplex, 7-7 rms., modern, in good condition, must sell. Mrs. H. Parker, Crystal 0522-J.

RENTALS

Hotels

HOTEL TOURAINE Tremont and Boylston Streets, Boston. To permanent guests—special rates. The Cafe Rouge—Boston's social centre.

The Ideal Winter Residence in Boston is THE HOTEL MANGER AT NORTH STATION, BOSTON ROOMS WITH BATH $60 MONTH

HOTEL VICTORIA COPLEY SQUARE—BOSTON Conservative Hotel for discriminating people. Air conditioned English Hunt Room.

HOTEL WESTMINSTER COPLEY SQUARE, BOSTON Daily rates: single $2.00 and up. Double, $3.00 and up. Special weekly rates.

85 Unfurnished Apartments

Heated Suites St. Patrick's Church Parish With or without refrigeration, $19 and up. Entirely redecorated and modernized. Phone Capitol 8880

UNSURPASSED OUTLOOK From these attractive 3 room corner suites. Electric refrigeration. Automatic elevator. Best of references required. Apply Supt. 261 Commonwealth Ave.

ROXBURY

62 Forest St.—4, 5 room heated suites; quiet neighborhood. Reduced rentals. See janitor on premises or call Hub. 2958.

$40 BEACON HILL—[illegible]

BRIGHTON—Sunny 2-3-rm. apts., steam heat, $20-$25. Warren Hall Chambers, 337 Washington St. See custodian.

BROOKLINE, BRIGHTON, ALLSTON—1-7 RMS., $25 UP. AUTO SERV. STA. 9200.

Cambridge heated apts. "WE KNOW THE VACANCIES." Let us show you. George A. Giles, Kirkland 2345.

GROVE HALL, MOD. HEATED APTS. 6 rooms, tile ba. shower. Electrolux. Janitor. 498 Blue Hill Ave.

MALDEN—275 Cross St., 6-7 rms., sun parlor, gar., $30-$35. M. Glanz, Lib. 8258.

NEW YORK—If you contemplate living in New York, write to Jean Holmes, the New York American Apartment Hunter, 1834 Broadway, New York City. She will furnish you with the best vacancies available at whatever rental you are able to pay.

86 Furnished Apartments

One large room apt. and kitchen, furnished, heated, near Metropolitan Theatre. $8 week. Apply 791 Washington St., Boston.

BEACON HILL—Lady desires to share her home apt. with business girl. Ken. 6433.

87 Houses for Rent

A COMPLETE RENTAL OFFICE, catering to rentals ONLY, throughout the Newtons and Wellesley. Mahlon W. Hill, Centre Newton 5000.

MANSFIELD—Cape Cod Colonial, 9 rms., steam heat, all imps., large barn, 9 acres land. $30 month on lease. Owner, Lib. 1920.

89 Rooms for Housekeeping

CAMBRIDGE, 18 Magazine St., 2 furn. hskpg. rms., reas., bus. people, well heat'd.

DORCHESTER, 96 Alexander St., 3 rms. furn., gas, electricity supplied. $8 week.

1 CONCORD SQUARE—Clean, well furnished kitchenette suites, steam heat, constant hot water, phone. $6.

91 Rooms with Board

MILTON—Lge. warm rm., furn. h. w., meals. $10. Priv. family. Two mins. rapid transit. Blu. 8108.

ROSLINDALE—Warm room, private family, $5-$8. Meals, garage opt. Par. 0351-W.

92 Rooms without Board

$5 [illegible] Com. 8433.

BROOKLINE—Coolidge Cor., 2 lge. rms., sun porch, priv. bath and shower, 2 closets. Would rent separately. Asp. 8465 after 5 P. M.

BRIGHTON—Well furn. living room, $4. Also front room $3. Modern; near Oak Sq. on car line; garage. Sta. 3008.

BROOKLINE—Reservoir sect., front rm.; parking; near trains, cars. Long. 4882.

CAMBRIDGE—61 Wendell St., warm rms., bus. people, $4. Parking. Eliot 0394.

FOR BUSINESS MAN—Finely furn. rm. in priv. home; breakfast opt.; parking; 1 min. to bus, 5 mins. to Ashmont Sta. TAL. 4943.

71 St. Mary's St., Suite 2—Attractive room, plenty heat, hot water. Asp. 9405.

170 W. CANTON ST.—Large front rm., $4; bath floor, cont. h. w., parking. Tel.

230 NEWBURY St.—Copley Sq., attractive rms., good heat, $4, $5. Circle 7534.

RENTALS

93 Children Boarded

WILL give excellent home and care to 1 or 2 children. Would consider business parent and child or elderly lady. Woburn 0206.

WANTED—Infant from birth; mother's personal care; reas. Talbot 3714.

94 Homes for Invalids

ELDERLY person or invalid; kind care; terms reas. 58 Bowdoin Ave., Dorchester. Talbot 6248.

MISC. FOR SALE

Certified Bargains

BRAKES Relined, adjusted. Official Station. HARVEY'S 1375 Boylston St., KEN. 8780

Metal Weatherstrips

METAL WEATHERSTRIPS when properly installed will save 25% in fuel, stop drafts, leaks, dust, noise, etc. COLUMBIA WEATHERSTRIP CO. 52 Linden, Dor. Col. 5439. Carl Mason. Save $$$

Storm Windows

Storm Windows and Doors L. Grossman Sons, Inc. 130 Granite St., Quincy. Pres. 7100

101 Furniture—Household Goods

WICKER FURNITURE repaired and enholst., all kinds of seating. New England Reed. CAP. 1427.

Mattresses

Mattress Ren. 1-day service. Go anywhere; formerly with "Paine." Hyde Pk. 1443-R.

105A Typewriters and Repairs

Rent a NEW Monarch Noiseless PORTABLE TYPE-WRITER 3 MONTHS FOR $5.00 It disturbs nobody! We also rent selected Typewriters of all makes latest models, free service. Free delivery. AMERICAN WRITING MACHINE CO. 171 Federal St. Lib. 6195

109 Oil Burners

RANGE Burners $4.15. Boiler Grate $6. Cabinet circulating heaters $10.50. Buy Direct. Modern Mfg. Co. Inc. 21 Summer St. Lynn. Breakers 6702

110 Coal—Coke—Wood—Oil

COAL EGG, STOVE, NUT, $12.50, PEA, $11.00 Guaranteed best you have ever burned. Deliveries in Metropolitan Boston. Babcock Coal Co. Hig. 5311 17 Sherwood St. Boston

COKE DELIVERED IN BIN $11 Special Lumpy Soft 2 Ton Lots $7.75 SOUTHERN COAL CO., Inc. Commonwealth 2920 Malden 7475

BEST SOLID FUEL IN AMERICA Money Back Guarantee COKE $11.50 Ton CAMBRIDGE COKE. TRO. 1270

COAL $12.50 COKE $11.25 ALL FUELS GUAR. CLARK COAL CO. GAR. 8335

American Anthracite Egg, Stove, Nut $12.50 Coke $11.25 Russian Coal $14.00 PEOPLES COAL CO. GEN. 0485

Coke $10.75. Nut Coal $12. Ton Lots R. L. CHUTE Gar. 1244 Cha. 2334 Som. 3454

LUMPY SOFT COAL, $7.50 (4-TON LOTS)—COKE $11 KEN. BAY STATE COAL & OIL CO. 5926

HIGHLAND Coke, $11.25. Coal, $12.50. CALL PARKWAY 2541.

$10.75 Coke, Guaranteed. Coal $12.50 Ton Delivered Tro. 4945

Spec. 100% Lumpy Soft Coal, $8; Coke ... $10.50

BEST GRADE COKE, $10.75; anthracite coal, $12, guar. Mattapan Coal Co. Gen. 0170.

Lumpy soft coal, $7.75, $8.25, $9.25 per ton. 5-ton orders 50c less per ton. Com. 8575.

112 Jewelry and Diamonds

GOLD Licensed by U. S. Treasury to buy old gold, jewelry, dental gold, etc. Bring in or mail. Our 60-year reputation assures fair dealing. JASON WEILER & SONS, 376 Washington St.

LOANS OR CASH GOLD, DIAMONDS AND SILVER. Gov't License. SAGER BROS. & CO. Est. 1904. Hub. 8224. 333 Washington St. 6th Floor. Room 616

FULL VALUE FOR DIAMONDS, GOLD and SILVER A. ATKINS. ROOM 706. 387 WASHINGTON ST.

CASH for Old Gold in any form or condition. GOLD RECLAIMING CORP. 1135 Little Bldg., Boston. Lib. 6994

DIAMONDS and Collateral Loan Tickets Bought. J. D. SEIDLER. Room 312. 333 Washington St., Boston

Cash Old Gold, Silver, Gold Plates, Jewelry, Hos. 100 Old Gold Ex. 100 Boylston St., Boston

CASH For your Old Gold, Diamonds, Broken Jewelry. DREAYER'S, 11 Hanover St.

DANIEL CURRAN CO. 373 Wash. St. Rm. 309. Pays cash for diamonds, gold, silver watches.

112A Stamps and Coins

CASH Unused U. S. Postage Stamps. Old Gold. H. Van Dam & Sons, Pawnbroker. 293 Wash. St.

115 Miscellaneous for Sale

HAND made spread of rare design, consisting of 4819 gathered circles. Ocean 1497-M.

ARTIST airbrush and compressor with motor. Reliable Art. Dev. 9787.

AUTOMOBILES

"No retailer shall use advertising which is inaccurate in any material particular or misrepresents merchandise (including its use, trademark, grade, quality, quantity, size, origin, material, content, or preparation or credit terms, values, policies, or services); and no retailer shall use advertising and—or selling methods which tend to deceive or mislead the customers." . . . Code of Fair Competition for the Motor Vehicle Retailing Trade.

CAN YOU RECOGNIZE THE 1935 AUTOMOBILES? 15 PRIZES AUTO IDENTITY CONTEST

AUTOMOBILES

130 Automobiles for Sale

USED CAR SALE THIS WEEK!! Don't Miss It! If You Want to Save Money Y-D Chevrolet Co. 100 Mass. Ave., Boston. Com. 3300 Open Eves. Until 9

TODAY'S BARGAINS AT JIM'S [illegible]

NASH "OUR REPUTATION IS YOUR PROTECTION" Fine used cars priced low; both salesrooms are open evenings. 640 & 882 Comm. Ave. KENmore 1102

$10 Down, 20 Months to Pay HENLEY-KIMBALL 650 BEACON STREET Money-Back Guarantee Protects You

AUTO REPAIRS TIME PAYMENTS! No down Payment. STRATTON MOTOR INC. 672-4 Blue Hill Ave.

'33 PLYMOUTH 4-D. SEDAN Fine condition; has had ... of care. American Motor ... Mystic Ave., Somerville. $350

J. C. BAKER CO.—FORD ... 6 Salesrooms; Same phone ... 5200

$10 Down: 20 Months to Pay Cars sent to your door for approval.

'32 FORD TUDOR, $295 Mech. A-1, all conditions. Mr. Schramm, Hoover Motors. Di Bbard 7400

'31 OAKLAND SEDAN $215 Low mileage, perfect condition. Hub Chevrolet Co., 277 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. Tro. 6400.

Special—$525 '34 Chev. Master Coach. Guar. Like new. North Terminal Chev., Inc. Cap. 4780.

Autos Wanted Call up or drive in. We give you the cash. 1182 COMMONWEALTH AVE. Tel. Longwood 8502

'30 DODGE COACH $165 Perfect mechanical condition. Hub Chevrolet Co., 277 Mass Ave., Cambridge. Tro. 6400.

$75 Down, $15.15 per month, 15 months buys Hupmobile Coupe; all charges included. Wonderful value; drive it, see; Courtney and Eldridge, Inc., 1055 Comm. Ave. STAdium 4200

$125 FORD 1931 Touring Car ...

$150 DOWN ... Pontiac sedan ...

$165 '29 Dodge ... de luxe, new tires, excellent in every way, liberal terms. Dunleam Chevrolet, Newton. New. No. 5620

$200 down ... 1934 Ford ...

$265 '31 Ford ... REARDON & WOODWARD, INC. 1890 Columbus Ave., Roxbury. Hig. 1852.

$275 Plymouth ...

$495 Nash '33 Sedan ...

$550 '34 Ford Sedan delivery ... Knox Bros. Motor Co. Pre. 2170

$625 '34 Dodge 4-door de luxe sedan ...

HOWARD MOTORS, INC. 81 Washington St. Quincy. Gra. 1800.
'31 Auburn de luxe sedan $245
'30 Pontiac sedan 145
'32 Plymouth sport coupe 295

BATSON'S PONTIAC AGENCY 976 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. TRO. 5135

'31 DE SOTO Airflo 4-door sedan, never been registered, $775; 1-3 down, bal. easy. Porter Sq. Chevrolet, 1971 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. ELIot 8522.

'33 de luxe Fordor Sedan. This car in exceptionally clean condition. Savoy Auto Sales 1234 Washington St., Boston. Lib. 0074

'32 G. M. C. T 18 1½ yd. New wood dump. $600. General Motors Truck Co., 103 North Beacon St., Brighton District. Stadium 2900.

'34 Chevrolet, Sport Coupe ... Stanley, Harlow, 340 Main St. ...

'29 FORD COUPE ... $75

GREAT Stock Reduction Sale—No Cash Down. Lawton Kenmore Motors, Inc., 590 Comm. Ave. Ken. 3830; open evenings.

"PROTECTED with a value guarantee." Authorized Ford Dealer.

CARS WANTED. Highest Prices Paid. FINANCE CO., 965 Comm. Ave. ALG. 9519.

131 Automobile Trucks

GOOD USED TRUCKS $10 down, 20 months to pay; always a good assortment. Massachusetts Motor Car Co., 20 Malvern St., Allston. Next to Packard Bldg. Sta. 0800.

CHEVROLET 1½ TON TRUCK S. W. B. mechanically O. K. $110 310 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. Eliot 5025.

1932 FORD TRUCK $75 down, 157 ... W. B. Price $325. 310 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. Eliot 5025.

TRUCKS!—TRUCKS!
1930 Ford Dump dual $250
1931 International Hydraulic dump $175
KARAS AUTO SALES, Inc. 965 Columbus Ave. Gar. 8169.

$315 CHEVROLET '33 sedan panel, run 17,000 actual miles guaranteed. Watertown Sq. Chev. Mid. 8267

FORD 1½-ton Chassis, Cab ... 1931, $395. Malden Auto Exchange ...

136 Automobile Painting

$15 ANY CAR—Also expert body and fender work at very low prices. COLUMBIA AUTO PAINTERS Largest in New England 22 Brighton Ave. STAdium 3033

138 Automobile Insurance

$5 DOWN, 7 MONTHLY PAYMENTS. Est. 1817 55 Kilby St. Lib. 8830 WAMCO

Lowest Finance Charge. Bev. Co's. Plate Service. 53 State St. Rm. 1118. Capitol 5632.

139 Automobile Schools

$5 SHORT COURSE — FULL COURSE $10 "MET" AUTO SCHOOL, 360 Tremont St. Lib. 1430

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

"New England's Greatest Evening Newspaper"

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Boston, Mass., under the Act of March 3, 1879, also at the Postoffice Department, Canada.

Published daily except Sunday and Holidays, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston 8, Mass., by NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Subscription by mail, postpaid, one month, 60c; three months, $1.00; six months, $3; one year, $6. Boston Postal District 75c month. Domestic rates include postage in the United States, Porto Rico, Philippines, Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, Canal Zone, Canada. Mail subscription payable strictly in advance. Rates to foreign countries, one month, $1; six months, $6; one year, $12.

The Boston Evening American assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements, but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical errors occur. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately of any error which may occur.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper, and also the local news published therein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein reserved by the Boston Evening American.

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1935

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION BY MORE THAN 80,000

Teachers' Oath of Loyalty Bill Must Stand!

COMMUNISTS are cowards.

Nobody stepped forward, Tuesday, when the Legislature called for opponents of the bill to require an oath of allegiance to the Stars and Stripes by all school teachers.

Nobody said a word.

Nobody whispered a whisper.

It would have taken more audacity than even a Communist possesses to have ventured opposition to the support consolidated by the state's patriotic organizations.

Testimony in favor of the bill was more than enough to jolt the smug complacency of those who thought the warning of Communism in the schools originated with habitual alarmists.

It proved the existence of a condition that warrants every real American expressing genuine alarm.

This bill is an excellent one.

It will be a better one if it is amended to include private school and college instructors and professors, as suggested by Dr. Payson Smith, state commissioner of education.

THE American Legion is for it.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars are for it.

The Daughters of the American Revolution are for it.

The Sons of the American Revolution are for it.

The Military Order of the World War is for it.

The 14th American Expeditionary Force Engineers' Veterans Association is for it.

The Boston Fleet Reserve Association is for it.

The Massachusetts State Guards Veterans Association is for it.

The state's educational leader is for it.

Who IS against it?

Merrimack Project Winning Favor

Representative Edith Nourse Rogers, Bay State Congresswoman, makes it known that the Public Works Administration at Washington pronounces the proposed purification of the Merrimack River a "meritorious project."

This is a big forward step for the plan, already favored by Governor Curley and other leaders.

It would affect important Massachusetts cities and towns, including Lowell, Lawrence, Amesbury, Haverhill and Newburyport.

The next move appears to be raising the necessary funds. With outright approval already at hand, this ought not to be difficult.

Proponents of the Merrimack project will do well to move with speed and vigor.

Slaughter of Deer Unwisely Conducted

Governor Curley wins the approval of hosts of animal lovers by calling a halt to the slaughter of deer at Nantucket.

The purpose of the "open season," which was to relieve farmers of the presence of garden and field crop destroyers, was commendable.

But the shotgun hunting, although prescribed by Massachusetts law, was "something else again."

Surely many deer must have been wounded in the legalized chase, and left to recover or die with needless suffering.

The method of execution would cause the quick closing of any licensed slaughter house.

Surplus cats and dogs are put to death by supposedly painless methods chosen by Massachusetts humane societies.

Why can't surplus deer get the same consideration?

Dark Side of Moon Harvard Studies It

Fletcher Watson, director of meteor research at Harvard, recently revealed that the astronomical observatory across the Charles is making a study of the dark surface of the moon.

The Harvard study is an effort to determine the origin of the lunar craters.

One theory is that these sprang into being as the result of the crashing against the moon of giant meteors, miles in diameter.

Meteors have been known to hit our earth. Here's hoping nothing like Harvard is studying ever comes our way.

It would do more damage than the whole flock of "Brain Trust" professors let loose in Washington.

Theater Movement It Gains Ground

The "Little Theater" movement in New England is gaining ground.

The Patrons of Husbandry, better known as the Grange, plans to make every one of our numerous Grange Halls a "Little Theater."

It will cultivate the acting talent within the organization.

Stimulating public interest in the theater is for the good of both stage and screen entertainers and producers.

Moreover, it develops latent abilities among our citizenry. We can all heartily wish it further success.

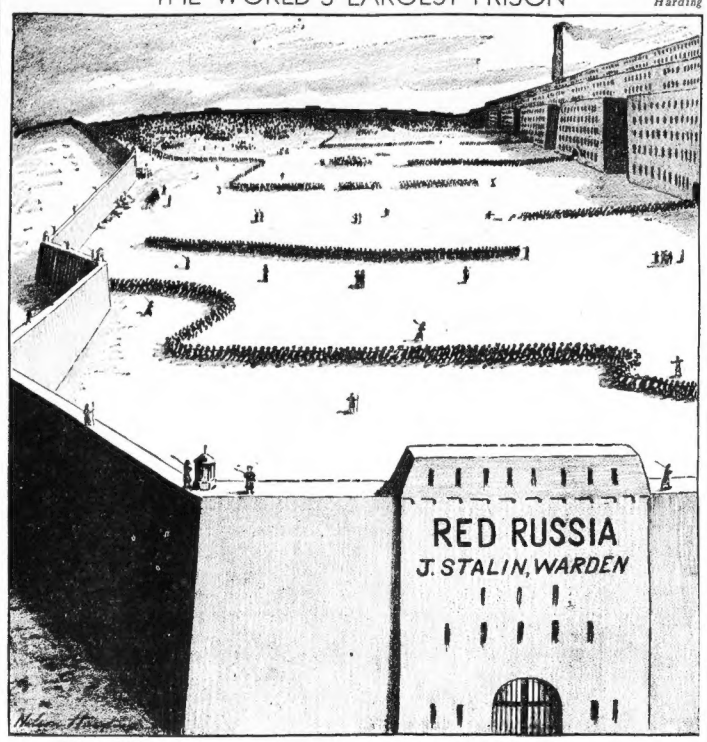

Find a Hobby It Will Help You Through Life

Dr. Nikola Tesla, one of the greatest living scientists, finds time from his important work to have a hobby. He nurses ailing pigeons back to health.

In the lives of all of us there should be a little breathing space from the hard hurry and bustle to be given to something warm and simple and humane.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST PRISON

By Nelson Harding

Driven and drilled and regimented
Are the inmates of this "prison."
Here are millions of unhappy,
Disillusioned human beings.

The "Red Paradise" of Russia
Is a jail for all its people.
Liberty was long since banished
By its harsh and ruthless keepers.

Listen, World!

By Elsie Robinson

WHO'S TO BLAME?

Down in San Antonio, Texas, some young people have started a "YOUTH REVIEW MAGAZINE."

I don't know a thing about it—never saw a copy until one arrived in my mail this morning. But there's an unsigned article in that copy which I'd like to give to every man and woman in America.

Youngsters — they get your goat, don't they? Just as you and I got Elsie Robinson our Oldsters' goats when we were young. But there is—you protest—something in these youngsters which wasn't in us.

A hardness we didn't have—a resentment—a contempt for established law and order. Worst of all, a sort of vicious indifference—as though they lacked all pride or ambition.

THE UGLY QUESTION

Yes, I suppose there is. But who put it there? There's the ugly question that runs through that article I'm going to quote. Not room for it all, but even a little of it packs a powerful wallop. Listen—

"Stop griping about the younger generation, will you? I'm fed up on it! A wild crowd, you say? They have no morals—no decency. They're radical, ungrateful, disrespectful. Stop talking so much, and do something about it!

"Sure, some of us have worked and do work! But work at what? I'll tell you! Old two-bit jobs—12 hours a day—at a day. No future. Nothing interesting. Not like the kids of other days, who could become apprentices in trades. And man—what a sock these lousy jobs are on ambition!

"You say, 'Why don't you keep your jobs?' Well, most of us get canned for picking up a little loose change. You see—you spend most of your money on carfare and lunch. You buy a new suit—get in debt for keeping your clothes pressed. Yeah—look nice —eat—LIVE—on one hundred cents a day!

"So we all go back to the sidewalks to chew the rag. We're the fellows who stand around and listen to the soap box speakers. We feel and inhale the heat of revolutionary 'isms.' We dream in the spell of proletarian Communism. Our blood boils with envy, hate, angered injustice.

"Behold us! . . . We're all members of the 'Who gives a damn?' club . . . We're not the college fellows who jazz around in family cars—with family allowances. We're not the kids who work in papa's store. We're the bewildered—the YOUTH!"

"HOPE OF THE WORLD"

Youth—"the hope of the world?" Yes—but suppose the Older Generation, by its messing and muddling, by its greediness and cowardice, deprives Youth of its right to HAVE a hope or BE one?

Suppose it so wrecks the world that there is no place waiting for YOUTH—except the tragic dangerous place in the gutter by the soap box orator, "feeling and inhaling the heat of revolutionary 'Ems'"?

Not like we were? Of course they're not. But we didn't roam the world, a homeless army of boys and girls, 500,000 of us, when we were seventeen.

We didn't have to forage, like starving brutes, for food and shelter—snatching at spoiled crusts of bread or fouled moments of love. . .

Our world was simple and hard —but it had law and order—it had ideals—above all it had a FUTURE. If you were an apprentice, at $10.00 a week, you were, at least, getting somewhere.

You had pride—you had hope. BUT WHERE ARE THESE CHILDREN GETTING? OF WHAT CAN THEY BE PROUD? FOR WHAT CAN THEY HOPE?

The threat of Communism—we blame them for that. Shake our heads angrily when we see mobs of 16 and 18-year-old youngsters ganging the police.

But who and what has driven them to this recklessness? What have we done to that orderly, just world for which our fathers died—that world which once made the idea of Communism seem ridiculous?

A bitter article. But what's the answer? Do YOU know it?

Words of Wise

Play not the peacock, looking every while about you to see if you be well decked, if your shoes fit well, if your stockings sit neatly and clothes handsomely. —George Washington.

If we cannot laugh with our religion, it is unreal, and we are afraid of it.—Dr. J. F. Norton.

There is but one book—bring me the Bible!—Sir Walter Scott.

Make your homes happy, banish from the sacred enclosure of the family all meanness, harshness, suspicion and unkindness.—Dr. Joseph Parker.

Every day there is born into the world something and you can make of it a dance, a dirge or a life march.—Carlyle.

Good Time Had By All

By Hendrik Van Loon

That is a fine idea. An excellent idea, as reported by the special correspondent in Flemington.

A grand and glorious spree to "celebrate" the verdict of the jury in the Hauptmann case. Rain or shine, by all means let us have a party.

We have now model "Lindy ladders" and we have bombarded the postmaster of the little village with requests for stamps cancelled with the Flemington, N. J., mark.

What a pity our postmaster-general had not thought of it on time! Otherwise he might have given us special three-cent stamps with a picture of the ransom money or a gallows!

Yes, let us have a party, and why not a costume party (they are very fashionable nowadays)? And if we are going to have a costume party, then why not enact "An afternoon during the reign of Louis XV"?

I am always willing to oblige and draw upon my vast store of historical information to make other people happy.

And so let me give the promoters a few nice and snappy and lively ideas, gathered together from a book that was published in the middle of the eighteenth century and that describes the celebration that centered around the execution of a certain citizen Damiens, an unemployed servant who in January of the year 1757 had stabbed at the King of France with a knife, without, however, wounding him at all seriously—a mere scratch.

BEFORE THE JUDGES

Before his judges Damiens swore that he had not meant to kill the King. He had only wanted to touch him and draw his attention to the deplorable conditions of France; hundreds of thousands of poor and hungry people—and millions of francs squandered upon the King's mistresses.

Today, judging by the evidence, we would have put the poor devil in a lunatic asylum for the rest of his natural days, for he gave every evidence of being a harmless fool.

But as he had committed a sacrilege and was condemned to be quartered alive on March 28th of the year of grace 1757. An attempt to make him confess the names of his accomplices had not been successful, although he had been repeatedly tortured on a special rack.

On the day of the execution he first of all had his right hand burned off, for that was the hand with which he had held his knife when he attacked the king. The poor simpleton looked at the charred stump with astonishment as if it were some rare curiosity, and the executioners made ready for the next number on the program.

With hot irons pieces of his flesh were nipped out of his arms and legs. Every time the hot iron touched him he gave one agonized cry, and then looked at his mutilated limbs in silent curiosity.

Thereupon the executioners poured hot oil and molten lead into the wounds—but why go on? For the man was as strong as an ox and the executioners had been told to proceed at their leasure.

DIES AT LAST

Four horses were not enough to tear him apart, although they tried very hard for a whole hour, during which the poor victim shrieked so terribly that he could be heard far and wide.

Finally one arm and one leg came off. Once more Damiens looked at his departing limbs with astonished eyes. Then another leg came off and he ceased to howl. He was dead.

How does it happen that we know all these details so precisely? Well, you see, "All Paris" was there to celebrate the event with a party "de grand gala," and no one less than Casanova was present to observe how the sight of such insufferable suffering would affect the ladies and gentlemen of fashion who had paid thousands of francs for balconies and windows that allowed them a good view of the execution.

And all day long and part of the night the Place de la Greve, where the execution took place, resounded to the merry laughter of the self-invited guests, who had brought bands and picnic baskets to help them while away the tedious hour and a half during which that miserable villain ha,' so obstinately refused to die.

Yes, by all means, let us have a party over the jury's verdict on the man who was accused of having murdered the child of Anne and Charles Lindbergh, even if he himself is no longer alive to tell us about it.

Isn't It So?

What ought to be done, can be done.

The lips of the wise feed many, but fools die for want of wisdom.

Using today instead of dreaming of tomorrow is what most of us need to try.

You shouldn't blink facts, but get the evidence before you swallow anything whole.

He is fit to command who has learned to obey.

"One House" Legislatures Restore Popular Rule

By JAMES T. WILLIAMS, Jr.

If Senator Norris of Nebraska could deliver one address over the radio in each of the states of the Union which are politically most backward, about the one-house legislative system which he originated and which his own State of Nebraska under his leadership has recently adopted, government in the United States would be changed.

The change would be for the better. The change would be in the public interest. It would promote the public welfare. It would overthrow the tyrannical and extravagant rule of a government of politicians, for politicians.

It would restore that government of the people by the people, for the people, which the Constitution of the United S ates undertook to establish—a representative government of limited and delegated powers.

Take the State of South Carolina, which offers one of the most flagrant examples today of tyrannical rule by politicians, of politicians, for politicians.

One of the former citizens of that State in a letter just received thus describes the political bondage under which the taxridden people of South Carolina now sweat and toil in an effort to save some of their earnings from the ruthless bands of political locusts that are eating their way through the State:

"I think the plan of Senator Norris to have one body of lawmakers in each State would be a tremendous improvement for South Carolina.

"It would be not only a great relief but also a great benefit to all sorts and conditions of loyal citizens who are earning their bread in the sweat of their brow and spurn a chance to attach themselves to a Federal relief roll or to a charitable soup kitchen, if only they may find honest work or protect their pockets from being picked by their political parasites who masquerade as public servants.

"The South Carolina Legislature consists of 125 members of the House, and 46 members of the Senate. They have been in session for five weeks without passing a single useful bill, or making any needed appropriation.

"Forty days is the time our Legislature is supposed to be in session, but as usual it will remain in session for a very much longer time because the members draw $10 per day and before they adjourn they will doubtless vote themselves extra pay for time served, no matter how long the session may continue."

STATES SUFFER

South Carolina is not the only state—it is one of many states which is suffering today from this form of political racketeering. And legislatures of excessive size and extravagant habits are not the worst of this inquitious system.

The ox-cart system of county government which taxes the people to pay for the up-keep of a hungry horde of county politicians prevails not only in South Carolina but in many other states of the Union.

It is small wonder that Senator Norris of Nebraska has no invitation from the South Carolina Legislature to broadcast from its halls the merits of the Norris plan, which has just been put into effect in Nebraska.

A speech from Senator Norris on this subject over the radio from the State House in Columbia would start a political revolution in the Palmetto State, the end of which would be the overthrow of the present piratical political system which maintains a lot of legislative loafers indefinitely in session at the expense of the tax-ridden people of South Carolina.

China's Great Wall

Human Side of the News

By Edwin C. Hill

THE GLOBE TROTTER OF HEARST METROTONE NEWS

Edwin C. Hill

Seven hundred thousand men labored in slavery for decades, and when their task was finished the blood and bones of tens of thousands of them were mixed in the mud and stone of the mightiest work of man—The Great Wall of China.

The haughty and wicked Ch'in Shih Huang Ti, the emperor who unified China, began the wall. The last stone was set in place more than two hundred years before the night that the angels sang over Bethlehem.

3,000,000 SOLDIERS

Like a dragon the wall crawled over the mountains and through valleys, winding in and out until it had linked the sea with the highlands of Turkestan, a distance of 1500 miles. In some places it was twenty feet high, in others fifty.

The thickness at the base averaged twenty feet, tapering to between twelve and fifteen feet at the top, a width sufficient to permit three or four horsemen to ride abreast.

Forty-foot defense towers rose at intervals of two hundred yards, and there were twenty-thousand of these superstructures. Beyond the wall were stretched another ten thousand towers to serve as sentry posts.

Three million soldiers manned the structure, and when it was completed about 215 B. C. China had made herself secure against the barbarians from the north. Then China invented gun powder.

The Great Wall has withstood remarkably the rain, snow, sun and wind of 21 centuries. Today the bricks of sandy clay still hold, firmly cemented by that marvelous white mortar, the secret of which died with the makers.

In the dim past a million spears have dashed against the wall in vain, a million arrows have fallen blunted from its sides.

EASILY BREACHED

But in our immediate present a hundred rounds from a battery of Japanese field pieces make a breach sufficient for the passage of an army.

However, it must not be imagined that the Japanese and the Manchus are performing the superhuman when they crash through this serpentine barrier. The truth is that the wall has been of no great military value since the year 1700, A.D.

China has moved southward, and her heart is no longer in Peking or the north country. The once glorious Peking, or Peiping, as they call it today, is a dying city left to its fate by the moderns of Nanking, Shanghai, Canton and the Yellow River.

They appear resigned to the death of the Great Wall, which would be a pity; as much so as if the pyramid of Cheops should crumble into dust.

Of all the wonders of the world, ancient and modern, from the hanging gardens of Babylon to the Panama Canal, the Great Wall is second to none. To see is to believe!

Three to four hours by train or motor is required for the run from Peiping to Chinling-chiao-tze, where dinner is filled for the most part with American tourists, and most of the way it is a tedious journey.

AT GREAT WALL

The trip is finished in the hills, on which pine trees grow and through which Wan Li Chang Cheng winds its glorious way. That is the Chinese name. "The wall of ten thousand li," a "li" being something less than half a mile.

Thus in their title they exaggerate the length a bit, although it were laid out in a straight line, without bends or spurs, the wall would measure 2500 miles, about the distance from New York to Los Angeles.

Coolies with sedan chairs carry the ambassadors, while the more toughened ones pick their own way on foot up and down the parapets. From the high spots the scene is one always to be remembered, as impressive as the first sudden glance of the tropics, or of dawn as seen from Darjeling.

Chinese legend and literature are saturated with stories about the wall, and one proverb comes to mind at this time which little brown men stand before it waiting the word to batter through.

"The proverb has to do with a story involving the ancient custom whereby the gates of the Chinese never opened before cock's crow, and of how entrance once was obtained by a boy imitating this crow. It runs: "Fear the rooster from the north more than the tiger from the south."

Stars and Stripes

There's more truth than humor in the suggestion that years ago "Anthony Adverse" might have appeared printed in four or five volumes.

Italy and Ethiopia could get a good fight right in the League of Nations without having to go to all the bother of mobilizing armies.

The battle grounds of Geneva aren't going to be sprinkled with any American white crosses.

A watchman at the University of New Hampshire is said to have succeeded in keeping the electric bill down by turning off the lights. His luck was better than others report.

Should the Townsend plan come in, many May and December marriages are predicted. But, if it's in by May, few of the happy couples are likely to wait for December.

Residents of Brant Rock are divided in opinion as to whether a meteor fell there. But all agree that, if it did, it picked a good place to fall.

Claim is made that Worcester's city golf links netted $1404 last summer. And without the aid of the usual "19th hole."

Harvard meteorologist who finds the sun's rays hotter in winter than in summer helps us to understand those "L" street "brownies."

Many New England town meetings lack contests. Who wants to fight anyway, right after using up energy "shoveling out" of the latest snowfall?

Text For Today "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."—St. Luke, xix, 10. Suggested by the Rev. Robert A. Miller, Church of The Incarnation, Lynn.